

SOUTHERN COMMERCIAL CONVENTIONS

So many of these assemblies have convened, their more than suggestive ideas of enterprise, skill, and the steady expansion of foreign trade...

New York Money Market

We have again to record a further improvement in the condition and tone of the money market. Money is rapidly accumulating, and capitalists are becoming exceedingly puzzled with it to do with...

THE HERALD PREACHES WELL

The Herald preaches well. There is a vein in his remarks against church members, which leads us to think his sympathies are against them.

DIRECT TRADE WITH THE SOUTH

There are indications of a growing disposition in many sections of the South to hold back their cotton, for a rise in the price...

CAROLINA WATCHMAN

SALISBURY, N. C. TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 10, 1857. TERMS OF THIS PAPER $2.00 CASH.

Errors.—We make apologies, and therefore do not make them. But there were several blunders—errors—in the last week's paper...

SELLING OFF AT COST

Worried-sorry to see that this system of buying business is extending both in and out of New York. It is destructive of all regular and fair business...

HARD TIMES AT THE WEST

From every section of the West and North west we have complaints of hard times. The Erie and Wisconsin says: Throughout the prairie of Wisconsin they are discharging their hands...

THE PATRIOTIC FLAG

The patriotic flag, Green-brown, devotes about two columns to an account of a Bear, which passed through that place one morning not long since.

THE ANTI-SLAV BATTLE

The Anti-Slavery Battle was on parade Sunday last, daily equipped with a very handsome company. The dress was of pale blue and white...

THE SUNDAY LIFE GUARD

The Sunday Life Guard was on parade Sunday last, daily equipped with a very handsome company. The dress was of pale blue and white...

THE SUNDAY FIRE COMPANY

The Sunday Fire Company is an ancient company, ought to be revived, and the trouble of bringing it to life ought to fall upon the Commissioners.
