Anti-Holden Movement.—We feel very indignant, and patriotically so, at the determination of the Democracy to hold their State Convention at Charlotte. It is currently reported to be a movement against our friend and neighbor, citizen Holden, and in favor of Judge Ellis. If citizen Holden had consulted us we could have shown him how to block the game that is played against him. It may be, however, that it is not too late now to win the game. We must exert ourselves; we must write to our friends to be present in full delegation; to look strong and talk big; to press our services to the party, and consequent claims on its favors and rewards; to show how many great big men we have made out of the very smallest materials, &c., &c. This we must do, and we must be up and doing at once. We have a minute to spare.
