At a meeting of the Concordia Society of the United States Institute at Taylorsville, N. C., held on the 21st of May, 1858. The following preamble and resolves were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, it has pleased an all-wise God, by an effective dispensation of his providence, to remove from our midst, this morning, at the hour of 7 o'clock, our much esteemed and beloved Brother and companion, W. Preston,—McIntosh, Therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That while death is at all times productive of sorrow and regret, and especially the death of one just entering upon the prime of life, and who was peculiarly fitted by early training, his habits of industry and application, by a well regulated moral character, and a proper sense of religious duties, while the death of such a one is peculiarly distressing, yet we bow with humble submission to his will, who doeth all things well.

Resolved, 2nd. That in our deceased Brother we always found a courteous companion, a worthy Brother, and one who, in all his relations as a member of this society and as a student of school, has left us an example in every particular worthy of imitation.

Resolved, 3d. That we sincerely sympathize with the parents and relatives of the deceased in their affliction, in being thus early called upon to give up a son so much beloved, and one, who gave promise of much future usefulness, while we would mingle our tears with theirs, yet we are fully persuaded, that their loss has been his eternal gain.

Resolved, 4th. That in token of our respect for our Brother, and our sorrow for his early departure, we will wear the usual Badge of mourning for thirty days, and that our hall be draped in mourning, and that we request our sister Society to join us in this expression of grief.

Resolved, 5th. That a copy of these be handed to the family of our deceased brother, also that copies be sent to the Iredell Express, Salisbury Watchman, Biblical Recorder, and the North Carolinian, with the request that they publish the same.

The Girls of Salisbury.

Fair are the glad-eyed Tuscan dames,
Who glean the grapes on (Arno's river;
And sweet the flowers of old Castile,
Beside the Guadalquivir;
And pure the snow-drops of the north,
That climb the crags and prove the heather
But fairer, purer, sweeter far
Than these, or all of them together,
Are they I sing—say wonder not
At these poor lines, Oh! very—
I sing—how can I help but sing!—
The peerless Girls of Salisbury!

The good Book tells of Rachel, Ruth,—
Cornelia guides the Roman's pages,
And Scandinavian sagas flaunt
The Snowmaze of their ages!
The Chronicles of France unfold
Full many a tale of love and glory,
Of gage and glove, and red-cross Knights
Of Hebrew—but then my story
Belongs not to the age of blood,
Has nought to do——delicious Strawberry!—
My bodice type but has one tone,
It is—the Girls of Salisbury!

Away ye musty scrolls and tomes!
Avaunt illuminated missals!
Ye relics of the world's young day,
To me are mural thistles!
What care I for the past!—my eyes,
With many tears, are for past weeping,
And hem-stitched cambric is the grave
Wherein those tears are sleeping!
My present man is hunking up,
My brain's a fiery commotion, very,
My heart, alas! no longer mine,
My heart's the Girls' of Salisbury.

Farewell, farewell—I may not taunt
My errant fancy any longer!
Of late I've gone on very strong,
I cannot go it stronger!
Farewell ye dear, distracting dames!
Farewell ye pic-nics, walks and dances!
Farewell ye party-tailed gloves!
Farewell ye melting glances!
Farewell ye sweetie of sore-lost smiles,
Now emblems of the heart, O!—ey
Farewell ye quoits—like ladies fair!
Farewell ye Girls of Salisbury!

The Late British Searches.—We copy the following paragraph from a late London Times. The reported richness of the prize may perhaps account for the recent eagerness of the British cruisers on the West India station to make captives of the slavers:

Capture of a Rich Slaver.—A letter from an officer on board the gun-boat Jasper, Lieutenant and Commander H. Pym, says: "We have captured and brought in, I may safely say, the largest and richest prize ever captured in the slave trade. She is a full-rigged and fast sailing ship of 750 tons burthen, with a full slave equipment, and provisions for subsistence. She also had on board specie in gold to the amount of 2,285 ps. Spanish and Mexican, or about £8,500 sterling. Her name and nation are unknown. We captured her on the north side of Matanzas, on the 22d of March, between 9 and 10 a. m., she having sailed from Havana on the previous night, to purchase and bring over slaves for the Island of Cuba. We had rather an exciting chase for about four and a half hours. At 7 a. m. the Styx (6, paddle, Commander Vesey,) hove in sight and joined in the chase, but kept astern of us till the prize was taken. She, however, still stood on till we were within a mile of her, when she lowered her royals, but did not heave to until two or more shots were thrown. We boarded and examined her. She had no papers. Slave coppers were lying on the main deck, and their furnaces in a case in the square of the main hatchway, marked 'Marseilles,' to which place they pretend to be going. We also found slave irons and spare plank for slave deck, marked, fitted and numbered, but not in its place, 350 'leagers,' and 500 tons of water in them, an immense quantity of rice, farina, coffee, dried salt fish, 16 puncheons of rum, and other necessaries. The Styx shares, but the Jasper will share in the proceeds of a prize taken the day previous by the Styx."

Napier Despatches a Special Messenger.

Washington, May 21.—Lord Napier to-day despatched a special messenger to the Admiral of the British American Squadron in the Gulf, requesting him to forbear to fetter the visitation of our vessels. The messenger expects to find the Admiral at Halifax. If not there, he is to proceed to the West India station in a steamer.

The Golden Clasp.—Sunday is the golden clasp that binds together the volume of the week.

[illegible] Female Seminary, Greensborough, N. C., has very unexpectedly to us, accepted the challenge we made him some weeks ago; but the peculiar phase of the circumstances in his somewhat embarrassing case, constrain us to acknowledge that we must have myself, and that he is "opposite man" in every sense of the word. Our "honor" is satisfied, and with best wishes, &c., &c., we have the pleasure, to be, &c.,

Very Respectfully,

GOVERNOR MOREHEAD.

Although we do not speak from authority, yet we have heard it rumored that Gov. Morehead yielding to the solicitations of many friends, has consented to become a candidate for the next Legislature. We are rejoiced to hear this and hope that rumor this time speaks the truth. We know of our own knowledge, having mixed freely with the people last week, that there is a general desire that Gov. Morehead should be a member of the next Legislature. The people feel that the time has arrived when it has become necessary to have in our Legislative councils, our ablest, best and most prudent citizens. Should Mr. Morehead yield to the wishes of the people and become a candidate, we have no doubt it will be hailed with pleasure throughout the State.—Patriot and Flag.

WE WISH TO CALL THE SPECIAL ATTENTION of each of our readers to the advertisement in another column of Mr. Smithdeal's Liver Invigorator. In so doing as we think we are doing them a favor, for this article cannot be too highly spoken of as it performs all the properties it claims to have it. We know of some of the worst cases of Liver Derangement, Dyspepsia, Jaundice and General Debility, being cured by the use of this invaluable article.

It seems to strike at the root of the disease, and restores the system, thus effecting a permanent cure that cannot be gained by using the mineral preparations that are commonly resorted to for diseases of the liver. This preparation is created on good authority to be entirely vegetable, being composed wholly of gums that have rarely ever been introduced in any medicine previous to the introduction of the Invigorator.

These gums are said to have almost fabulous power in their action on the liver and its surrounding organs, causing it to expel its morbid, unhealthy bile, rousing it from its torpid state and making it perform its proper functions in the human economy.—Branch County Democrat. 1m3

Let those of us ministers or Missionaries, or rather so pretended servants. The Medical Faculty publish as many as made, all their discoveries, and almost all that is known of real value for the cure of diseases, has been discovered by them. Dr. Ayer takes the honorable and honest course, and right because it is, which medical skill can devise for the cure of certain complaints; them publishes what it is and maintains his sovereignty of it solely by making it cheaper, better, more perfect, than anybody else can. If the people would expose this of all who offer medicines, they would have much less trade and trash to swallow.—New Orleans Organ. 1m 2

A CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

From the Hon. Solomon Foote, from Vermont.

Washington, D. C., June 1.

Dr. Geo. B. Green.—Dear Sir: In your note of this morning, you ask "for an expression of my opinion in regard to your medicine, called Oxygenated Bitters." It affords me pleasure to state, that from the experience I have had, in curing a severe attack of Dyspepsia in my own family, and from the effects which it has produced in other and more severe cases, serving in families of Members of Congress with whom I am acquainted, I think it an invaluable medicine, and hope that such circulation will be given to it as will bring it within the reach of all who are afflicted with that distressing malady.

Respectfully yours,
S. FOOTE.

WILD CHERRY AT THE SOUTH.

Our Agent at Athens, Georgia, sends us the following Letter, with permission to publish:

Athens, August 24.

DEAR SIR: Having been afflicted for more than ten months with Chronic Inflammation of the Lungs, at times very severely, and having adopted many medicines without any but temporary relief, I purchased about three bottles of White's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from the effects of which I obtained more relief than from all the medicines I had ever taken for that distressing disorder. I have, by the repeated use of this valuable Balsam, been more free from pressure for breath and oppression on the Lungs, than I had anticipated, and, indeed, conceive that I will be cured, by continuing its use, of this most distressing malady. I do most cheerfully tender you this acknowledgment, which you will use as your judgment dictates.

PLAN OF THE LOTTERY.

The Numbers from 1 to 50,000, corresponding with those Numbers on the Tickets printed on separate slips of paper, are enclosed with small tin tubes and placed in one Wheel.

The 5495 Prizes, similarly printed and enclosed, are placed in another wheel.

The wheels are then revolved, and as a number is drawn from the wheel of Numbers, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The Number and Prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the persons present, and recorded by Commissioners; the Prize being placed against the Number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the Prizes are drawn out.

APPROXIMATION PRIZES.—The two preceding and the two succeeding Numbers to those drawing the Grand Prizes will be entitled to the $2 Approximation Prizes. For example: If No. 17250 draws the $10,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 17248, 17249, 17251, 17252, will each be entitled to $400. If No. 350 draws the $10,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 348, 349, 351, 352, will each be entitled to $300, and so on proceeding in the same manner.

The 200 Prizes of $500 will be determined by the last figure of the Number that draws the $10,000 Prize. For example: If the Number drawing the $10,000 Prize ends with No. 1, then all the Tickets, whose the number ends in 1, will be entitled to $500. If the Number ends with No. 5, then all the Tickets where the Number ends in 5 will be entitled to $500, and so on to 0.

FROM

SAMUEL SWAN & CO.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE extraordinary course pursued by the rival managers of different Lotteries to injure us because our liberal schemes, and prompt manner of doing business has materially affected theirs, compels us to call special attention to the facts, which all who deal with us know already; that is, that our Lotteries are legal; the managers and trustees honest and honorable men; that we have paid more prizes in the last twelve months than all other Lotteries in the Union, and that they have been promptly cashed in all cases on presentation.

The effort to injure us is aimed not only at our business by our rivals, but is also intended to act politically on one of our partners; and we assure our friends and the public that WITH OUR CONCERN ALL IS RIGHT, and this, the legal investigation which we shall urge to a hearing, will fully demonstrate. In the meantime our business will be conducted as usual.

Four Horse Coaches.

THE TRAVELLING PUBLIC are respectfully requested to give this line a trial. They will find it to be the cheapest, SHORTEST and BEST route WEST. My Coaches are four-horse, Nine and Fourteen Passenger Concord Coaches.

(No Hacks on the Road.)

My Horses are well trained and gentle, and I take pleasure in recommending the Drivers on this line as being the most sober, careful and gentlemanly Drivers to be found on any stage line.

Travellers will find this route a more pleasant one than any other, passing through Statesville by the Catawba Rail Road Bridge, Newton, Morganton, Marion, Pleasant Gardens, Swannanoa Gap of the Blue Ridge, in full view of the celebrated Mt. Mitchell and Mt. Clingman of the Black Mountains. Persons wishing to visit the Black Mountains can procure a guide and horses at Mr. Swain's or Patton's, and in a few hours ride reach the Black Mountain House, and at their leisure visit Mitchell's Falls, Mt. Clingman and Mt. Mitchell the highest peaks of land East of the Rocky Mountains.

Tickets on this line good for three months.
