CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

SALISBURY, N. C.

TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 28, 1858.

RENEWAL.—The subscription year of many of our patrons expires with the year 1858...

The following subjects have been made the order of the day, in the Legislature...

COUNCIL OF STATE. The following gentlemen were elected Council of State, on the 23d Dec. for the next two years:

THREATENED WAR IN UTAH. There is threatened war in Utah with the Indians...

AMERICA IN THE OLD WORLD. A traveler walking along the streets of European cities...

THE BOYDEN HOUSE. This splendid house, we understand, is to be opened sometime this winter...

THE COAST SURVEY. We learn from the Washington Union that our Government has now in operation thirty-six Coast Survey parties...

The editor of the Southern Watchman... has published a neutral paper...

Now this is too bad. It is downright slander. We are sorry, Mr. Watchman...

Now do not get angry, Mr. Watchman. We are not neutral in anything...
