A. MYERS.
NO 4, GRANITE BUILDING

HAS already opened and will continue to add, all through the season, a large and most varied assortment of STAPLE and FANCY GOODS, which he has ever been his Good Fortune to offer. He will attempt no detail of his Supply, suffice it to say, that he

Elegant Silks and Silk Robes,

(some surpassingly beautiful, never to be duplicated in Worsted and other Dress Goods. Ladies desirous of getting the Most FASHIONABLE in the Styles, are invited to call, as I am constantly receiving by Express the Latest and Newest Styles of the season.

It is useless for me to enumerate here, each of Embroideries as to that department, I have a Stock to particularly strong and magnificent stock among which may be found many novelties.

As to CLOAKS and SHAWLS, it is to be found the largest and richest assortment, which cannot be surpassed.

In Fancy Goods for Farmers, Ladies and Servants, he can always select from a stock of unequaled in the market, as to Linens, Sheetings, Domestic Goods, Kentucky Jeans, Flannels, Satinetts, Osnaburgs, Brown and Bleached Goods, Blankets, Hats, Caps, Ready-Made Clothing, Boots and Shoes, &c., &c., all of which will be sold at the very lowest rates.

FELLOW CITIZENS:

I APPEAR before you to-day to declare myself a candidate for popular favor, and respectfully ask you to

Draw Near

and harken to the words of high concern for your welfare which I am to communicate. It affords me the most exquisite pleasure imaginable to address so large and respectable a number of you, and I sincerely hope that you will Treasure up the information I design imparting to you, as it may prove more precious than silver and gold.

FELLOW CITIZENS! I feel utterly and strangely incapable of doing justice to the important subject which claims our attention on this occasion; and if it were not as

Acknowledged Truth

that every horse must switch his own tail, or be flea-bitten, I would instantly back down and cripple some distinguished stump orator to take part at the public polls and at the cross-roads, and make known the facts

That

HOFFLIN'S carefully selected stock of Fall and Winter Ready-Made Clothing, comprising every shade and grade of every varied article of dress, has arrived; and that he, can exhibit the sublimest spectacle of Fashionable adornments to be met with in the United States—starch-ed and pucker!—enough to cover a thousand handsome forms in habiliments at once neat, rich, strong, beautiful and cheap. He should also make known that HOFFLIN'S Store is on the corner, at the Mansion Hotel, abundantly convenient to every visitor of Salisbury who designs visiting the most popular parts of town—well supplied with light and comfort, where he

MARCUS HOFFLIN,

Continues to Sell

Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Coats, Vests, Hose, Gloves, Stocks, Cravats, Shirts, Drawers, Suspenders,—everything a man can wear, and all of the best quality,

at Lower Prices

than any other Dealer in North Carolina.

Curiosity quickens the powers of human nature, and leads judicious people to the discovery of many profitable facts that might otherwise remain sealed forever. Now just let it work you up to HOFFLIN'S Store to see his new Stock, and to hear his prices. You are obliged to have Clothing—the law compels—but not obliged to buy from Hoffin. [?] But suppose he should offer you the best bargains, then what's that's the question. He knows what he can do, and intends to do what he can to accommodate every one, high and low, rich and poor. Who may favor him with a call. [illegible] CALL AND TRY HIM.

Salisbury, Sept 27, 1859.

REAL ESTATE.

WISHING to concentrate my hands on one place, I propose to sell the plantation on which I now reside, containing 307¼ ACRES. Most of the soil is grey ground, the remainder a dark loam, equal in fertility to any in Rowan. Nearly one half of the land is still in woods, containing a great deal of fine timber, right along side the N. C. R. R. There is about 40 Acres of BOTTOM LAND and MEADOW, of superior quality. The DWELLING is well arranged, containing nine rooms, garret and cellar, and also 6 fire-places, and is in view of the Yadkin River and N. C. Rail Road. The garden and spring are stored out, and the out-buildings, some of which are new, are well arranged and comfortable.

The location is quite convenient, being within five miles of Salisbury, and very healthy. The soil is highly adapted to fine Tobacco, Cotton, Grass, Fruits, and garden vegetables.

CONSUMPTION AND ASTHMA CURED.

DR. H JAMES, discovered, while in the East Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him when his only child, a daughter was given up to die. His child was cured, and is alive and well. Desirous of benefitting his fellow mortals, he will send to those who wish it, the receipt containing full directions for making and successfully using this remedy, free, on receipt of their names with stamp for return postage. There is not a single symptom of consumption that it does not at once take hold of and dissipate. Night sweats, pertinacious, irritation of the nerves, failure of memory, difficult expectoration, sharp pains in the lungs, wasting away of the muscles. Yours, Yours Respectfully,
HENRY JENKINS.

Cor. Columbia and Carroll Sts., Brooklyn.

Livingston, Ala., Feb 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a night-burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known to an effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c., S. W. MIDDLETON

Philadelphia, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving to be beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact BALD. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well clothed with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also recovering its beauty. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendations, I can induce many others to try it.—Yours, respectfully

D. R. THOMAS, M. D.,
No. 164 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three [illegible] large as those sold at the usual [illegible] and retails for one dollar per bottle. The medium kinds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small—retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3.
