

J. J. BRUNER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. TERMS: Single copy, $2.00; Five copies, $10.00; Ten copies, $18.00. Clubs: $1.50 each. Payment always in advance.

Carrollton

VOL. XVII. SALISBURY, N. C., APRIL 3, 1860. NUMBER 45.

Devoted to Politics, News, Agriculture, Internal Improvements, Commerce, the Arts and Sciences, Morality, and the Family Circle.

BLANKS.

The following Court and miscellaneous BLANKS are kept on hand for sale, at this office. Can be sent by mail to any part of the country, at small charges.

THERE'S NOTHING LOST.

There's nothing lost. The letter bearer that goes with the chicken, will find it in the pocket of the man who has the chicken.

JOHN POOL AND JOHN W. ELLIS.

The following extract is taken from the speech of Gov. Ellis, in the late Democratic Convention, accepting his nomination for the office of Governor, as reported in the Standard of the 10th Inst.

WHO MADE THE "BLACK REPUBLICANS?"

Black Republicans is the bog bear with which Southern Democrats seek, on all occasions, to frighten children into bed, or into their party, which is worse.

A Negro Question in New Jersey.

It has lately been the custom of some of the organs of Philadelphia to purchase land in the name of John J. Camden, N. J., and to build and settle in that place.

How an Administration Paper in Michigan is Sustained.

Michigan is Sustained. Senator Chandler, of Michigan, in a recent speech, in which he exposed the corrupt means resorted to by the Administration to support the Journal which defied it, said:

THE UNION.

THE UNION. It is a great and noble thing to be a Union man. It is a noble thing to be a Union man.

THE SEASON OF SUGAR MAKING.

The season of sugar making is now in progress in some of the Northern States. It is a season of industry and of hope.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE, N. C.

Davidson College, N. C. The lowest which has been paid for some time between this institution and the heirs of the late Maxwell Davidson, Esq., has been compromised by the trustees.

A Female Mice and her Savings.

A female mice, a maiden lady, died in Lynchburg, Va., on Thursday the 8th inst., at the age of sixty-eight years.

SUPREME COURT—OPINIONS.

By Parsons, C. J. In Hayes vs. Abner, from Hartford, judgment reversed and venire de novo. Hayes vs. Kinsey, from Carrick, affirming the judgment.

RULES FOR HOME EDUCATION.

The following are worthy of being printed in letters of gold, and being placed in a conspicuous position in every household.

A Sad Affair.

A business letter from Chapel Hill gives us the following particulars of a distressing occurrence at that place.

The Woolly Horse.

Of which so much has been said and written, has arrived in Richmond, and will be exhibited in the course of a few days.

Mississippi Repudiation.

A majority (four out of seven) of the joint committee of the Mississippi Legislature, to whom was referred the Governor's message relating to the Planters' Bank bonds, have reported against the expediency of applying the question of the payment of these bonds at this session of the Legislature.

Supposed to be Killed.

As the mail train was coming up from Wilmington yesterday evening a man is supposed to have been killed in the following manner: The train was approaching Tar River bridge, when the engineer saw a man on the opposite end, but of course thought he would get before the train reached him.

THE RAILROAD.

The annual meeting of stockholders in the Coal Fields Railroad will be found in another column. We have not received a copy of the President's Report, but the following facts from it will be of interest to its friends.

AGRICULTURAL.

Chinese Sugar Cane for Hogs.

From the Southern Cultivator. Commenting upon an extract which you take from Boston Cultivator, in relation to the Chinese Sugar Cane, you say, "we trust that no unfortunate discovery will be made in regard to this plant as a food for hogs."

A VERY CURIOUS EXPERIMENT WITH GUANO.

From the Southern Cultivator. As some of your readers reproduce book farming as but a synopsis of decayed experiments, I submit the following just to see if it will become any less true for appearing in print.

Feed Often and Little at a Time!

The following remarks upon this subject we copy from the Rural New Yorker. There are some facts in it worth noting.

HINTS FOR A SEASON OF SCARCITY.

Irregular and excessive feeding of animals is not as good, and will not result as favorably as feeding a less amount so frequently that the animal never gets very hungry.

A Colored Prodigal Returning.

We copy the following paragraph from the Cincinnati Times of the 13th: Mr. Thomas Ferris, a resident of Shelbyville, Tenn., passed through the city yesterday with a fugitive slave, who had been taken to the city by the police.

AGRICULTURAL.

Chinese Sugar Cane for Hogs.

From the Southern Cultivator. Commenting upon an extract which you take from Boston Cultivator, in relation to the Chinese Sugar Cane, you say, "we trust that no unfortunate discovery will be made in regard to this plant as a food for hogs."

A VERY CURIOUS EXPERIMENT WITH GUANO.

From the Southern Cultivator. As some of your readers reproduce book farming as but a synopsis of decayed experiments, I submit the following just to see if it will become any less true for appearing in print.

Feed Often and Little at a Time!

The following remarks upon this subject we copy from the Rural New Yorker. There are some facts in it worth noting.

HINTS FOR A SEASON OF SCARCITY.

Irregular and excessive feeding of animals is not as good, and will not result as favorably as feeding a less amount so frequently that the animal never gets very hungry.

A Colored Prodigal Returning.

We copy the following paragraph from the Cincinnati Times of the 13th: Mr. Thomas Ferris, a resident of Shelbyville, Tenn., passed through the city yesterday with a fugitive slave, who had been taken to the city by the police.

Days to be Born On.

Born on a Sunday, a gentleman; Born on a Monday, fair in face; Born on a Tuesday, full of grace; Born on a Wednesday, poor and grim; Born on a Thursday, wretched inmate; Born on a Saturday, work hard for your living.

AGRICULTURAL.

Chinese Sugar Cane for Hogs.

From the Southern Cultivator. Commenting upon an extract which you take from Boston Cultivator, in relation to the Chinese Sugar Cane, you say, "we trust that no unfortunate discovery will be made in regard to this plant as a food for hogs."

A VERY CURIOUS EXPERIMENT WITH GUANO.

From the Southern Cultivator. As some of your readers reproduce book farming as but a synopsis of decayed experiments, I submit the following just to see if it will become any less true for appearing in print.

Feed Often and Little at a Time!

The following remarks upon this subject we copy from the Rural New Yorker. There are some facts in it worth noting.

HINTS FOR A SEASON OF SCARCITY.

Irregular and excessive feeding of animals is not as good, and will not result as favorably as feeding a less amount so frequently that the animal never gets very hungry.

A Colored Prodigal Returning.

We copy the following paragraph from the Cincinnati Times of the 13th: Mr. Thomas Ferris, a resident of Shelbyville, Tenn., passed through the city yesterday with a fugitive slave, who had been taken to the city by the police.

Days to be Born On.

Born on a Sunday, a gentleman; Born on a Monday, fair in face; Born on a Tuesday, full of grace; Born on a Wednesday, poor and grim; Born on a Thursday, wretched inmate; Born on a Saturday, work hard for your living.

BUILDING SITE.

We may safely put on record the following rules as worthy of being observed by their class of persons who desire to build, and who are not compelled to restrict their selection of an appropriate site within certain limits which they cannot over pass.

How to Prepare Bones for Manure.

An esteemed correspondent, Mr. Charles F. Raymond, of Norwalk, Conn., says the Field & Fivendale sends the following recipe for preparing bones as manure:

Amusing News.

A part from the interest manifested by many intelligent persons in the electro-psychological experiments by Dr. Williams, at Medford's Institute Hall, the amusement they are affording to lookers-on, are sufficient to repay a visit.

A Practical Legislature.

An amusing scene in the Legislature of Pennsylvania occurred on a motion to remove the capital of the State from Harrisburg to Philadelphia.

Four Brothers Barred to Death.

In the night of Monday, the 12th inst., shortly after the family of Mr. Wm. Rhodes, a farmer residing in Knox township, Pa., had retired to rest, the dwelling was discovered to be on fire.

Principles vs. Men.

The Democratic Convention requires two-thirds to make a nomination, and a majority only to "lay down the platform" of the party.