From the Raleigh Register THE DEMOCRACY OF GRANVILLE REPU DIATING THIER PLATFORM. Oxforn, May 25, 1868.

Ms. Ebron: The Demogratic Convento nominate candidates to represent gislature, met here to-day. Every district in the county was represented, and after it was organized, on motion, three delegates from each captain's destrict in the county were appointed a committee to select and recommend annable persondeliberation, reported the names of C. II K. Taylor, for the Senate, La Hargrove, Edward Lyon and J. M. Bullock, ! House of Commons, and neved that the nominations of these gentlemen be made unanimous. At this stage of the proceed ings T. Brown Venatile, E. . arme and ered that each candidate's matter be submitted separately to the convention. and before the vote was taken the canddate should state whether he end red and stood squarely on the platform of the nocratic party as adopted by their in Baleigh the 10th day of March, 1860 In making this motion, Mr. Venable and be was prepared to support, confially. each and every person bounded, procould not support them.

Mr. Thomas Lyon said the resultation

Mr. Venable was an unusual one. He had never heard of such a thing being re quired of a capdidate before. He thought unnecessary and would say for himself if he was one of the nominees and he could not stand fairly and equarely on the platform, honor would prevent him sceepting the nomination, and he

Mr. Willis Jenkins said that Mr. Venable's motion was calculated to produce organization in the Democratic party; be. Mr. Venable, two years ago had ried the same thing, &ce.

Think of this, Democrats of North Car-plina, that a motion for the candidates of your party to endorse your platform of put forth by your State Con is pronounced by a leading De perat in the largest slaveholding county in the State as a disorganizing move ment. Mr. Venable's motion was then neted upon and voted down by a large Mr. Venable then introduced dution that the convention endorse the platform of the late Democratic State ption in all its parts. Cries were heard of table it, table it, and Mr. Hary, and moved that it be laid on the table Venable said, and proclaimed it, that the vote on laying on the table was to be considered a test rate as to the passage of the resolution. The motion to lay on the table was put and carried by an overming majority. Mr. Bullock then came forward, accepted the nomination, and said be endorsed the platform fully is all its parts. Mr. Hargrove then accepted the nomination, but said mothing of the platform. This was expected or it has been known here by every one that he was out and out for ad valorem. Mr. Edward Lyon said he must decline the nomination, but said he believed al most everybody was for ad valorem, and if the people wanted equal taxation, they would have it in spite of conventions.— Mr. Taylor was not present, but I believe lerstood he will accept, and is opposed to ad valorem. The convention Thos. Lyon in place of Edward Lyon, but he declined—they then nominated Sain. H. Cannady, who also declined—they then nominated Wm. Jenkins, and gave him two weeks to decide upon
