THE FLAG OF THE FREE.

Air—Red, White and Blue.

Oh well we remember the story
When Columbia, the child of a day,
Rose her banner, all covered with glory,
Wherever the tyrant held sway.
Beneath the stars and the stripes she them gather,
From the mountain, the plain, and the sea.
And cheer shouts rent the blue vaults of ether,
"We die on the field or are free!"

Chorus—"We die on the field or are free,
We die on the field or are free."
And their shouts rent the blue vaults of ether,
"We die on the field or are free!"

The memory be cherished forever,
Of the sires who fell on the field.
Who swore that their heart-strings should never
Ere to Tyranny's mandates they yield,
Oh! sacred the spot where they perished,
And green may their graves ever be,
And age after age shall be cherished
The flag that waved over the free!

The heroes have gone to their slumber.
All silent and peaceful they lie.
While the stars, still increasing in number,
Like a wave seem to mirror the sky—
And high over land, and on ocean,
In victory it streams far and wide,
Till our hearts seem to burst with emotion,
As we gaze on that banner with pride

Wherever doth the wild waves of ocean,
Wherever the dark waters dwide,
Where the storm-bird terrific its commotion,
There floats our banner in pride,—
On mountain top, plain or in valley,
Wherever a heritage may be,
The home of Columbia doth rally,
And shout for the Flag of the free!

Oh Brothers say, sat, would ye sever,
The bond once cemented in gore!
Would ye shame that proud banner? Oh never!
Tell Time and its trials are o'er.
Beneath its broad folds—and no other—
When discord and madness shall flee
Let us rally, each man as a brother,
And shout for the Flag of the Free!

"A CUP OF COLD WATER."

A cup of cold water! Oh, never forget
To the mercy of Heaven its ripples are set,
And a halo of light from the heart wherever it flows
Shall rest upon him who its fresh wave bestows.

A cup of cold water! Ah, dark is the way,
And many the wanderers benighted they stray;
They faint by the wayside, they linger and die,
While the strong in their vigor pass heedlessly by

They thirst, and on misery the cloud may drop down,
No edges of glory their dark sombre crown;
They look up in vain for the soft, cooling shower,
To water up the bloom of their life's fading flower.

They thirst for the love that hath blessed them of yore,
The kind words and tones that are theirs never more,
They faint for the strong words of courage and hope,
To light up the dark day along which they grope.

They thirst, and the weakest and humblest that live,
Can stretch forth a hand that cool draught to give,
And a look or a tone, or a soft word of love,
Those sad eyes may turn to the starlight above.

That cup of cold water! Oh, never forget
To the mercy of Heaven it ripples are set,
And a halo of light from the heart wherever it flows,
Shall rest upon him who its freshness bestows.

LOVE, NOT HATE.

The Baltimore American gently reproves contemporary who expressed a desire to see some evil men "hated out of the neighborhood," and proceeds to deliver a very excellent sermon on the beauties of Charity and the necessity for its exercise towards the erring, from which we we make the following feeling extract:

There never was a man yet reclaimed from evil by hate. There never was a man yet saved but by love. Criminals long hardened by vice have been known to exhibit feeling for the first time when thoroughly convinced that they were regarded with kindness by others, and from the rough and ragged crevices of their granite natures flowers of purity and joy have peeped forth to greet the sunlight of affection. "God is Love" is the secret of all human and celestial happiness. That great and beautiful truth is proclaimed in every star that twinkles in the blue sky; in the joyous laugh of the cradled child as the morning light crimsons the drapery of his couch, and in the swelling chant of the mighty archangel as he bathes his pinions in a flood of golden radiance from the Sun of Righteousness. And it will astonish those who would "hate" man out of society to reflect where all mankind would be if Eternal Hate instead of Eternal Love ruled the counsels of the skies.

FORGIVENESS.

Nothing is more moving to me than the spectacle of reconciliation; our weaknesses are thus indemnified, and are not too costly, being the price we pay for the hours of forgiveness; and the archangel, who has never felt anger, has reason to envy the man who subdues it. When thou forgettest, the man who has pierced thy heart stands to thee in the relation of the sea-worm that perforates the shell of the tortoise; which straightway closes the wound with a pearl.

"MY FATHER—MY MOTHER, LOVED ME."

Send your little child to bed happy.—Whatever cares press, give it a warm good-night kiss, as it goes to its pillow.—The memory of this, in the stormy years which fate may have in store for the little one, will be like Bethlehem's star to the wondered shepherds. "My father—my mother loved me!" Fate cannot take away that blessed heart-balm. Lips parched with the world's fever will become dewy again at this thrill of youthful memories. Kiss your little child before it goes to sleep.

☞ We observe that Mr. Clingman was sworn in for his new term on the 4th instant. He consents, then, to serve under Lincoln. The gentleman is "watching and waiting." Like some others in this State, federal gold is still acceptable to him. He holds his seat, and endeavors to destroy the very government he was commissioned to serve and uphold. Ral. Standard.

The Ad Valorem Banner,

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

A short time since I issued a prospectus for a Weekly newspaper, to be called the AD VALOREM BANNER, to be published in the City of Raleigh N. C. The encouragement I have received, far exceeding my most sanguine hopes, induces me to issue this prospectus, the object of which is to inform the public that I will on the 1st of January, 1861, commence the publication of the BANNER, not only WEEKLY, but DAILY.

So far as the Banner takes sides with political parties, it will be Democratic; but with regard to Internal Improvements, a change in our system of Taxation, and the preservation of a Constitutional Union, it will know no party, but will be a zealous advocate of all those, repudiating secret caucuses, (where the spirit of the Constitution is often violated), packed and partial Conventions, and the schooling of would be politicians' demagogues and tricksters. I shall be just and fear not.

TERMS OF THE DAILY BANNER:

Five copies 1 "	20 00

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY BANNER:

MARRIAGE LICENSES FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of mere assertion or laudatory puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to the efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a nutriment peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their nerves are so hurrying that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, South America, and Germany.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound of [illegible] which has long been known as the best remedy for the cure of all diseases arising from impurities of the blood. It is believed that no one who will take this medicine according to the directions can be long afflicted with any disease from which it is capable of relieving him. Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas and Erruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Blood Diseases, Ulcerous Affections of the Throat, Rheumatism, Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic Doloureux, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, and Liver Complaint, Diseases arising from Impure Blood, are some of the complaints arising from impurity of the blood, which this sarsaparilla will cure. Many cures have been made by it of the most distressing character, such as Tetter or Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Boils, Carbuncles, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Blood Poisons, Mercurial Disease, Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Tumors, Ulcers, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Female Weaknesses, Suppressions, Irregularities, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Diseases, Sterility, Pain in the Back and Kidneys, and all complaints arising from a disordered state of the stomach. Some of these complaints are the offspring of scrofula in the blood, and others arise from a low, impoverished state of the blood, or a corrupt state of the same. By the timely expulsion of these impurities they are rooted out of the system, and the cause removed, when the effect must cease to exist. Hence the reformation of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores through which the system will relieve itself of corruptions, if not assisted; but the other through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find it impurities breaking through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, disease can be and is rampant. Scarcely an individual in fifty, perhaps more or less, but has some lurking taint of disease in his blood, and the first cool day or exposure to cold, the repulsion of the surface determines it to some internal organ, and then the fearful conflict begins. Sometimes it is the lungs, and consumption, the destroyer of one-seventh of all who die, fastens its fangs upon them; sometimes it is the liver, and then arises a long train of distressing symptoms, or the kidneys, and then the whole system suffers. Every one knows when he is sick, but few know what ails them. Doctors cannot tell always, for the reason that different diseases have the same symptoms. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by its searching and cleansing power, expels disease, whether it be seated in the lungs, the liver, the blood, the kidneys, or any other part of the system. It has virtues which act directly upon each of these organs, and, by its tonic power over the digestive apparatus, it infuses into them health and vigor. Being sugar coated, it is pleasant to take, and is perfectly safe under any circumstances. Those who have been long afflicted with any of the complaints which this compound will cure, should not be discouraged from giving it a fair trial because they have been deceived by other preparations of the same name. It is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
