PROCEEDINGS IN SECESSIONDOM, &c.

Baltimore, May 2.—The Legislature met this morning, but adjourned over to-day, owing to the absence of many members.

The Union Flag was hoisted on the Court House yesterday, and the halyards were cut by a citizen named Hodge Sampson, who was immediately arrested and lodged in the Marine Hospital. Commissioners were appointed to investigate the matter.

Judge Bond charged the Grand Jury to-day relative to the late riots. He said that all persons concerned in the affair of the 19th April, aiding or not, all having anything to do with the destruction of railroad property or interruption of telegraph wires, were guilty of treason.

Annapolis, May 2.—The Maryland Legislature to-day, by a vote of fourteen to seven, passed a Resolution appointing Governor Hicks, Gen. Scott, Gen. Butler, John C. Brune, Reverdy Johnson, Thomas Watkins Ligon, Frederick Lewis Leeds and Wm. Henry Purnell a Board of Public Safety. A subscription agreed to by Baltimore and vicinity of Union men, Robert McMechen and others, headed by Gen. Scott, received a response to proceed on all subscriptions, and recommended that any forthcoming arrangements are practicable in connection with the maintenance of the peace and honor of the State, and the security of her constitutional rights to occupation of the soil and the property of the citizens by the troops of Government.

The New York Seventh Regiment, one thousand one hundred strong, and Col. Ellsworth's Zouaves, one hundred and fifty in number, arrived in Washington last night.

Large numbers of Secessionists arrived at Harper's Ferry to-day.

The Sixty-ninth New York Regiment, (Irish) three thousand strong, are at Annapolis, and three thousand Pennsylvanians arrive to-day.

Annapolis, May 3.—A resolution providing for the passage of troops through Baltimore, has been offered and referred to the Maryland Legislature.
