The Old North State

SALISBURY, N. C.:

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 3, 1861.

Superior Court—Trial of Cozar.—Little other business than the case of Cozar, who is on trial for an attempted rape upon Mrs. Bogert, of Concord, engaged the attention of the Court last week. It was taken upon Wednesday. The latter half of that day was occupied in selecting a jury. Thursday, and the forenoon of Friday was spent in hearing testimony, and the remainder of that day and Saturday, were consumed in the pleadings. The case was given to the Jury about 6½ o'clock, P. M., and up to this time the case is undecided; the jury being unable to agree.

The prisoner was defended by Messrs. J. H. Wilson, of Charlotte, and H. W. Miller, of Wake. The State Solicitor, Mr. Lander, was assisted in the prosecution by Messrs. L. C. Sharpe, of Iredell and R. N. Fleming, of Rowan.

We have never known a case more thoroughly tried. The speeches of the Attorneys on both sides, were of a high order.

It is reported that the jury is about equally divided. They are "hung," whatever may be the fate of the prisoner.

P. S. The Jury in this case returned their verdict of not guilty at 1 o'clock to-day.

4 o'clock, P. M.—There is an angry crowd at the jail door, demanding Cozar, and they swear he shall be hung.

The Court is still in session; but we understand nearly all the cases on the docket have been, or will be, continued.

Later—The Mob Triumphant.

We regret to say that the excited people around the jail, have forced the doors of the prison, took out the man Cozar, and have hid him all the directions. Hereafter we are to this subject again.

Later Still.—Cozar has been hung!

WHERE WAS IT?

Mr. Robert Ramsay, living five miles West of Mt. Monroe, Iredell county, reports that on Sunday morning the 26th May, between 3 and 4 o'clock, he heard repeated discharges of cannon in an easterly direction, which from his house, would lie towards Salisbury. Several other persons, during the past week, whose residences are in the Western part of this county, also report that they heard the firing about the same time, and supposed it was in this town. There was no cannon fired here at that time, nor at any time within a month past; nor was it heard by any of our people, so far as we know. Mr. Ramsay says he looked around for clouds, but saw none, and feels certain it was not thunder; and others who heard it concur with his statement. Then, where was the firing?

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

The New York papers, after laboring for some weeks to persuade the country that England would sympathize with Lincoln's administration, now give it up, and freely admit that both England and France will certainly sympathize with the South, and that he are it becomes the United States to prepare for a war with those great powers. In one of the most able of the attempts to sustain the position of the Administration, the Southern rebels. These journals, in view of the probability that those great powers will recognize the independence of the Confederate States, the country they are going to get our cotton, and their disregard of the blockade of our ports, will inevitably bring on complications and a war; and, therefore, they urge preparations looking to that as an event not to be avoided, and that too, in the early day.

R. C. JONES, JR.

First Lieutenant of the Rowan Rifle Guard, has, we learn, been appointed to the office of Captain, and, we suppose, assigned a place in one of the 10 Regiments now being organized. Mr. Jones has the talents, and could fill with credit to himself and profit to his men, a higher position. We are pleased to hear he has been promoted, though, we heartily sympathize with the members of the Rowan Rifle Guard, almost every one of whom sincerely regret the loss of their Soldier & Gentleman.

We understand that Mr. Jones is now in this county for the purpose of raising a company. He is deservedly popular, and we doubt not will succeed.

Several other members of the company, and some of them very inexperienced and young, have received appointments to officers of pretty good grade. We hope they will prove capable and deserving. One of the best officers in it, however, a man with a wife dependent on his labor for support, we are sorry has been overlooked. We alluded to the Orderly, Mr. Williams Brown. There are not many better officers in any corps, nor one who has been more useful in his company.

P. S.—We have just heard that Saml. Reevel, Jr., and W. L. Saunders, are also here for the purpose of raising companies. And in a conversation with a well informed gentleman, we have been assured that all these companies will be needed! Young men of Rowan, do you hear that! Your country calls for your services. The invaders are on our borders. Will you stand still and see them advance? You cannot do it. You would hate yourselves and hide your face in shame. Your brave spirits answer the question. Not another foot shall they advance. Come forth.—Rowan will respond to these calls even unto the last man, old and young.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Mr. [illegible] has this day withdrawn from the editorial connection with the Salisbury Banner.

The wheat crop in Georgia is reported as unusually large and very fine. It is already coming into market. All the Southern States are raising large crops of grain this year. They will have plenty for the support of the people and the army.—The wheat crop in this part of North Carolina, is magnificent.

Within a week the ladies of Raleigh, N. C., made and turned over to the Adjutant General, 15,000 buttons, 600 towels, 900 uniform jackets, 700 pantaloons, 400 fatigue shirts and 200 havversacks, the materials of which were obtained chiefly by their contributions and efforts.

The ladies of Salisbury have also performed sewing feats worthy of all praise. How many of the various articles manufactured, we have not learned. We hope they will preserve some account of their performances.

Arrested.—We have just heard that a man named Rushrod Vick, a native of Nash county in this State, who arrived here Tuesday professedly with dispatches from Gov. Letcher to Gov. Ellis, was put under arrest on Wednesday on suspicion that he was one of Lincoln's spies. It is rumored that Gov. Ellis telegraphed Gov. Letcher, and ascertained that the dispatches were spurious. That's right. Keep a sharp eye on the birds.—Raleigh Standard 1st inst.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

We learn that elections of field Officers for the third and fourth regiments of North Carolina volunteers, took place at Garysburg on Monday last, and resulted as follows:

Third Regiment.—W. D. Pender, Colonel; Lieut. S. D. Ramsay, Lieut. Col.; and D. R. Hamilton, Major.

Fourth Regiment.—Maj. M. S. Stokes, Col; Junius A. Daniel, Lieut. Colonel; and ——— Faison, Major.

We learn that Lieut. Ramsay has declined. His present position as commander of the "Elm City Light Artillery company," we consider of the very first importance to this State.—Ed.

SURGEON GENERAL.

We learn that Dr. Chas. E. Johnson, of this City, has received the appointment of Surgeon General in the army of this State. Dr. Johnson is an able and experienced physician. He will, no doubt, fill the post with honor to himself and the profession.—Ib.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, May 28.—Ex-Gov. Wise has been commissioned by President Davis to raise a Legion in Virginia. Several companies have already enlisted to serve under him. Capt. H. Clay Pate, of Kansas fame, has volunteered to serve in the Governor's Legion, and has raised a company.

H. M. Smith, Editor of the Alexandria Sentinel, an uncompromising secession journal, has escaped from Alexandria. He writes here from Warrenton that he managed to pack the county's files unmolested. The Federalists supposing him to be concealed in Alexandria, have offered a large reward for his apprehension.

Gen. Lee and Staff are now at Manassas Gap. They left Richmond this morning.

Our scouts report no enemy within five miles of Manassas Gap.

The Confederate troops are making extensive preparations, anticipating a grand attack.

A large force of Federal troops hold possession of Hampton. It is supposed they will combine with the troops at Newport News, and march down to Richmond.

Special Dispatch to Charleston Courier.

WAR NEWS.

The Charlotte Bulletin, of the morning, contains the following telegraphic news on the war movements in Virginia:

FIGHTING AT ACQUIA CREEK.

Washington, June 1.

The Minnesota, Pawnee and Resolute are engaging the batteries at Acquia Creek. Two war vessels have been ordered to their support.

The War Department will remain open all night. [illegible] at Acquia Creek.

A column, with orders to occupy Fairfax Court House before day light, is advancing.

BALTIMORE, June 1.—Ex-Gov. Pratt was arrested to-day and taken to Washington. Ex-Gov. Lowe has also been arrested.

Two columbiads, en route from Pittsburg for Fort McHenry, were spiked in Baltimore. The damage was not discovered till they were mounted.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Senator Douglas is about the same—if there is any change it is for the worse. 10 p. m.—Douglas is rapidly sinking.

BALTIMORE, June 1.

General Butler spent Monday at Newport News, where the greatest confusion and suffering prevailed.

In consequence of derangement in the Baltimore department; foraging parties were robbing and destroying property in the neighborhood. The Baltimore deserters approached the pickets on Federal Hill, when the guards fired on them one was wounded and four taken prisoners.

NOTE.—As an offset to the above we copy the annexed from the Lynchburg, Va. Republican of Thursday morning.—[ED. BULLETIN.]

"Our Scouts at Work.—It was reported in this city yesterday, that a party of our scouts, in the neighborhood of Manassas Junction, [illegible] and brought in [illegible] Lincoln's scouts.

FROM NORFOLK.

NORFOLK, June 1.

Troops are being pushed forward to Fortress Monroe, and Norfolk is being threatened by a circuitous route.

THE FOLLOWING is a sample of the numerous letters constantly pouring for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters:

[illegible]

—GENTS:—As we are strangers, I herewith enclose you [illegible] dozen Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, to be forwarded via Michigan Southern Railroad, Toledo, Ohio, and Clayton Station. I have purchased several times, [illegible] at Toledo this Summer, but the sale is on the increase so much that I wish to open a direct trade with you. I was induced to try your Bitters by my physician, for the Liver Complaint, and received such material aid that I have recommended it to others and have sold about two dozen per week for some time. I have all kinds of medicines in my store, but there is none that I can so cheerfully and truthfully recommend as your Bitters, for I know they have helped me beyond my expectation. Yours respectfully,

PHILO WILSON.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.
