BATTLE NEAR NEWPORT NEWS.
It is quite certain that there was a battle near Norfolk, Va., last Saturday night or Monday morning. The first Regiment of the N. C. Volunteers formed the principal part of the Confederate force engaged on this occasion.

The Rowan Rifle Guard has been ordered forward to Virginia. They are now at Camp Anderson, near Garysburg, Northampton county, N. C.

The time of year is at hand when our citizens should have a care for the health of our Town. There will be in every town, after the best efforts to prevent it, many places reeking with offensive matter, and spreading about their unhealthy vapors into the streets and dwellings.

One report says that 300 of the enemy were killed at Bethel Church engagement, among them a Colonel, name unknown. Our loss said to be five.

The latest advices from Washington state that apprehensions are felt there that the South-Troops will advance from the Point of Rocks and make Washington the next point of attack.

The City Council yesterday purchased the elegant and spacious mansion of Lewis D. Crosshaw, corner of Clay and Tenth streets, for the residence of President Davis. The price paid for it is about $20,000.

The Richmond Dispatch quotes from the N. Y. Tribune a very decided remark, that the negroes enticed away from their owners and put to hard work by the Lincolnites on the fortifications of Old Point, "can never be given up to their former owners, nor even paid for under any conditions."

Our Count Defenses—Organization.
Under this heading the Wilmington Journal, after denying the truth of the report that troops had landed on the coast below that city, continues its remarks thus:

Our Count Defenses—Organization.
Under this heading the Wilmington Journal, after denying the truth of the report that troops had landed on the coast below that city, continues its remarks thus:

Important from Savannah—A PRIZE TAKEN.
Savannah, June 6.—The fine iron steam ship Federalist has been taken possession of by the Collector of this port in a prize to the Confederate States, the having anchored beyond the line granted to British vessels to leave for their homes.

Important from Washington, Va.
Washington, June 7.—It is believed that Lord Lyons has received despatches unfavorable to the Federals. The Cabinet has been in session every day this week on purely military which are believed to be ominous of trouble.

On the morning of June 11th, the mail from the South was stopped. Postmaster Speed has received instructions from Washington to suspend all mail matter for the Southern States and Memphis to Washington.

KENTUCKY INVADIED.
Columbus, June 6.—The Southern invasion of Kentucky has been stopped. Postmaster Speed has received instructions from Washington to suspend all mail matter for the Southern States and Memphis to Washington.

SOUTHERN MAIL STOPPED.
Louisville, June 7.—The mail to the South has been stopped. Postmaster Speed has received instructions from Washington to suspend all mail matter for the Southern States and Memphis to Washington.

MOVEMENTS OF THE LINCOLN FLEET—WILMINGTON BLOCCADE.
Wilmington, June 6.—A large war steamer or chased a small schooner into New Inlet, this afternoon. The steamer failing pursuit made put to sea. Our port is evidently blockaded. The Confederate battery boat, from Smithville, has not arrived up. She has probably been detained moving the forces.

BATTLE AT BETHEL CHURCH.
Federal Troops Repulsed with Heavy Loss.
Richmond, June 11.

Four thousand troops of the Confederates are now supporting the Adams Chest batteries. It is thought that Hopper's Ferry will be evacuated on the approach of Federal troops.

FROM RICHMOND.
Richmond, June 11.
Four thousand troops of the Confederates are now supporting the Adams Chest batteries.

RETIATION.
The Richmond Dispatch quotes from the N. Y. Tribune a very decided remark, that the negroes enticed away from their owners and put to hard work by the Lincolnites on the fortifications of Old Point, "can never be given up to their former owners, nor even paid for under any conditions."

STUDYING THE GAME.
Some of our friends are impatient for action, and wondering why the Confederate Forces do not thus and so on the Virginia borders. We have the utmost confidence in President Davis and his counselors and all our leaders.
