

FROM RICHMOND.

Richmond, July 23. Congress, to-day, appointed a Committee composed of one member from each State, to look after the sick and wounded brought to Richmond.

St. Louis, July 24. A large body of Minnisonis are marching from Fort Smith, in E. Missouri, on Pilot Knob, the Southern terminus of the Iron Mountain Railroad.

Washington, July 24. Dr. Bell was arrested for treasonable sentiments, and was only saved from mob by the officer.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, July 23. The Secretary of War, Simon Cameron, has telegraphed the New York Union Defence Committee as follows:

The Virginia cavalry occupied Centreville last night, extending their scouts to Fairfax Court House. No signs of an advance.

The Way the Military Police of Baltimore do their Duty.—On Saturday last three little boys living in Baltimore, when returning from School, one then proposed three cheers for the Union, which were given; one of the boys stepped out of the ranks and hurrahed for Jeff. Davis.

The conscientious Yankees are improving the opportunity the absence of the Lincoln navy from Northern ports presents for a diligent prosecution of the African Slave Trade.

The Richmond Dispatch says no contract has been entered into for the manufacture of postage stamps, nor can any be had for distribution for several months.

A Running Battle.—The Rebels slain last night at about eleven o'clock were committed in the North Eastern part of town, north of the Wilmington and Waldon Railroad, where two members of the Town Guard, named George W. Duval and John Donahoe, were almost instantly killed by a desperate runaway negro known as "Bill Wanst."

It would seem that the fellow has been runaway for some three years, having been purchased about that time by Dr. A. B. Carr, to whom he now belongs.
