MEDICAL NOTICE.
AFTER the 20th day of this month, our books will be closed, and we, the undersigned, will thereafter practice medicine for the cash only or its equivalent.
We regret the necessity which compels us to adopt this system, but as we are required to pay cash for all we purchase in town or country, this course seems to us absolutely necessary in order to provide for our families the necessities of life.
Persons indebted to us for past services, will please call and settle their accounts, either by cash or note. Country produce will be taken in payment of our bills, at the market price.

THE CONFEDERATE LOAN.
THE undersigned having been appointed Commissioners to receive subscriptions of Stock to the Confederate Loan, would most earnestly and respectfully appeal to the patriotism of the people of Rowan county to come forward with their well-known liberality and uphold the Government and sustain the credit of the Confederate States. We ask you to subscribe a portion of your crops, for which you receive the Bonds of the Confederate States, bearing 8 per cent. interest per annum. By thus sustaining our Government in the noble struggle against the Black Republican hordes, invading our soil, we shall defend our liberties, our lives, our homes and freedoms, our wives and our children from the blood-stained hands of our enemies, and free ourselves from the yoke of oppression and despotism.

CAVALRY.
I am authorized to raise a Troop of 100 picked Men and Horses to serve in the Army of the Confederate States during the war. I will take men from any county, and shall require the trooper to be a man of good size, good appearance, good moral character, and of intelligence.
Each trooper is desired to furnish his own horse, for which he will be paid forty cents per day, and the horse will be insured by the Government against all accidents and against casualties from disease.
If a trooper cannot furnish his own horse, he will have one given to him, together with everything else that is necessary.
The troop is intended for "Special Service," and will be attached to no regiment of cavalry or infantry.
B. R. MOORE,
W. J. MILLS is in charge of the Recruiting Office in Salisbury.
Salisbury, Aug. 19, 1861. 1222

THE undersigned having been duly appointed by the authority of the Confederate States are ready to receive subscriptions in pursuance of the Act of the C. S. Congress, passed February, 1861, for Coupon Bonds of transferable stock, either bearing eight per cent interest, and to give receipts on the payment of the money.
