

From the Raleigh Telegram.
IMPORTANT FROM THE WEST.
Heavy Yankee Army concentrating at Boston, Kentucky...

The following dispatch was received by us at 12 o'clock.
London, June 12.—The Savannah Republican of this morning bears a dispatch from Chattanooga, of the 11th instant...

It has been ascertained that the enemy have collected an army of twenty-five regiments, in the vicinity of Paducah, Kentucky...

A Blockade Arranged.—The Wilmington Journal, of Tuesday says that a blockade steamer—the Fenwick—got underway last Sunday...

The Richmond News.—The Telegraph tells us of a report about the Richmond line, but the Richmond papers think it cannot long remain so...

The Loss.—We wish it kept in mind that the Richmond Examiner strikes the whole number of wounded in the battle of Williamsburg...

The Report.—The Raleigh says our loss at Chickahominy at 2,200, of which only 150 were killed...

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

THE EVACUATION OF CORINTH—NOW IT WAS DONE AND WHY IT WAS DONE—ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS.

We get from our Southern papers more additional particulars of the evacuation of Corinth, the news of which was first given in the columns of this journal...

Our troops marched out Thursday night, and the last of them had crossed the Corinth river when the head of the Federal column (General Pope's division) came in sight...

A detachment was sent out to burn the bridges on the Mobile and Ohio road north of Corinth, and on the Memphis and Charleston road towards Memphis...

The explosion of powder mills. We deeply regret to state that the Powder Mills of Messrs. Waterhouse & Bowes, situated four miles west of Raleigh, exploded on Monday morning about 10 o'clock...

POST OFFICE, SALISBURY, N. C. June 16th, 1862.
Mr. BREWSTER—Please to insert the following Act of Congress in regard to postage:

Sec. 1. The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, that from and after the first day of July next, there shall be charged the following rates of postage, to wit:

For every single letter sealed, and for every letter in manuscript or paper of any kind, upon which information shall be asked for, or communicated in writing or by signs or marks, conveyed in the mails for any distance within the Confederate States of America, ten cents; and every letter or parcel not exceeding half an ounce in weight shall be deemed a single letter, and every additional half ounce or additional weight of less than half ounce, shall be charged additional single postage.

Approved April 19th, 1862.
All persons having five cent stamps, can use them of course, by putting two upon each letter.

Respectfully,
MOSES A. SMITH, P. M.

Quartermaster's Office,
Gettysburg, June 14, 1862.
FARMERS and others having Wood for sale are hereby notified that the Quartermaster's Department is desirous of purchasing Wood in any quantities, and requested to notify me at this place, at what prices and in what quantities they can deliver the article...

MEMPHIS ABANDONED.—THE COTTON AND SUPPLIES BURNED.
The evacuation of Corinth necessarily gives to the enemy possession of a portion of the Memphis and Charleston railroad, and thence to Memphis and the Valley of the Mississippi, in anticipation of the enemy's occupation of

FROM RICHMOND.
The Examiner of this morning says that by a recent arrival from Norfolk, it learns that one of the Regiments ordered to march to reinforce McClellan, and that 50 of the men shot before order and obedience could be restored.

LATER FROM EUROPE.
Anxiety about American Affairs becoming more intense in England.

FRENCH MEDIATION ON THE YAPIS.
Richmond, June 13.—N. Y. papers of the 6th have been received here. They contain news from Europe by the Paris to the 25th May.

The anxiety for news from America is daily becoming more intense among the commercial classes of England.

The London Times remarks that it is now deprived of all information from the seat of war except such as the federal government is pleased to prepare for home and foreign consumption.

The Antwerp, published at Antwerp, says that an offer of mediation will be made to U. States within a very short time.

A Madrid telegram says that Gen. Prim will return to Mexico as Spanish Ambassador.

WEST OF THE MISSISSIPPI.
BRILLIANT COMBAT IN ARKANSAS.
Our affairs West of the Mississippi seem to be in a prosperous condition.

CONFEDERATE TROOPS.
Our gallant Texas troops continue to arrive and enough of them will be here in time to accomplish the purpose for which they come.

EXPLOSION OF POWDER MILLS.
We deeply regret to state that the Powder Mills of Messrs. Waterhouse & Bowes, situated four miles west of Raleigh, exploded on Monday morning about 10 o'clock, killing four men and destroying about 2000 lbs. of powder.

DE LEMOINE.
A FRENCH PHYSICIAN FROM NEW ORLEANS.
ON a recent visit to Richmond, I was going home when the surrender of New Orleans was announced. Unable to go home at present, I shall be soon engaged in my experiments during half a century of medical life, which has been the work in this city and neighborhood.
