

Mr. Davis is a man of fine business qualifications, of great industry and energy, and so far as business matters are concerned, has no superior in the State. MARY VOTER.

Appointments by the Board of Internal Improvements

This board met at the Executive Office on Wednesday, and amongst other business made the following appointments as Directors on the part of the State: North Carolina Railroad Company—Paul A. Cameron, J. W. K. Watson, John D. Bellamy, Ralph Corwell, D. M. Barringer, Samuel Hargrave, P. B. Hawkins and John I. Shaver.

State Prison—Hon. W. A. Graham. Western N. C. Railroad Company—W. W. Avery, N. W. Woodin, H. C. Pearson, William H. Thomas, George F. Davidson, A. M. Powell, William Murphy and Archibald Henderson. State Prison—Anderson Mitchell.

Wounded Prisoners.—Eighty-one Confederates, wounded in the late battles near Richmond and taken prisoners, are now at Fort Monroe. The following from N. Carolina are among them: Hampton Connor, Co. B, 22d N. C. from Marion, S. C. Joseph B. Thompson, Co. F, 6th N. C. Saxapahaw.

The London "Times" of May 28th, in an editorial on the surrender of Norfolk, the destruction of the Merrimac, &c., says the conquest of the South, so far as the water is concerned, seems almost complete. On land, however, the "Times" says, it is premature to say the rebel power is altogether broken. It sees no signs of the end, and no indications as to what that end will be. The Southerners may be beaten in battle, but they have immense territories for retreat. The contest is virtually the whole world against the South, as the North is open to the ships of the world, while the South is completely shut out.

Our Loss at Chickahominy.—The Richmond papers, and especially the Enquirer, have assured the public that our loss in the battle of May 31st and June 1st did not exceed 2300. This being stated in the official paper several days after the battle, and after the publication of the names of the killed &c., in the various reports, we relied on it as true. But the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser of the 12th has published a statement showing a loss of more than twice as many, viz: 867 killed, 2267 wounded, and 265 missing. And six regiments not heard from. We would call the attention of the Richmond papers to this statement, and ask them if it is true? If not, let it be disproved. If true, what excuse can the Richmond papers offer for so gross a deception? We detect the whole system of deception about the results of battles, and do not think it a whit the more reputable when the deception is on our side than when on that of the enemy.—N.Y. Observer.

COL. VANCE. The Greensboro' Patriot says—We regret to learn that many obstacles have been thrown in the way of his raising his Legion,—that a very large number of Companies desired to join his Legion before they were mustered into Regiments—but a deal was given to their wishes, and they were distributed elsewhere.—Salisbury Watchman.

The truth is, forty companies were tendered to Col. Vance. He accepted thirty—all he was entitled to in his Legion.—Acting under authority, he appointed Kittrell's Springs as the place of rendezvous; but as soon as he was generally spoken of for Governor, those in authority commenced to embarrass him in his efforts to raise his Legion, and it seems now that it is broken up. He was refused a furlough, which he was obliged to have, in order to visit Kittrell to attend to his Legion.—We know these things to be so.—Raleigh Standard.

From the Charlotte Bulletin.

A Terrible Battle.

The enemy's position—The Confederates and their forces—The Yankees routed—The Victory is ours—2,700 Yankees captured.—(Kansas to God via Harper.)

The result yesterday may thus be said to be—We have driven the enemy six miles beyond 1000 in flight; captured eight or ten batteries; some thirty pieces of artillery; many stores; much clothing, many prisoners and many more.

REPORT FROM GEN LEE. Richmond, June 28. Headquarters 21st June. To His Excellency, President Davis: Mr. President—Profoundly grateful to Almighty God for the signal victory granted to us, it is my pleasant task to announce to you the success achieved by this army to-day.

LATER FROM RICHMOND. Richmond, June 28. No accounts have been received from the field to-day, except those reports all indicating that the Confederates are following up their success. About two thousand (2,000) prisoners were taken last night, including Brigadier General Reynolds, and at least one hundred Commissioned officers. It has been necessary to largely increase prison accommodations for prisoners have been arriving all the forenoon. It is reported that two other Yankee Generals have been captured.

SECOND DISPATCH. Richmond, June 28. The whole number of prisoners taken is about thirty or hundred, including five or six regiments, and a large number of field officers. The constant arrival prisoners produces lively excitement about the streets. All reports from the field confirm a thorough discomfiture of the Yankee army and many expect that McClellan will capitulate. Several batteries were taken to-day. We have lost no General officer, but Genl. Ely has been wounded, it is feared, mortally. The Gallant Major Wheeler of Louisiana Tigers was killed.

IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE. Richmond, June 28. The N. Y. Herald, of the 25th, says intelligence from Europe by the Arctic, forebodes the intention of Emperor Napoleon, in cooperation with England to interfere armed intervention in the American war and enforce peace on the basis of the spirit of the North and South. The Herald says the U. States will know what to do with their powers should they attempt interference in our domestic business, and calls upon Congress to pronounce against it as a violation of European powers to break by the Republic of America.

DIED. In Richmond, Va., on the 24th inst. RICHMOND HALL, aged about 46 years. While in Virginia attending a son, who was wounded in the battle of the 31st May, he took the typhoid fever and died of this disease. In this town, on the 20th inst. SALLIE SMITH, infant daughter of Robert Murphy, aged 1 year 6 months and 4 days. On the 15th day of June, of Typhoid Fever, in the City of Richmond, LEON WILLIAM M.
