

evening from the enemy... it was reported that the fighting was progressing during the day...

NORTH CAROLINA MILITIA

The following contributions for the relief of our brave defenders, were made by this Company, viz: Mrs. Milly Trecker, 2 pair socks; Mrs. John Wise, 1 do, 1 linen shirt and 1 pair linen drawers...

The New York Herald gives the following as a complete list of the vessels captured and destroyed by the Two Hundred and Ninety since the beginning of her career:

- VESSELS CAPTURED AND DESTROYED: 1—Ship Oceanic, 2—Ship Oceanic Rover, 3—Ship Benjamin Tucker, 4—Ship Brilliant, 5—Ship Lafayette, 6—Ship Manchester, 7—Bark Abert, 8—Bark Osborn, 9—Bark Virginia, 10—Bark Eliza Dunbar, 11—Bark Lamp-lighter, 12—Bark Louisa, 13—Bark Dunkirk, 14—Schooner Altimsha, 15—Schooner Weather Gauge, 16—Schooner Sunlight, 17—Schooner Courier, 18—Schooner Onondaga, 19—Schooner Ocean Cruiser, 20—Brig Basin de Costine, 21—Ship Tomahawk, 22—Ship Emily Farquhar.

The last appearance of the Two Hundred and Ninety off the Cape of the Delawares, was directly in the track of the California steamer. It was found at the North that Captain Somers was waiting for one of these rich prizes that would yield him, from the large amount of treasure on board, a cool million.

From Eastern Virginia.—It was rumored in the city yesterday that General Lee, having decamped the enemy into a trap at Snickersville, had fallen upon and routed him with great slaughter. But at a late hour last evening we failed to obtain any of the War Office, any confirmation of this pleasing story.

THE FOLLOWING REGULATIONS are published for the information of those persons wishing to claim bounty of deceased soldiers in accordance with an ordinance of the Convention passed the 23d day of February, 1862.

REGULATIONS.

- 1. The payment of bounty to the representatives of deceased soldiers is based upon the certificate of the Commanding Officer of the company, which states the time of enlistment of the soldier, the date of his decease in service, the bounty already paid by the State, and the company and regiment to which he belonged. 2. The claimant will make affidavit before a Magistrate that he or she is the next of kin to the deceased, according to the provisions of the foregoing ordinance of the Convention, and that there is no other person entitled to make claim. The affidavit of the claimant must be sustained by that of one disinterested witness, that the facts stated are correct with his own knowledge, and that he has no interest in the claim. The Magistrate administering the oath will certify to the credibility of the witness, and the Clerk of the County Court will certify, under seal, that he is an authorized and acting Magistrate.
