RICHMOND, Nov. 14.—New York papers and Baltimore American, evening edition, of Saturday has a telegram from Chattanooga, of the 11th, which says on Wednesday morning the enemy made three attacks on Atlanta, then shells being thrown as far as Rolling Mills. Most desperate attack was made on Rough and Ready road, enemy's artillery being within 100 yards of our works, their infantry and dismounted cavalry were within 200 yards. Our forces quickly manned defenses and drove the rebels off. We sustained no loss. The enemy was part of Young's command, which finally retreated towards Macon.

Telegram from Louisville, of the 10th, says news has been received from Sherman's army, important and of favorable character; but is not published, being considered contraband.

Missouri voted all for Lincoln. McClellan's majority in New Jersey 7000. He carried Delaware and Kentucky. The Republicans have gained largely in the Congressional delegation. In Nashville Lincoln received 2000 and McClellan 97.

Lord Lyons is very ill with typhoid fever at Washington.

RICHMOND, Nov. 14.—An official telegram from the Valley says Sheridan's army is entrenched between Newtown and Kornerstown, two divisions of cavalry—Romer's 10th but were repulsed and were driven several miles, losing 200 prisoners and a number of horses. Romer's command behaved most handsomely, particularly Lomax's brigade, under Col. Payne and Wickhouse's brigade under Lt. Col. Morgan. About the same time, another cavalry division attacked McCausel and's brigade at Cedarville, on the Front Royal road, and drove it across the river.

AUGUSTA, Nov. 14.—A letter to the Chronicle and Sentinel, states that a fight occurred at Rough and Ready between the State troops and Yankees—Yankees driven back. There are 8000 in Atlanta from appearances. The place is being evacuated. Trains running from the city are loaded and return empty. Two hundred mules were captured by our scouts a few days since. The Yankees have burned the most of Canton, Cherokee county, in retaliation for some hung tonies.

Latest rumor from Atlanta states that the city was evacuated on Saturday.

RICHMOND, Nov. 15.—Breckinridge reports that on the evening of the 11th he drove the enemy from Lack Creek into Bull's Gap, and next morning forced them back one mile, and captured their line of works, but was unable to expel them from the Gap. Toole attacked the enemy near Morristown and captured fifty prisoners, burned a train loaded with commissary stores.

RICHMOND, Nov. 15.—The Chicago Times of the 9th says Sherman only made a show of pursuing Hood, while he has been busily engaged repairing Railroads and accumulating supplies for new movements of the greatest importance. After gathering sufficient supplies, he will start with five corps on a winter tour throughout the cotton States, leaving a sufficient force to hold Chattanooga and look after Hood. It is probable, the coming week will witness the starting of this expedition.

The Washington correspondents of several Northern Journals assert that efforts are being made to induce Lincoln to send Commissioners to Richmond to sound the authorities upon the subject of Peace.

MOBILE, Nov. 15.—A special dispatch to the Advertiser, via Senatobia of the 14th, says the Memphis Argus of the 12th has St. Louis dates of the 7th and 8th, and the Memphis Bulletin of the 13th has St. Louis dates of the 10th and 12th. Republican papers have discovered a tremendous conspiracy to destroy Chicago, and release Camp Chase and Douglas prisoners. Large quantities of arms were found in houses of Southern sympathizers. The Washington Government has received information that Capt. Semmes has gone to take command of the Sea King, a large and staunch screw steamer, built at Glasgow, in 1863. The Yankee loss of government stores at Johnsonville is estimated at 6,000,000. It is said the fire of Forrest's batteries was terrific. A number of heavy iron clads are north of Memphis but the low water prevents them going up.

Rosecrants has superseded Meade. Six gun boats below Johnsonville are unable to proceed up owing to Forrest's batteries commanding the stream. No gun boats or transports above Green Bottom bar. The New York correspondent of October 29th says Backner captured Morganza on the 25th held the port seven hours, captured nineteen hundred prisoners and carried off all the field artillery, destroying all siege and war materials. Price is reported at Fayetteville, Arkansas. He is supposed to have crossed Butler in a speech at New York Monday evening, said the government might now proffer the olive branch to the rebels tendering amnesty to the rebels and their leaders until the 8th of January.
