We copy from the Baltimore Sun of the 26th ult., the following sensible remarks on the present condition of the country:

THE NATION CALLED TO THE RESCUE.

The speech of the President of the United States to the vast concourse of citizens who assembled around him on the 23d of February has fallen upon the ears of the American people as an utterance of portentous significance. It points out the yawning gulf upon the verge of which the liberties of this people are hanging, and solemnly warns them of the immediate danger which threatens the institutions of the country.

Names and professions will no longer do to hide falsehood and treachery from the American people. Things now have their designation, and the agents for their consummation have been named before the world, in their own hearing, at the capital of the nation, at the base of the monument of the Father of his Country, on his birth-day, under the invocation of his spirit, by his successor in the highest office in the gift of a nation.

The joint committee of fifteen upon reconstruction, which, by motion, has been clothed with all the powers of legislation is the instrument of usurpation which has stolen away the constitutional right of the respective branches of Congress to judge of the qualifications of their members.

On one side stands the committee of fifteen and the fanatical majority in Congress, branded by the President as the enemies of the nation and the constitution—on the other side stand the people, upholding, with united voice, the Executive who warns them to rescue the Constitution and the Union in this hour of their great peril.

Already, as the lightning telegraph has scattered the news, the enthusiastic heart of the people is responding. The countenance of every friend of restoration is radiant with hope and joy; men wear the exulting look of freedmen who hail the glad summons to battle for the right. Meetings in honor of the President and the noble stand he has taken have been and are being called, in which the pledge of faith will be freely given to stand by the President in his efforts to restore the States to their right of representation, and to vindicate the integrity of the Union under the constitution; in his purpose that the constitution shall no longer be encroached upon; that it shall be unfolded and re-read in the hearing of the nation; that whatever violations it may have suffered, it shall, in the future, be the solemn guarantee of every right and every privilege which are sacrificed upon it—the priceless inheritance of the American people.

LETTER FROM GEN. FORREST.

On my arrival in Memphis, a few days since, from my plantation, a copy of the Avalanche was shown me in which I am represented as having fled the country. I thank you for the kind manner in which you vindicated my name from misrepresentation. Owing to the relations you occupied towards me during the last three years, I know of no one better calculated to do me justice than yourself.

Truly your friend, N. B. FORREST.

THE DOORS CLOSED.

The vote in the Senate on yesterday, declaring that no senators or representatives shall be admitted to Congress from the seceded States until that body shall pass upon their claim to admission effectually closes the doors until the reconstruction committee shall have closed its labors and the majority of Congress shall have declared in favor of such admission. The resolution passed by a vote of 29 to 18.

Mrs. Jane Swisshelm, publisher of the Reconstructionist newspaper in Washington, has been removed from her clerkship in the Quartermaster's Department, by order of the Secretary of War, it is alleged, for an article in her paper charging that the President was a pliant tool in the hands of Southern secessionists.

Every body knows already that there is to be a Circus here on the 14th of this month. We see by the papers that it is making a grand haul through the State. There is not much money among us not half nor quarter as much as we need, but past experience proves that our people are liberal towards this class of shows.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Washington, March 1. Senate.—Mr. Wilson reported a bill for the disbandment of the militia of the late insurrectionary States, and to prevent their reorganization. The House concurred in the bill.

Washington, March 2. SENATE.—The concurrent resolution from the House relative to the admission of representatives was further discussed, and passed by a vote of 29 to 18.

It is reported that the Emperor of Austria is willing to furnish Maximilian with any troops required, on condition that they be incorporated in the Mexican army and their expenses paid.

From Washington. Washington, March 1. The President, to-day, in receiving the Maryland delegation, who presented the resolutions endorsing his policy, passed Monday night, in Baltimore, reiterated the sentiments heretofore expressed, and thanked them for the call.

Canadian Affairs. CORNWELL, Canada, March 2.—At a public dinner to members of Government, last night, speeches were delivered and the assertion made that a confederation of provinces would now certainly take place in a few weeks.

Senator Cowan requested to Resign. HARRISBURG, March 2.—In the State Senate to-day a resolution was passed, by a party Republican vote, requesting Senator Cowan to resign, on the ground that he does not represent the sentiments of a majority of the people of Pennsylvania.

Wisconsin Sustains the Congress. MADISON, Wis., March 2.—The Legislature passed a resolution to-day sustaining Congress in its action on the Freedmen's Bureau bill.

The Markets. New York, March 2.—Cotton has an advancing tendency; sales 3,000 bales at 44c; also 3,000 bales Government cotton at 39 1/4 to 40 1/4.

The Raleigh and Gaston railroad company have made an arrangement by which it can now furnish through tickets to all the principal cities North, both by way of Richmond and Petersburg, and by the Bay Line via Norfolk.

Are jury-masters regulated by the law of Storms?

State News.

Small pox is prevalent among the freedmen in Buncombe county. Shad are selling in Raleigh at $1.50 to $2.00 per pair.

Mrs. M. J. Shelby has been appointed postmistress at Wilson. The Carolinian thinks it an excellent appointment.

Gov. Vance testified before the military commission, in the Gee case, on the morning of the 1st.

The bill to consolidate the North Carolina and Atlantic and North Carolina railroads was laid on the table in the Senate yesterday, by vote of 23 to 30.

We learn from the Newbern Times, that Mr. Agostini confectioner on Pollock street, and Mrs. Agostini, were severely injured on the afternoon of the 1st, by being thrown from a buggy, on New street. The horse attached to the vehicle took fright and ran the buggy against a tree, breaking the vehicle to pieces, and throwing the parties named, with great force, upon the ground.

Mr. Ephraim Clayton & Sons have secured, on the West side of the French Broad river, a very eligible site, and they are now engaged in erecting a cupola or furnace, and other conveniences for manufacturing purposes. They expect to be able to supply the country with all the castings required in a few months.

A WORD TO THE SOUTHERN PRESS.

We claim to be an earnest friend to the South, sincerely desiring the welfare of all her people whose material interests have been prostrated, by the ravages of a terrible war. We desire the speediest restoration of all the relations of the late rebellious States to the Union upon terms of equality with all our other sister States; and prompted by this desire, we have been lately filled with regret by certain passionate and intemperate expressions in a number of our Southern exchanges when discussing the political aspect of the country.

THE CABINET ON THE VETO MESSAGE.—The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser has a Washington dispatch which says: "It has transpired that a majority of the cabinet was in favor of the veto yesterday. It was supported by Secretaries Seward, McCulloch, Welles, and, it is said, Dennison. The other members opposed it."

GENERAL FORREST.—We had the pleasure of meeting this distinguished gentleman yesterday, and was glad to see him looking in fine health and spirits. The general, in reply to an allusion to the career of his having gone to Mexico, requested us to say, that he has not been nor has he the remotest idea of going anywhere else than back to his plantation, where he and a goodly number of black men are hard at work trying to make enough to live on, pay taxes, and help the government to get out of debt.

ADVERTISING BIRTHS.—The spyical editor of the Denver News, Capt. Geo. West, thus announces an "increase" in his family: "Ye local has learned the matrimonial rule of subtraction—take one from two and three remains. The military passion being strong in him, he discourseth of the event thusly:

Raw Bone Super-Phosphate of Lime. MANUFACTURERS AND PROPRIETORS, Store No. 20 South Delaware Avenue, Philadelphia

THIS Valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for 12 years past and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced to some extent in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco and all Crops.

In its action it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial. See pamphlet to be had free of the Agents below.
