A FATAL SIEC.

BY H. S. L.

I'm not the sort of a man, you know,
Who sentimentalizes often;
But this, believe me, was a blow
Demanding change of air to soften.
The girl was lovely as a grace;
Her dress the sweetest ever put on;
I set my hand upon her face—
Her dress I only set my foot on.

It was a silly step to take,
And half the room was in a titter,
(A fact which merely serves to make Remorse additionally bitter)
Those trains are utterly absurd;
I wonder why the women wear them;
They seem designed, upon my word,
For folks to tread upon and tear them.

She turned and gave me such a glance:
She smiled; but oh! in such a manner.
Farewell, said I, my only chance
Of Chote or Godfrey, Strauss or Lanner.
I think I blushed—I know I bowed
And raised my glaring patent leather—
Laid half the blame upon the crowd,
And half upon the sultry weather.

I stayed an hour; I talked a bit
With guards and people from the city.
My hearers, when I made a hit,
Were kind enough to think me witty.
They little knew, good easy men!
The pangs that lay beneath my laughter—
Pangs that were only stifled then,
To sting the more forever after.

The season's nearly at an end;
There's joy at least, in that reflection;
A continental tour may tend
To dull the edge of recollection.
I might, perchance, in other climes,
Forget my sense of self abhorrence,
Should peace return with better times,
And clear again the way to Florence.

The Horrors of the War in Candia—A Convent Blown up by a Monk—Over Two Tyousand Lives Destroyed.

New York, Dec. 23.—Mail advices from Candia give the details of the disaster to the Turks at the Convent of Orcadion. The convent contained 540 souls including 343 women and children, leaving 197 men to defend it against Mustapha Pasha's army of 12,000. The Cretans refused to surrender, and the Turks bombarded the convent two days and nights. After breaching the wall, the Turks poured into the court of the convent, but the Christians continued to defend themselves from the cells, and finally a monk fired the magazine, hurling Christians and Turks into the air.—Two thousand Turks were killed, and a large number wounded, and only thirty-nine men and sixty women and children of the garrison, were left alive. Over one thousand wounded Turks have arrived at the hospitals from this explosion The Turks had burned seven Cretain villages, in revenge for which the Cretans have burned twenty-seven Turkish villages.

The Civil Rights Bill in Maryland.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 23.—It is generally understood that some action will be taken shortly in the United States district courts of this city in reference to the alleged disregard of the Civil Rights Bill by Judge Magruder in Anne Arundel county, in sentencing negroes convicted of larceny to be sold in accordance with the Maryland Code—a provision which has not been repealed since Maryland became a free State. This law, authorizing the sale of negroes as a punishment for crime, is claimed to be in direct conflict with the Civil Rights Bill, which makes the infliction of any punishment upon blacks other than that prescribed for whites convicted of the same offence, a crime, to be punished by fine and imprisonment. There is much speculation upon the course likely to be pursued.

The following is a translation of a passage from a Persian poet:

"The heavens are a point from the pen of God's perfections; the world is a bud from the bower of his beauty; the sun is a spark from the light of his wisdom, and the sky is a bubble on the sea of his power. His beauty is free from the spot of sin hidden in the thick vale of darkness; he had mirrors of the atoms of the world, and threw a reflection from his own face on every atom."

Military Interference With the Execution of Civil Law.—Quite an excitement was created this morning by the interference of Col. Bomford and a possee of soldiers with sheriff Ray, while whipping a negro, sentenced to receive thirty nine lashes for housebreaking and robbery. In obedience to the order from court, sheriff Ray had the negro stripped and was proceeding to lay the licks on his bare back, when a Major Wells of the 8th U. S. infantry ordered him to desist. This officer was dressed in citizen's clothes at the time and was followed by a crowd of negroes and federal soldiers, likewise apparently off duty. The sheriff had already given the negro eight licks and was in the act of giving him another when he received this peremptory order. Prudence being the better part of valor in this instance; the sheriff determined to refrain from the execution of his duty, until he could see and hear from Judge Fowle. Judge F. was sent for, who, on reaching the court house, immediately decided to inflict all the military officers and privates concerned in the interference and to carry out the laws of North Carolina if it took all the civil force of the State to do so. He accordingly issued such orders, but as there was great danger of provoking a disturbance by executing the laws this morning, sent the negro to jail until to-morrow, when he will certainly receive the punishment allotted. The soldiers then left the ground.

Prince Peter Bonaparte has entered the Italian service with the rank of general.

A Duel to the Death.—We are informed that on Sunday night last, a bloody rencontre took place between two men in the baggage car of a passenger train on the Nashville and Decatur Railroad. The difficulty started in a passenger coach, and was the result of a dispute in regard to the quality of whiskey each carried. Both were probably more or less intoxicated.

Two men repaired to the baggage car, and after pacing off the proper distance, wheeled, and at a given signal, fired their pistols. Neither of them appeared to be hurt after the shots.

At that moment the only light in the car, which shone from a lantern held by the person who gave the signal, went out suddenly, and the duelists then grasped their knives and sprang upon each other like tigers, cutting and slashing at a fearful rate. They are both probably dead, or if living, terribly lacerated.

Our informant did not learn the result of the affair, or the names of the parties. The noise of the swiftly moving train deadened the sound of the bloody conflict, and it is probable that very little is known about it.—Nashville Banner.

Relics of the Aborigines.—We are informed that in making recent excavations in the upper part of Faquier county, Virginia, very curious relics have been found in a mound which proved to be what had long been supposed an Indian burial place. Two skeletons, which evidently showed there were giants in those days, with spear heads and the usual paraphanalia found in Indian graves. The great subject of interest shown is a tablet containing hieroglyphics of a very curious character. W. Norris, Esq., of that county, a gentleman who has traveled very extensively in the East, (and was with Gliddon in his celebrated journey across the desert,) is of the opinion that this discovery will prove the identity of the Indian tribes with some of the Asiatic tribes, and settle the question so long mooted as to their origin. We are further informed that Mr. Norris will now proceed to Washington City with this tablet for the purpose of showing it to Profes-or Henry and other savans. The result is looked forward to with no little interest.

CONNECTICUT DEMOCRACY.—New Haven, Dec. 19.—The Democratic State Committee has issued a call for a State Convention at New Haven, on the 8th of January, for the purpose of considering the revolutionary acts of the present Radical Congress. They say this Convention will also determine upon the propriety of making nominations for State officers and of recommending to the people of the thirty six States the necessity for a National Convention, to adopt such measures as will thwart the schemes of the traitors who are endeavoring to subvert the Constitution and Government of our Fathers.

DIED.

In this city, suddenly, on the 11th Dec., of disease of the heart, Mrs. Charlotte Cowan Jenkins, relict of the late Joel H. Jenkins, and daughter of the late Thomas L. Cowan, aged 53 years.

Mrs. Jenkins was born July 20th, 1813, and was baptized at Thyatira church, of which her parents were members, by the Pastor, the Rev. Dr. McCorkle.

At the age of 20 she became deeply interested in the subject of personal religion, and having obtained peace in believing, she was received as a member of the Presbyterian church of Salisbury, in 1833, during the pastorate of Dr. P. J. Sparrow. She was early engaged in teaching in the Sabbath School, for which she was eminently fitted by superior intelligence, and active piety, and some of her pupils still remain to attest the pleasure and profit derived from her instructions. In 1840 she was united in marriage to Mr. Jenkins, an influential merchant of this town—a union dissolved after 19 years, by the death of her husband. Eight children were born unto them, of whom five remain to mourn the loss of tender and loving parents.

For the last nine years the subject of this notice was often and deeply bereaved by the death of her parents, her husband, and children. Under these accumulated sorrows, her health and spirits visibly declined. But as they expected her removed from earth so soon. Retiring to rest, as usual in the evening, the family and friends were aroused at one o'clock, to find her dying, and in less than 20 minutes, her soul had gone to God, who gave it.

The astonishment and sorrow of the community was great, at the loss of one so well known, so suddenly removed, while two of her children were absent. It appears that several of her relatives had been suddenly called away from earth, and that she had expressed a belief that such would be the mode of her own death. In view of this, we presume that she was prepared to go at a moment's warning. Her early piety and Christian consistency, give to bereaved friends good grounds to hope that their loss was her gain. And though her family have lost a prudent, devoted and loving mother, they will find in their mother's God, a covenant Father, who will never leave nor forsake those who love and trust Him.

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts."—ISAIAH, lv. 8, 9.

THE SILVER SKIRT.

More Durable,
More Elastic,
More Graceful,

And will keep its Shape and retain its Place better than any other Skirt.

THIS new and beautiful style of Skirt (Patented March 7th, 1865,) was awarded by the GREAT AMERICAN INSTITUTE FAIR, held in New York, October, 1865, a SILVER MEDAL!

The Highest Premium ever given for a Hoop Skirt.

The Steel Springs are wound with a fine plated wire (in place of a cotton covering) which will not wear off or become soiled, and the whole skirt may be WASHED WITHOUT INJURY or take it rusting, and will be as good as new.

The Combination Silver Skirt!

THIS invention combines with the ordinary cotton Skirt the advantages of our SILVER SKIRT; the bottom hoops are the same as those used in the Silver Skirt, the covering of which cannot wear off, while the upper ones are covered with cotton. No lady, having once worn one of our Skirts, will be willing to wear any other, as the lower hoops of all other kinds are soon injured and soiled.

The best materials are used in their construction, and, from their durability and neatness they are destined to become

A NEW AND

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY

IN THE MEDICAL KINGDOM.

CANCEROUS affections, that have so long been a terror to the people of our land, may now be expelled from the human race. All persons now laboring under such diseases are respectfully solicited to call and spend a few days with me. Do not stay longer at home, lingering with the horrid cancer, but come and be relieved. I have effected permanent cures of persons who thought their cases beyond the art of man; and all others afflicted with the disease can receive the same relief by coming and spending a short time with me. This notice should excite the deepest interest of those who are now afflicted with cancer, and almost despairing of recovery.

My preparation is not the mere result of an old receipe, gotten up without knowledge or skill, to excite public wonder, but is the result of long and faithful study, and is now submitted to the public after having been fully tested. Its wonderful medical virtues in effecting speedy relief and permanent cures of a great number of cases when other means had failed, embolden me to say with all confidence and assurance, that no intelligent man or woman afflicted with cancer should doubt its virtues, or hesitate to avail themselves of its virtues.

MODE OF TREATMENT.

I first apply what I term an Eradicating Ointment. It goes directly around the affected parts, separates them from the sound parts, and the cancer soon drops out. The wound is left in a very healthy condition, and soon heals, and proves to be a permanent cure. I also give medicines internally which relieves the system of the effects of the disease, promotes appetite and vigor, and the patient returns to his home eased of a burden which had long been carried in misery.

Now is the time to come: autumn is here; a favorable and pleasant season to be relieved.

I can say that I have effected the most wonderful cures on record. Francis Kanoyy had a large tumor of the ear for eight years, and resorted to every accessible means that could be thought of, but obtained no relief until he put himself under my treatment, and now he is permanently cured, and restored to perfect health.

I give below a certificate signed by a number of the persons who have obtained cures under my treatment. The list could be greatly extended, but for lack of space other names are omitted.

CERTIFICATE.

We, the undersigned, do certify on honor, that we have been carefully treated and successfully cured of cancers by Dr. W. H. CUTTS.

FRANCIS KANOYY,
Cured of a tumor in my ear of 8 years standing.
JOHN WEAVIL,
Cancer, sore of six years standing.
NANCY WEAENS,
Cancer, sore of twenty-one years standing.
ALMETA TICE,
Cancer on the cheek of four years standing.
ABIGAL CLODFELTER,
Cancer, sore of six years standing.
BERTHABA SULLIVAN,
Cancer of the cheek, five years standing.

For additional proof of these facts, address the following named gentleman: Hamilton Tice, Abbott's creek, N. C. William Weener, same place. Henry Darr, and Samuel Dar, Richfork, N. C.

TERMS.

My terms are as follows. If I make a permanent cure I make a charge; and if I do not make a cure, I make no charge. My charges range from $5 to $300.

Board can be had at eight dollars per month.

My location is at the residence of Henry Darr, four miles from Thomasville, Davidson county, N.C. Address

WHO WANTS A PIANO?

SEVERAL Patrons of the Concord Female College have requested my aid in securing GOOD PIANOS for their use. This has induced me to make arrangements with some of the best manufactorers, which enable me to furnish instruments of the FIRST CLASS, at reduced prices. I can save each purchaser from $40 to $100. Price lists of the manufacturers will be sent to those who desire them, to aid them in making selections.

When selections shall have been made the money can be sent to me, at my expense, by the Southern Express, and a Piano will be shipped to the Depot the purchaser may designate. Each Piano sold will be fully warranted. Address me at Statesville, N. C.
