Does it require any spirit of prophecy or special fertility of imagination to conceive your condition under such circumstances? You have the picture in the fearful anarchy of Tennessee, West Virginia and Missouri-no not a tithe of the picture, for in each of these States the constitution and laws have, thus far, been framed and administered by whites. Here, negroes, and whites much worse than negroes, would form the first, sway the government; impose and collect your taxes; impose test oaths, not only for voting but for the exercise of theprofession; monoplize the magistracy; administer your literary fund; control your State endowments; fill all the offices, legislative, executive and judicial; they pretend to be governed by the Constitution, and have respect for our se- virtually ratifying in) or see the few schon ratified. code to suit them.

And as the entire machinery of State action would fall into their hands, so would they, by the operation of fest oaths, monopolize representation in Congress, thereby strengthening the fanaticism to which they would owe their power. Thus would Virginia be plunged at once into Haytien horrors, and thus by the surrender of all Constitution, the irresponsible rule of the functions of government into the hands of those whose power and consequences would depend on such perpetuation.
