

THE DALISM IN TENNESSEE.

A Nashville correspondent of the Cincinnati Times writes as follows: Encounters in sections of the state between men who have served in the rival armies, occur occasionally, but they are for the most part, personal feuds, which had their rise during the war, and come to settlement as the parties meet.

to leave slavery to the people of the States where it now exists. I recognize the Democratic doctrine of States rights, in its application to slavery, as well as to other local affairs, and, while I have a seat in this chamber, I shall resist all attempts to encroach upon the reserved rights of the sovereign States of the Union.

DESTRUCTION OF SHEEP BY DOGS.

The March report of the Commissioner of Agriculture dwells upon the ravages committed by dogs among sheep in the United States. In 1866 five hundred thousand sheep were killed by dogs, and their value was $2,000,000.

HOW REGISTRATION WORKS.

The disgraceful exhibition of the utter trampling upon all law, right, and decency, known as the registration in this city, is still continued. More than half of the white citizens fully qualified under the law are turned away, while every negro who applies is immediately accepted and registered.

A LOVELY COUPLE.

Rev. Colonel Jacques and J. R. Gilmore, alias "Edmund Kirke" were the volunteer peace commissioners who visited Richmond in 1863, and were allowed an interview by President Davis.

NOT TO REGISTER AND VOTE IS TO VOTE AGAINST THE SOUTH.

Under ordinary circumstances, you might consult your sense of the fitness of men to vote with you, and decline to vote with such as you deemed unfit.

THE CHRONICLE AND OTHER DEFENDERS OF RACIALIZED WILL GET ENOUGH OF THE "HISTORY" LONG BEFORE WE WEARY OF PRESENTING IT.

The Chronicle and other defenders of RacIALIZED will get enough of the "History" long before we weary of presenting it.

POLITICIANS, LIKE ANOTHER CLASS OF PEOPLE, SHOULD HAVE GOOD MEMORIES.

Politicians, like another class of people, should have good memories.

"THE SNOW."

LIFE AND FATE OF A BEAUTIFUL GIRL.

The beautiful poem entitled "The Snow" which has been so frequently published, on account of its charming rhythm and sad sentiment, was written in fact by one who depicted her own melancholy life in its lines.

The maiden name of the author was Dora Shaw. She was born and grew to womanhood in the Wabash Valley, Indiana.

A BALL IN OREGON.

HOW IT WOUND UP.

At a recent ball at Roseburg, Oregon, all went on in peace and quietness until Sol Colver, John Fitzhugh, Bob Forbes, John Hannan and Abe Crow came there, it is said, to break up the ball.

A NEGRO TRIES TO VOTE IN NEW YORK.

Quite an amusing scene took place at the tenth election district of the seventh ward, yesterday morning, which was occasioned by the appearance of a Spanish darkey before the polls.

RAKES PROGRESS.

The "Tribune" objects to our calling Mr. Raymond and Mr. Weed Radicals in the same breath with Mr. Greeley.

EGGENSE'S ILLNESS.

It is whispered abroad that the sudden illness of the Empress Eugenie was caused by a pamphlet sent to her, and into France, Gonzalez Bravo, the Spanish Minister of the Interior.

THE RICHMOND HEARINGS.

The Richmond Examiner says that the heat of Radication in Virginia is certain, and the divided Virginians, who are now giving their aid to this doomed party, are sowing the seeds of mortification and disgust that will follow them through life.
