

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Post gives the following account of the exciting Cabinet session on Tues 1. 20 64511 day last :

Wasningros, Tuesday, August 97;two hours toyday, and President Johnson had occasion to exhibit all his nerve and forbearance. This he is taid to have done in characteristic style. An issue was made by Gen. Grant on the wording of the President's order removing Sheridan and Sickles from their com nands. Gons. Bancock and Oanby are directed, when recessary to a faithful execution of the laws, to exercise any and all powers con-fered by acts of Congress on district commanders. This was intended to spike Gen. Grants gaus and prevent repetion of clause five in his late instructions to Gen. Thomas, in which he div rected that officer to execute such orders as he might find in force in the Fifth Military Department until altered or cancelled by the general commanding, vis: by General Grant. When the Cabinet met to-day, General Grant entered another protest, contending that to him belonged the power to direct what orders should or should not be executed by department commanders, and that he hoped there would be a modification of the President's order in accordance with his view of the subject, proceeding to argue that what had been done in those departments should be allowed to stand until altered or cancelled by himself; that if not enecked in advance the new commander might be induced to undd much that had been done, to the great detriment of the public welfare. During these remarks of General Grant, Prestdent Johnson kept perfectly quier, but ground. as soon as the former concluded, Mr. Johnson, with much animation, replied that he was surprised to he .r the propo sition, as he had been surprised to see the fifth clause in the previous instruc-President frankly admitted that his pury pose was to prevent any attempt to mallfy any part of the reconstruction acts :

that those acts expressly emponcered the district commanders to exercise all pow ers which, in their judgment, were new cessary and all acts were vali i until dis, was tirm and collected. - The cap was ad approved. The proposition of General Grant was to deny these commanders the powers expressly conferred by the law, and thus to that extent actually annul stood on the brink of eternity failed to President said he should not assent .---Those acts stould be enforced faithfully President spike with great animation followed by tremor in the legs. All these and firmness, and although very plain in followed by tremor in the legs. All these terms, yet entirely courteous. He remained nushaken in his purpose to have his orders, as issued yestarday, carried out to the very letter. The ramor soon Spiritualist, and this, will explain some spread among the friends of the Presi-dent, and a number called on him this sfternoon to congratulate him on what they pronounced to be the dawning of a better era. It may be proper to add that the Cabinet, with the exception of Gens eral Grant, fully indorsed the position taken by the President, that the proposis tion of the General was practically to nellify in part the acts of Congress.
