Chain Bands and Still Repairing.

THE Subscriber begs leave to inform the citizens of this and the adjacent tween 15 and 20

Cotton Gins,

Of good materials, part of which will be

RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, about the 8th inst. negro man HARRY—Harry is a bright mulatto, (half white,) with large freckles, between thirty and thirty-five years of age, near six feet high, and weighs about one hundred and seventy pounds; he is a good ditcher and well acquainted with all kinds of work usually done on a farm; he is a very intelligent ingenious fellow, well calculated to pass himself for a free man, which no doubt he will attempt to do; he is well known in this county, particularly in this and the neighborhood of the late Lemmon Ruffin, Esq. where he has a wife. The above reward will be paid on the delivery of the said Harry to me near Sparta, Edgecombe county, No. Ca. if taken within this State, or Fifty Dollars if taken without this State—and Fifty Dollars will be paid for evidence to convict any white person of harboring said negro on conviction. RICHD. HINES.

DOMESTIC.

Died, at Baltimore, on the 10th inst. Samuel Keep, Esq. of Washington, a native of Boston, formerly agent of the United States at Pensacola, Florida. The circumstances attending the death of this gentleman were of the most melancholy nature. He arrived there with his family; and took lodgings at Barnum's. In the course of the morning he called for a glass of cider, when by a mistake, the servant gave him corrosive sublimate, sufficient to cause his death in a few moments. Thus by an unforeseen and unfortunate occurrence was a persevering, honorable, and useful man cut off in the prime of health; and his agonized wife, to whom he had been united but eight days, left without a friend or protector. Her feelings may be imagined, but cannot be described.

Death by Lightning.—In a harvest field on Thursday week, near Blairsville, Pa. the lightning struck a waggon, about which several hands were employed in loading oats. Two persons were on the waggon, one of whom, named Alex.
Glassford, was instantly killed, and the other struck senseless, but afterwards recovered. The four horses harnessed to the waggon were all killed, yet the driver, seated on one of them at the moment, escaped uninjured!

A Monster.—A young male slave was recently burnt at Abbeville, S. Carolina, in pursuance of a judicial sentence, for attempting to murder his mistress when the rest of the family were absent. He attacked her without provocation, beat her with a flat iron, and she having attempted to run to a neighbor's when he was seeking a broad axe, he followed her, made her return, and had nearly killed her when some of the family returned. She is expected to recover.

Justice.—The last Skenatel-es Telegraph mentions the case of a fellow who was prosecuted for detaining a person on the road unnecessarily, by driving slow and turning occasionally, so as to prevent the other from passing. The justice very properly rendered judgment against the defendant, on the ground that a man who drives faster than one before him has an undoubted right to pass if there is room, and whoever prevents, by turning either on one side or the other, is liable to pay damages for detention.—New-York paper.

Introduction of Rice into America.—Martin states in his History of North Carolina, that the planting of Rice was commenced in this country, in the year 1693, as follows. A brig from Madagascar, on her way to England, came to anchor off Sullivan's Island. Thos. Smith going on board, received from the Captain a bag of Seed Rice, with information of its culture in the East, its suitability for food, and its incredible increase. Smith divided the seed among his friends, and after an experiment being made in different soils, the success surpassed the expectation the Captain had excited.

Thus from this small beginning, accidentally occurring, arose the staple commodity of Carolina, which soon became the chief support of the colony and the great source of its opulence.

Raleigh Reg.

Money...The New-York Age says, "that at no time within its recollection, has money been so cheap, or in other words, the rate of interest so low, as at the present.
This remark is applicable, not only to the United States, but to the whole commercial world. It believes, that the United States could obtain any sum of money that they would ask, at an interest of four per cent. This State has borrowed, within a few weeks past, the money required to build the Chemung Canal, at a rate but very little exceeding four per cent. interest. They have created a five per cent. stock, sold it at twelve per cent. above, par; or, in other words, for every hundred dollars of stock that they issue at five per cent. interest, they received one hundred and twelve dollars in cash, being a more advantageous loan, taking into calculation the advance upon the stock, than ever the United States, or this State, have heretofore made. And another evidence of the truth of the position assumed, respecting public stocks, is the fact, that the United States three per cents, as they are termed, are now selling at ninety-four per ct. or, in language to be understood by every man, that portion of the United States debt, partly funded in the year 1790, bearing an interest of only three per cent. each one hundred is worth ninety-four dollars in market whereas, during the last fifteen years, these stocks have fluctuated between fifty-eight and seventy-five per cent. instead of the ninety four per cent. which they now sell for. It is, therefore, not unreasonable to conclude that the rate of interest, on public-stocks is only about four cent. per annum."

The Ladies rule the world. So they lately said in Maryland at one of their celebrations of the National Anniversary.
—Toast, "The men rule the world...we rule the men." We are sorry, then, for their credit, that the world is not better governed.
