Whole No. 325.

Tarborough, (Edgecombe County, N. C.) Tuesday, November 30, 1830.

Vol. VII—No 15.

The "North-Carolina Free Press,"

BY GEORGE HOWARD,
Is published weekly, at Two Dollars and Fifty Cents per year, if paid in advance—or, Three Dollars, at the expiration of the year. For any period less than a year, Twenty-five Cents per month. Subscribers are at liberty to discontinue at any time, on giving notice thereof and paying arrears—those residing at a distance must invariably pay in advance, or give a responsible reference in this vicinity.

Advertisements, not exceeding 16 lines, will be inserted at 50 cents the first insertion, and 25 cents each continuance. Longer ones at that rate for every 16 lines. Advertisements must be marked the number of insertions required, or they will be continued until otherwise ordered. Letters addressed to the Editor must be post paid, or they may not be attended to.

NEW GOODS.

THE Subscribers inform the Public, that they have just returned from New-York, with a general and well selected assortment of

FANCY AND STAPLE

DRY GOODS

Hardware, Crockery, &c

Which they are now opening at their Old Stand, and which they offer at their usual low prices.

Tarboro', Oct. 15, 1830.

Cotton Gins,

Packing Screws, Horse Mills, Chain Bands, and Still Repairing.

THE Subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he is now building between 15 and 20 COTTON GINS, of good materials, part of which will be steel saws and the ribs or bars faced with steel.

PACKING SCREWS, of the usual size, and larger than any now in use in the State, and no doubt superior—they will be made in an engine erected for that purpose.

HORSE MILLS will be built at a short notice, on the improved perpendicular plan, or any other.

CHAIN BANDS & WHEELS, of a superior quality, which are extremely well calculated for the propelling of both Gins and Mills.

Persons desiring any of the above articles, will please apply to

JOHN WILSON.

Murder.—We learn from the Elizabeth the City Star, that on Sunday week a man by the name of Jesse Easton, living near the south end of the Disraeli Swamp Canal, killed one of his neighbors by the name of Frederick Gregory. We understand a dispute arose between them about gathering corn, and Easton deliberately shot the other dead on the spot. He immediately fled and has not yet been arrested.

England...truly ominous.—The following is from a late London Morning Chronicle:

"There are warnings which ought not to be neglected. The Aristocracy and the Church are boldly denounced every where as the enemies of the country. This expression of a deeply felt conviction is not to be trifled with. The time for sneering or railing is gone by. During periods of indifference, men may be laughed out of their feeble resolves; but enthusiasm and resolution never yet were turned aside by such weapons."

It is possible that the great personal popularity of the present King, and the mere house-hold reforms which he is so judiciously making, will not secure England from the agitating spirit of democracy, which is now abroad in Europe. Certain it is, that her oppressive hierarchy and aristocracy must sooner or later be demolished. The Press now speaks out boldly, and the spirit-stirring events which so rapidly follow each other on the continent, may soon spread a flame over the "fast-anchored isle," which the united efforts of the aristocracy, the church and the army, cannot allay. The pride of Englishmen will not permit them to remain less free than the freest nation of Europe.... Wash. Tel.

The true purpose of Government.—The London Morning Chronicle, of Sept. 24, says:

"There is not a government of Europe which does not overstep the limits, within which a government ought to confine its exertions."

The London Editor might have added the U. States of America to the class of over-governed countries. He continues:

"The only legitimate object of a government is the protection of the people under it from foreign aggression, and from invading the rights of each other."

He continues further:

"All of the business which has been added, the favoring this branch of industry and prohibiting another, the favoring one set of opinions, and the prohibiting another, in short, the whole of the endeavor to control action and opinion, is founded in a gross misapprehension of its proper functionaries. A "paternal government," as it is called, is the most mischievous of all."

Quere—Is not this London Editor a much better Republican than Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, J. Q. Adams, Joseph Gales, and John Agg? We think he is.—ib.

ALLEN DAVY.

I WILL inform the public that I have a young Archie horse, of the first rate blood of the mother side. He was got out of a Ratler mare that was got out of one of Collector's colts, that Collector got out of a Mark Antony mare.

ALLEN DAVY,

Is a dark chesnut sorrel, and is about five feet one or two inches high, five years old last spring. I let him cover a few mares at four years old; he got ten or fifteen colts that cannot be excelled by any horse whatever, for I will show with any horse in the United States. ALLEN DAVY can be found four miles west of Hamilton, on Roanoke river; fifteen east of Tarborough; fifteen above Williamston; thirty below Halifax. I take this pains to inform the public that there is such a horse, as those gentlemen wishing to raise good horses may have the opportunity, as I have not advertised him yet. If he can run, it is unknown to any person; it is judged that he can, but he has not been tried. I shall let him to mares next spring at moderate prices, which I will make known before the spring.
