CAUTION.

SOMETIME in the month of March last, a man calling himself ALEXANDER J. MAURICE, came to this place, professing to be a Universalist Preacher, and as such, was cordially received by the friends of Universalism. Some short time after his arrival, his friends becoming his sureties, he was enabled to purchase one half of the Printing Press, Types, and other materials used in the office of the Carolina Sentinel, together with some other articles, amounting in all to about $1800. Scarcely have six months elapsed, when this same unprincipled scoundrel has shamefully absconded, and left his friends to pay his debts. Since his departure from this place, we have heard of his having carried away a gold watch entrusted to his care by a lady in the country, for the purpose of having it repaired in this place; of his endeavoring to pass a note forged by himself to the amount of $300; of his purchasing several watches on the eve of his departure, for which he gave his notes; of his borrowing several sums of money, and finally leaving his tavern bill unpaid.

This notice is therefore to caution the public, (particularly in Philadelphia and New-York, where he has been seen,) to discountenance such a villain.

Said ALEXANDER J. MAURICE is about five feet five inches high, dark complexion, black hair and grey eyes, with a very prominent forehead.

DOMESTIC.

General Assembly.—There is certainly great liberality in our present Legislature, or the western members are in the majority; for in all the most important elections at the present session, the West have managed to secure the appointment of their own candidates, to the exclusion of those of the East. At the present session, both Speakers, a Senator, Treasurer, Judge, and lastly, Governor of the State, have been selected from the West. Both our Senators in Congress are from Western counties and we have two Judges of the Superior Courts...Miners' Jour.

Lorenzo Dow.—Some wag having nominated the famous Lorenzo Dow as a Candidate for President of the United States, he has in consequence, addressed the following note to the Editor of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser:

TO THE PUBLIC.

Having noticed a piece in sundry papers—going the rounds...nominating by intimation, L. Dow for the NEXT PRESIDENT of the U. S. &c.

Fellow Citizens...I shall not offer myself as a Candidate for the Presidency...not viewing my natural and acquired talents adequate to the APPROACHING AWFULLY IMPORTANT STATION FROM '33 to '37—though a public character for 35 years, and have some little acquaintance with men and things, experimentally. And I hope that no other Native Citizen will offer, who is not FULLY QUALIFIED for that IMPORTANT TRUST in THAT period of time!

LORENZO DOW.

Dec. 20th 1830.
N. B. Printers through the U. S. will please give the above an insertion. L. D.

*The Rev. Mr. Dow, as we learn, has inferred from an examination of the prophecies, that this period will be one of general disturbance in the moral and political world.

Reform!—In the Navy Department, when under the direction of Mr. Southard, the expenditures always overrun the appropriation, and Congress was called upon at each meeting for additional appropriations to cover the deficiency. Under the agency of Mr. Branch, we find, that the appropriations for the Navy, have been found more than sufficient for the expenditures, and there will remain an unexpended balance, probably exceeding one million of dollars, saved by an economical and legal disbursement of the public money.

[Trenton Emporium.]

Naval Statistics.—The statement of deaths in the navy from the first of December last to the first of the present month corroborates the remark of the Secretary of the Navy in his late Report, of the general health of that branch of public service. The total number of deaths of officers of every rank is thirty seven, sixteen of whom were lost in the Hornet. Four others died of yellow fever, and one, Surgeon Bissett, was killed in a duel. Considering the force that has been kept up in the West Indies during the past year, and the exposures incident to that station, the number of fatal cases of yellow fever must be considered remarkably small, and compared with the returns of previous years, will furnish a strong illustration of the salutary operation of the chloride of lime. The smallness of the number of dismissals during the year, bears as favorable evidence to the conduct of the officers, as the number of deaths does to the general exemption from diseases which they have enjoyed. But twelve officers in all have been dismissed, viz: one master commandant; three lieutenants; [two of them for a part they took in the duel in which a young citizen of Philadelphia was killed,] six midshipmen; [two of them also for the same offence] and one marine officer.

Piracy.—On the 1st ult. the schr. Henry Clay, O. Sears, master, 9 days from Aux Cayes, homeward bound, with 130 bags of coffee, was boarded 15 miles S. W. from St. Nickolous Moule, N. W. point of St. Domingo, by a piratical vessel, about 40 tons, sloop rigged, manned by six blacks, and robbed. The sloop came out directly from shore by the aid of oars (it being calm) and when within musket shot, hailed the schr. and ordered the capt. to send his boat on board with all hands. He replied that the boat leaked so badly that she would not swim. They then fired four muskets at the schr. when capt. S. put his boat over with two men to row and three to keep her free, being all his crew. The pirates then confined the men, and came on board armed with swords, muskets, pistols, &c. and demanded of the captain his money. He gave them all he had, about $3. They told him to give them more; and when he persisted that he had none, they presented a musket at him and threatened to put him to death. They then tied him, and after taking 55 bags of coffee, all they could carry) nearly all the provisions, clothing and the square-sail, they left him. The schr. and cargo belonged to Messrs. H. N. & T. P. Williams, merchants of this place.—Eliz. City Star.

The schr. Lavina, Scott, which sailed from this port with a cargo of corn for Dighton, Mass. was run into at sea off Sandy Hook in the night by the brig Zelia, bound to N. York, which injured her so much that the crew had barely time to get on board the brig before the schr. sunk. This vessel (which was nearly new) and cargo were also owned by Messrs. H. N. & T. P. Williams, of this place; and is we understand a total loss.—Ib.

Negro Stealing.—A person calling himself Dr. Allen has been arrested in Louisiana, tried for stealing slaves, and found guilty. He had been staying for a while at Ville Platt, and represented to several slaves in the vicinity that he would take them to a place where they would be better treated. The slaves informed their masters, and Allen was taken in the act of carrying them off.
