Bank of Newbern.
 5s old plate, letter H payable to B. L. S. dated 3d Nov. 1809.
 10s dated 2d July, 1819. The true bills issued in 1819, are dated in June, instead of July.
 10s letter D payable to S. Watkins, Newbern, dated July 5, 1819.
 10s letter D payable to S. Watkins, at Newbern, (not Newbern) dated Jan. 2, 1820.
State Bank of North Carolina
 1s and 2s altered to 10s letter B payable to T. Nash, July 2d, 1826.
 2s letter D payable at Raleigh, to R. Smith, dated July 21st, 1817.
 5s 10s and 20s. You may detect the 5s 10s and 20s of the Stap Bank, by observing, that on the right hand and on the top of the bills, there is a stamp of a die, with 5, 10, or 20, as the case may be, having around it 22 small circles or dots in the genuine; but the bad notes have but 20. They are generally filled up payable to H. Collins.

Counterfeit Notes.—We were shown a few days since, says the Memphis (Tenn.) Advocate, ten counterfeit $10 notes on the following branches of the United States Bank, viz: nine on the branch at Fayetteville, and one on the branch at Lexington, Ky. They are marked with the letter D, and are of the same plate, which is coarsely engraved and easily detected. Those on the Fayetteville branch are payable to D. Anderson, and bear date the 2d day of July, 1827; the one on the Lexington branch is payable to I. Fowler, and bears date February, 1828.

Another Suicide.—Albert Gardner, a sailor, who came to this port a short time ago, committed suicide, on Monday last, by hanging himself with his handkerchief. This is the third wretched example of the effects of intemperance which has been set before the citizens of Newbern within three months.
Newbern Sent.

Death by Lightning.—Mr. Thomas Marshall, a young man about 22 years of age, was killed by lightning, in Montgomery county, on Wednesday the 13th ult. while walking over his plantation.—Salisbury Car.

Sudden Death.—Alfred H. Powell, Esq. died at Winchester, Va. on the 3d inst. after an illness of little more than an hour! At the moment the awful summons reached him he was engaged in arguing an important case before the County Court, and had proceeded for fifteen or twenty minutes with unusual ability, when he suddenly faltered and sunk into his seat, with barely strength enough to utter a word or two to apprise his friends of his situation.

Smuggling.—Every day we live and learn. We recollect once reading a work on political economy, written in Prussia, in which one of the strongest arguments urged against high duties, was, that the protected monopolists would themselves turn smugglers, introduce foreign goods clandestinely into their manufactories, sell them as their own production, and pocket the duty. Such conduct, however, in this country, was too improbable to occur, and we have, therefore, never employed this argument against our system. We have now reasons for believing that we have over-rated the morality of our countrymen. A gentleman from Mississippi, with whom we have lately conversed, and who is recently from New-Orleans, assures us that there are strong suspicions entertained in that quarter, that Sugar has been smuggled from the West-Indes into Louisiana, and sold for home-made. Any person who will cast his eye on the map, will discover that Louisiana possesses a sea-coast extending westward from the Mississippi to the river Sabine, which divides it from the province of Texas. This coast is about 250 miles in length, and is accessible by lakes and inlets, and includes the district called Atakapas.

To our own minds, the probability of what our informant has stated, is too strong to admit of much doubt, especially when we recollect that smuggling is no new business in that region, the importation of slaves having been long carried on there, as we learn from the same source.—Banner Cons.

Banking System.—Our readers will perceive, by an advertisement in one of the following columns, that a Bank is opened at Baltimore, by that highly respectable and responsible firm, J. I. Cohen, Jun. & Brothers, who offer to pay interest upon deposits at a more liberal rate than usual, thus offering perhaps the best safe opportunity for temporary investments of money that is presented to the public. This is not the only indication that we have seen that the system of Banking is to undergo a great change in the country, in the course of which private Banks will in a great degree supersede the small incorporated Banks of small capital.—Atl. Int.

Elber G. Gunter is, by appointment, to preach at the old meeting-house in Tarborough, on Saturday, the 4th of September; the 4th, at Lawrence's meeting-house; 5th, at Shuell Bank.—Com.

EARTHENWARE,
Looking-Glasses, &c.

THOMAS J. BARROW & CO.
Importers, 88 Water st. New-York.
OFFER FOR SALE, the largest and most complete assortment of Earthenware, Glass, China, plain and gilt Looking-Glasses, &c. which the New-York market will afford, comprising every style and variety of the newest patterns. They return their most cordial thanks to their friends in the Southern States, for their support in the persecution now carrying on against them, for their refusal to join a combination in fixing one tariff of prices for Crockery, throughout the trade. It is mainly attributable to the influence of our Southern friends that we have been enabled to survive thus far, in this most trying situation; exposed to the combined influence and capital of the whole trade, endeavoring to effect our ruin and expulsion from business. We pledge ourselves to our friends to give them every satisfaction in our power as regards the quality of our goods, the excellence of our packers and the lowness of our prices for cash or city acceptances; and in return, solicit from them a continuance of their patronage, and particularly request those who have influence with their friends to exert it in our behalf, as we trust the cause is one they are all interested in, and much benefit will accrue to us from their friendly acts in this way. It has been said, the combination was broken up. As it regards prices, this is true, and all, we think, friends or foes will allow that we have effected this change; but we do assure our friends, that at no period since we commenced our system of unshackled prices were we in greater want of assistance than at the present moment. This combination of men are leaving no means untried for effecting our ruin, that they may revive the old system: our credit and character are assailed in every shape, our importations waylaid and stopped in every instance where threats are sufficient to intimidate the manufacturers from supplying us;—in fine, no vexation or trouble which the malice of men could devise has been neglected in this struggle to subdue us. We once more call upon every friend of a free trade to come up to our support, & pledge ourselves to give them no cause to repent of their liberality.

Bicknell's Reporter
Counterfeit Detector, &
PRICE CURRENT.

THE first year of this publication having been concluded, the "Reporter" will hereafter be published weekly as well as semi-monthly. We feel grateful to the public for the liberal patronage awarded us, (having now a more extensive circulation than any other newspaper in the United States,) and shall leave no measure unresorted to, in order to render this journal valuable in all respects, not only to merchants, banking institutions, brokers, and keepers of hotels, but to the community in general. We have engaged the literary assistance of several gentlemen well known as writers, and have correspondents in all the principal cities and towns in the United States. We also receive weekly more than five hundred newspapers from different parts of the Union, so that whatever information may be circulated through the medium of the "Reporter," and the resources from whence it is derived, we can confidently state, may, in all cases, be relied upon as correct. Bank notes are being counterfeited in every direction; and on the arrival of every vessel from Europe, or the creation of every national excitement, the state of the market varies. Every person should, therefore, be possessed of some certain guide by which all such information might be received by the earliest mails, and at such a rate as not to render its possession an exorbitant tax. Such a journal is exactly what we endeavor to render the "Reporter," in an effort to accomplish which, neither pains nor expense will at any time be spared on the part of the publisher. Every number will contain a carefully corrected Bank Note List, List of Broken Banks, Prices Current, Prices of Gold, Prices of Bank and Insurance Stock, and a description of all Counterfeit and Altered Notes in circulation throughout the United States, and all such information as is likely to throw light upon the subjects embraced in the design of this journal. The latest foreign news, together with much original and well selected matter, will also be found in the columns of the "Reporter."

The terms of the weekly publication are $3 per annum—the semi-monthly $2—single copies 12 1/2 cents.
 Address—
