But as he alleges, and it cannot be doubted, that the infamous slanders which he publishes are manufactured for the occasion, and forwarded to him by members of either House of Congress from New York: Such member or members are thus publicly notified that if they dare to show their faces, and advance from behind the dark curtain which conceals them, they will meet with the most prompt and respectful attention from those whom they seek to calumniate through a corrupt, irresponsible journal.

TARBOROUGH.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1832.

Jackson Meeting.—A meeting of the friends of the present Administration, will be held at the Court house in Tarborough, on Wednesday next, at 7 o'clock.—Com.

We are indebted to the Representative in Congress from this district for pamphlet copies of "An exposition of Evidence in support of the Memorial to Congress," prepared in pursuance of instructions from the permanent committee appointed by the Free Trade Convention assembled at Philadelphia, by Henry Lee, of Massachusetts, one of the committee—and Mr. McDuffie's Report to "Reduce duties on Imports, &c." The length of these interesting documents precludes their introduction into our columns, but they are at the service of any of our readers who feel inclined to peruse them.

Congress.—We omit our Congressional summary this week, to give place to several political articles which will be found in the preceding columns. In the Senate, Mr. Jay's Tariff resolution is still under consideration. The House of Representatives passed the Apportionment bill on the 16th inst. by a vote of 130 to 68—the ratio is fixed at 47,700, which gives the House 240 members, and leaves this State with its present representation and a fraction of 19,647.

Washington's Remains.—The contemplated removal of the remains of Washington, with those of his wife, by Congress at the Centennial Celebration, has been defeated by the refusal of the consent of Mr. John A. Washington, his grand nephew and present proprietor of Mount Vernon. The measure was warmly opposed by several members of both Houses of Congress, and the Legislature of Virginia unanimously protested against the removal.

We will insert in our next paper the speeches of Mr. Hayne, of S. C. and of Mr. Brown, of this State, on the nomination of Mr. Van Buren. Mr. Mangum's speech has not been published—the National Intelligencer says, he made but a few remarks, "in which he is understood to have declared that he did not approve the tone and tenor of the Instructions to Mr. McLane, but that he saw nothing in them to justify the rejection of the nomination."

The last U. S. Telegraph contains a correspondence between the Hon. George Poindexter and several of the New-York members of Congress, relative to the offensive article which appeared in the New-York Courier and Enquirer, and which called forth the "Card" issued by Messrs. Poindexter and Moore. The correspondence terminated amicably with the exception of Mr. Hoffman, of whom Mr. Poindexter demanded "personal satisfaction," but Mr. H. assigned "sufficient reasons," as he said, for not accepting the challenge, and declining all further correspondence.

Also, an Address to the Public, by the Hon. C. A. Wickliffe, relative to the assemblage of a few members of Congress in the room of Judge Bibb, in March, 1830. This address refers to several statements made in the Globe, and in Maj. Eaton's publication—not having published either of those, we deem it unnecessary to insert Mr. Wickliffe's address.

Cotton.—We notice with pleasure an advance in the price of this article. It now sells readily in this place at 7½ to 8½ cents. At Norfolk, it is quoted at 7½ to 9 cents. At Petersburg, 8½ to 9 cents.

Foreign.—The ship Nimrod, at New-York, furnishes London dates to 9th ult. Cotton had improved in price, but Grain was dull and declining. A detected conspiracy to overthrow the French government, is the only political item of importance.

Raleigh, Feb. 24.—The Supreme Court of the State adjourned on Wednesday last. In our next paper we shall publish a list of the Cases decided during the term.—Star.

Fayetteville, Feb. 21.—We are glad to learn that Gen. McKay, the Representative in Congress from the Wilmington district, has so far recovered his health as to have passed thro' this town some days ago, on his way to Washington.—Obs.

The Comet.—From a statement in the American Almanac and Repository of Knowledge, for the year 1832, it would appear that the Comet from which so much has been, and still continues to be apprehended, does not make its appearance before 1835.

Quarrels of Editors.—In the spring of 1830, it will be recollected, Mr. Webb, of the New York Courier and Enquirer, made a visit to the seat of government, for the purpose, as he previously declared, of inflicting personal chastisement on Gen. Green, of the Telegraph. An interview took place, but before the uplifted cane could descend upon his victim, Webb's attention was arrested by a "double barrelled, percussion, mahogany stocked pistol" presented by Green—thus ended that affair. The combat has lately been renewed, Mr. Webb having again visited Washington with a determination "to push the papers" at his old adversary. Accordingly, on the 6th instant, he addressed a note to Green, requiring an explanation—the note was borne by a Mr. Burrell, who, having stated to Green that "he stood in Webb's shoes," received a cowhiding at the hands of the General. Burrell and Webb have published handbills, and so ends this second affair.

This last visit of Mr. Webb appears a very unfortunate one;—besides getting his friend cowhided, he has been arrested by the Marshal of the District of Columbia, at the instance of Mr. Clement, an ex-editor, for a libel contained in the same article, which called forth the Card of Messrs. Poindexter and Moore.—Halifax Adv.

Elder Wm. B. Worrell will preach by appointment at Nashville, on Monday after the first Sunday in March next; Tuesday 6th, at Free Chapel; Wednesday 7th, at Falls Tar river; Thursday 8th, at Tarborough; Friday 9th, at Cross Roads; Saturday and Sunday, 10th and 11th, at Lawrence's M. H.—Com.

Appointments by Bishop Ives.—The first Saturday and Sunday in March he will officiate at Turner's Cross Roads, in Bertie county; Tuesday 6th, at Tarborough; Wednesday and Thursday, 7th and 8th, at Scotland Neck; Saturday and Sunday, 10th and 11th, at Halifax town; Monday and Tuesday, 12th and 13th, at Jackson, Northampton county.—Com.

MARRIED,
In Martin county, on the 14th inst. by James B. Slade, Esq. Mr. Joseph

Robertson to Miss Deborah, daughter of Joel Smithwick, Esq.

DIED,
In Martin county, on the 5th inst. William Daniel, Sen. in the eighty-sixth year of his age. He was a man of exemplary piety, having been a member of the Baptist church for nearly thirty years. He died in the belief of a blessed immortality.—Com.

COMMUNICATED.
Departed this life, on Monday, the 20th inst. in the 20th year of her age, Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Charles W. Knight, Esq. of this county.—Miss E. was a young woman of an amiable disposition; all who knew her esteemed her, for in her was combined all that is lovely and of good report. Her parent beheld with delight the child of promise—her youthful friends saw much to excite their hopes—but they were soon reminded of the fragility of human life. "As for man, his days are as grass. As the flower of the field so he flourisheth, for the wind passeth over it, and it is gone, and the place thereof shall know it no more." Her earthly and moral course was short, but triumphant—of her doubtless it was said, "Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Is Elizabeth dead? O no, that cannot be, Her soul is stamp'd with immortality; Death could not harm that lovely, gentle maid,
Although her body low in dust he's laid. The mansion fell—the prisoner took her flight,
To join the ransom'd in the realms of light.
Then cease, ye weeping friends—dry up your tears,
Assuage your griefs, dispel your gloomy fears;
Though Elizabeth could no longer here remain,
Your momentary loss is her eternal gain.
Did she not cheerfully resign her breath? Did she not triumph o'er the power of death?
Did she not lean on Jesus' staff and rod— Pass the dark vale in presence of her God?
Tho' now corrupt in dust her body lies, In incorruption Christ will bid it rise.
And sure as late it heaved the mortal green,
Bless'd immortality it shall put on— And with the deathless soul mount up on high,
To live with Christ—to live no more to die. A.H.

MANSION HOUSE,
Washington, N. C.
The Subscriber has taken possession of that well known and commodious stand, the Mansion House, for a long time hitherto occupied by Mr. Leroy. He intends to keep a House of Entertainment,
Where strangers, transient or resident persons, can be accommodated in a style and manner equal to his best abilities, and the state of the market in this town. A desire to promote the comfort of his guests, and to give them every reasonable satisfaction, while they remain under his roof, he trusts will always distinguish his conduct towards them. His stables are well furnished with provender, and persons travelling by private conveyance can rely on him, that their horses shall be carefully fed and properly attended to.
Private families, travelling this way, will be accommodated with board and retired rooms, or separate apartments.

NOTICE.

BY virtue of an Act of the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, passed at the last session, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Tarborough and Hamilton Rail Road Company," the undersigned Commissioners therein named, give notice that Books will be opened for subscriptions on the 31st day of March next, at the following places, under the direction of the following persons, viz:—at Tarborough, under the direction of Michael Hearn, Theophilus Parker and Spencer D. Cotten—in the town of Hamilton, under the direction of James L. G. Baker, William R. Bennett and Exum L. Lowe—in the town of Williamston, under the direction of James B. Slade, James Shaw and Henry Gray—in the borough of Norfolk, Va. under the direction of James Gordon, John Newton and John B. Roy—in Elizabeth City, N. C. under the direction of John L. Bailey, William Gregory and Charles R. Kinney.

It is confidently believed that no stock has heretofore been offered to the citizens of North-Carolina, which has had so many claims to their attention as the present Rail Road, whether individual profit or the general prosperity of the country be taken into the estimate. It will connect two rivers and make a safe and speedy market for all the produce which shall be collected at Tarborough, the most prosperous town on Tar river. The distance is short, the intervening country level, and the most durable timber is to be had conveniently on the whole route. When this Rail Road shall be completed, our neighbors of the counties of Nash, Franklin, Wake, Greene, Wayne and Pitt, will find a ready market for all their surplus produce at the highest price, either at Tarborough, Hamilton, or Norfolk. We deem it useless to say more to induce subscriptions to this stock. The Company will be organized when 300 shares shall be subscribed. The Commissioners will make returns to us of their proceedings and amount of stock subscribed, with the names of the subscribers, by the first day of June next.

Earthenware, Glass, China & Looking Glasses.

THOMAS J. BARROW & CO.
Importers, No. 88 Water-street,
NEW-YORK,

HAVING made extensive connections with one of the largest and most approved Potters in England, are enabled to offer one of the most extensive stocks in market, consisting of every variety of Earthenware, China, Glass, and Looking Glasses, either repacked to order, or in the original package, at uncommonly low prices for Cash or City acceptances. The very liberal support hitherto received from our Southern friends, under the most trying circumstances calls for our warmest thanks. We have survived thus far in the struggle with a body of men who have combined all their efforts to effect our destruction, simply because we will not join them in combining to compel the Country Merchant to pay an exorbitant profit on his purchases in this line. We can only reiterate former assurances of using every exertion to promote the interest of our mercantile friends in the extent and variety of our stock, the lowness of our prices, and the skill and care of our packers, depending upon a free trade as the only system, which can give stability to the mutual interest of city and country merchants.

$25 REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, in May Court week last, a bright mulatto boy named

JOHN,
About 19 or 20 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, thick set and well built—he has a scar under his jaw, (I think the left jaw,) and thick ankles. He is a shrewd fellow, and will perhaps alter his name and attempt to pass as a free man. His father is a free negro, named Hardy Lassiter, living on Toisnot. The above reward will be given for John's apprehension, if delivered to me in Edgecombe county, or secured in any jail so that I can get him again. All persons are hereby forbid harboring, employing, or carrying off said boy, under the penalty of the law.

BILL, the BACHELOR,

WILL STAND the ensuing season at the Subscriber's stable, one mile from Hamilton, on the road leading from Hamilton to Halifax, and also at Woodville, Bertie county. The season will commence the 1st day of March, the first week standing at my house, and the next at Woodville, and so on throughout the season, ending the 1st day of July.
Bill, the Bachelor,
Will be let to mares at Fifteen Dollars the season, Ten Dollars the single leap, and Twenty-five Dollars to insure with foal; with fifty cents to the Groom in every instance. This celebrated horse is five years old, five feet two inches high, of a beautiful brown bay color, and one of the first blooded horses in the State. He was gotten by old Sir Archy—his dam by Sir Harry out of a Celer mare, and the Celer out of a Medley.
