

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the Ohio Repository.
TOIL ON.

Dear reader, have you never walked,
At early dawn or even tide,
In some cool grove, or on the brink
Of waters sleeping far and wide;
When winds and waves were sunk to rest,
And silence all the earth caressed?
The first low whisper, moving leaf
Or wing—was heard; and far on shores
Remote from those you trod, how loud
The sound of boatmen shipping oars!
So still was all, without, within,
For one to speak it seemed a sin.
Scenes, such as these, with little thought,
Point us to nations in their birth;
When every deed the patriot does,
To save the State is blazoned forth:
The statesman's plea, the warrior's arm,
Like Patrick Henry's, spreads alarm.
But when the elements of death
Are roused, and men go forth to war.
Or, when the breeze of enterprise
Has grown into a stunning roar;
Then, who would fix the public eye,
Must do great things or be passed by.
So, in the literary world,
The first attempts at wit or song,
Or those that aim at solid worth,
Are tho't of much and talk'd of long:
When better deeds in after days,
Lie piled unnoticed in the public ways.
Let him, therefore, whose eyes are fixed
On fame's star-courting, dizzy height;
Beware of sloth; yes, mental sloth:
Will clothe his soul in starless night:
And none so miserable as those
Who love with sleepy indolence to doze.

STANAZS FOR MUSIC.

By Jaja El.
Thou'rt false to me—thou'rt false to me,
And pride shall teach me to forget;
But still my heart beats warm for thee—
I love thee yet—I love thee yet!
I thought to still
Each burning thrill,
I thought to drown each fond regret,
But ah! my soul
Forbids control—
I love thee yet—I love thee yet!
Still midst the gay I'm seen, I'm heard—
My mother joys to hear me sing;
Nor dreams that, like the wounded bird,
I bear the shaft beneath the wing.
But in my bower
At twilight hour,
I mourn o'er hopes forever set;
And tears might tell,
How much too well
I love thee yet—I love thee yet!

TO A TOPER IN LOVE.

Tween women and wine, Sir,
Man's lot is to smart;
For wine makes his head ache,
And women his heart.

Fire.—We regret to learn, that a fire broke out in the village of Ashborough, Randolph county, which was not got under until seven buildings were consumed. It originated in the store of John B. Troy, Esq. probably from the fire which was left on the hearth when the clerks retired to rest. Its progress was stopped at Hoover's Hotel, by blowing up an adjoining store. We did not learn the names of the sufferers, except Mr. Troy, whose loss is supposed to amount to four or $5000.—Fayetteville Obs.

Fatal Accident.—On Saturday morning last, Edmund Davis, a promising young lad, aged about fifteen, son of Mr. Lawson W. Davis, of this county, was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of his brother, Jonathan Davis, who is about two years older than the deceased. The younger brother, who was a short distance from the elder, told him that he could not point the gun at his eyes—when the latter presented the piece, which accidentally went off, and the contents were lodged in the face of the former, who expired in about 15 minutes.—Newbern Sp.

A Patriotic Discourse
DELIVERED by the Rev. Joshua Lawrence, at the Old Church in Tarborough, on Sunday, 4th of July, 1830. (second edition) for sale at this Office. Price, 10 cents single, or $1 per dozen. Tarboro', 1832.

A Printing Establishment FOR SALE.
THE Subscriber is disposed to sell the Establishment of the Cape Fear Recorder. The Recorder is the only newspaper in Wilmington; and there is reason to believe, will continue unopposed while impartially and temperately conducted. The location of this Journal, in the first seaport town of the extensive State of North-Carolina, will immediately occur to persons at all conversant in topographical knowledge. There is a good second hand Ramage Press, and a sufficient quantity of small type, to carry on a newspaper of the size of the Recorder. It is believed that less than $100, judiciously applied, would purchase all the additional ornamental type that would be necessary for printing a variety of jobs in the best taste. The subscription list to the Recorder is not a long one, but the names are generally good. To a single man who is a practical printer; who is unembarrassed; who is also industrious and persevering; the proprietorship of a paper in Wilmington, would afford present subsistence and might inspire him with hopes of extended patronage, at no distant day. For terms apply to
A. M. HOOPER.

PROSPECTUS OF THE Western Carolinian,
Edited by Burton Craige, in Salisbury, N. Carolina.
THE Western Carolinian is devoted to general politics, political economy, state papers, literature, foreign and domestic news, agriculture, mechanics, &c.
In politics the Editor is a thorough-paced democratic republican. He advocates the doctrines of Free Trade and State Rights—is opposed to the exercise of constructive powers and incidental rights. He is opposed to the Tariff and its offspring, Internal Improvements, by the General Government. He is in favor of Internal Improvements by the State Governments. Believing the re-election of Gen. Jackson will be the surest means of perpetuating those liberties in defence of which he has contributed so much, the Editor will advocate his re-election with unflinching zeal and manly firmness.

TERMS.—The Carolinian is printed once a week on a large imperial sheet of good quality, with new type; and will be sent to subscribers at $2 per annum, if paid within three months, or $2:50 after that time. Advertising at the usual rates. As the Carolinian has the widest circulation of any paper in the Western part of the State, advertisers would find it much to their advantage to advertise in its columns.
Any one procuring six solvent subscribers to the Carolinian, shall have a seventh paper gratis. Postage must be paid on all letters addressed to the Editor.

THIS work will be divided into two parts—Part 1st, will contain the History of the Kehukee Association from its first organization until the year 1803, as compiled by Elders BURKITT and READ, (omitting such parts of it as are considered superfluous.) Part 2d, will embrace a continuation of the History of the Association, until the present period, by Elder JOSEPH BIGGS, &c.
Nov. 7, 1831.

CONDITIONS.
The work will be printed on good paper, with a fair type, and will make about 300 pages, duodecimo. It will be furnished to subscribers, neatly bound and lettered, at $1 per single copy, or $10 per dozen.
Persons holding Subscription papers will please send them, on or before the 1st of April next, to Elder JOSEPH BIGGS, Williamston—or, to Geo. Howard, Tarboro' N. C.

Randolph Macon College.
THE Preparatory School attached to Randolph Macon College, will be opened, and the operations will commence on the 16th of January, 1832, under the superintendence of the Rev. Lorenza Lea, A. M. Mr. Lea is a graduate of the University of North-Carolina, and for some time acted as tutor in that institution. The public may rest assured that no effort will be neglected by him to advance the students that may be committed to his care.
Tuition as follows, viz:
English grammar, arithmetic, elements of astronomy and geography, per session of five months, $10 00
Greek & Latin languages, per do. 12 50
The above, with the addition of mathematics, do. 15 00
Board, (including washing, lodging, fire, candles, &c. &c.) do. 35 00
The Steward's Hall belonging to the institution is not yet finished; but board can be had at the above rates for a considerable number of students in a private family the most respectable; and on the 20th of April next another boarding house will be opened, at which any number can be accommodated at the same rates. There are two other very respectable families who will furnish board, &c. as above; but for which they will charge $40 per session.

PROSPECTUS OF THE North-Carolina Miscellany.
THE Subscribers propose to issue at Edenton, a weekly paper, bearing the above title, and designed to succeed the "Edenton Gazette," about to be discontinued.
The primary object of this publication is, to contribute to the amusement, convenience, and improvement of the community, to which it is offered. Accordingly, in addition to advertisements, and the various news of the day, it shall contain such articles of a political, literary, religious, commercial and agricultural nature, as shall correspond with the end proposed. It shall be appropriated to the exclusive interests of no party, either political or religious; but shall be made a medium of general information, and free discussion, respecting any question which may properly claim the attention of the public.
The Miscellany shall be printed with good type, on a fair sheet, and be furnished to subscribers at $2 50, if paid in advance or in three months from the time of subscribing, and at $3, if payment be made at the end of the year.
The first number shall appear as early in January next, as the acquisition of the necessary materials will admit.
THOS. MEREDITH,
WM. E. PELL.
Edenton, N. C. Dec. 20, 1831.

To the Editors & Publishers of NEWSPAPERS.
JONATHAN ELLIOTT, of the City of Washington, respectfully requests the Editors or Publishers of Newspapers within the several States and territories of the Union, to furnish him, through the Members of Congress of their particular States or Districts, at the seat of the Federal Government, with three copies of their newspapers (marked with "one," "two" and "three") issued on (or about) Wednesday, the 22d of February, 1832, (being the centennial Anniversary of General Washington.)
As his motive is entirely disinterested and patriotic in making this request, it being his desire to produce positive evidence of the number of newspapers printed in the United States and their Territories, he desires that particular attention may be paid to this request; and above all, by the publishers of country papers, in distant towns that are, comparatively, little known; and if, at the same time, they would communicate in their papers, any "statistical information, relative to their immediate neighborhood, it would be highly appreciated and gratefully acknowledged."
It is intended that every newspaper received, shall be carefully preserved and arranged, by States, in a room at Washington, devoted for this object; one set to be eventually deposited in the Library of Congress; the duplicate set to be transmitted to O. Rice, Esq. of London, (Agent for the purchase of books, &c. for the Congressional Library) to be by him placed in the British Museum; and the triplicate set to be retained for some public institution.
It is intended, also, as soon as this collection is completed, to publish in a tabular form, in the public prints, for the information of the people of the U. States, a list of all the newspapers, embracing the "name," "place and period of publication," and "terms of subscription." Great pains will be bestowed to make this list (being an important result to be gathered from the collection) as perfect as the materials will admit.
It is hoped that the intelligent conductors of Newspapers, favorable to the above project, will oblige the advertiser by inserting this communication in their respective papers, to each of whom a copy of the "tabular statement" will be transmitted as soon as published.
