

by calling Gen. William Clark to the Chair, and the appointment of Churchill Gorham, Secretary. Henry Toole, Esq. in a forcible and eloquent address, explained the purposes of the meeting; and, in conclusion, moved the following resolutions, which were adopted without one dissenting voice.

Resolved, That with us the great question concerning any man who may be presented for our suffrages is, "Is he for the Protective policy?" Recognising in Martin Van Buren one who contributed largely to fasten upon the country the Tariff acts of 1828, which we view as an infringement of the Constitution, as unequal and oppressive in their operation, and as jeopardizing the union of these States, we should deplore his elevation to the responsible and influential post of Vice President of the United States.

Resolved, further, That we consider Martin Van Buren a political juggler, who has contributed more than any other politician, living or dead, to introduce corruption and intrigue into our public departments; that we hold him mainly responsible for the dissensions and distractions of the present Administration, and therefore unfit to be a ruler in a plain, republican government like ours.

Resolved, That we approve of the State Convention, to be held in Raleigh, on the 18th June next, to appoint electors for Vice President.

Resolved, That Doctor Churchill Gorham be appointed a delegate to represent this meeting in that Convention.

Resolved, That we recommend to that Convention, as Vice President, PHILIP PENDLETON BARBOUR, of Virginia.

Resolved, That the Editors of the U. S. Telegraph, Richmond Jeffersonian, Washington N. C. Union, Roanoke Advocate, Raleigh Star, Newbern Sentinel, Fayetteville Observer, and Tarboro' Free Press, be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

WM. CLARK, Chairman.
C. GORHAM, Secretary.

The Tariff.—The Newbern Sentinel gives place to an article on the Tariff, from the Richmond Enquirer, with the following remarks:

"The views expressed by Mr. Ritchie are not only in accordance with our own, but we can say confidently, that should South Carolina resort to Nullification, North Carolina would be loth to send a man or musket for her subjection—She would not—No! she would not—and may the arm of him be palsied who would raise it against our brethren contending for their violated rights. The manufacturers may jeer and gibe, but they should not presume too far. North Carolina, as a sovereign member of this Confederacy, had the high honor, unpretending as she is, to be the first to declare her independence, and she will not be the last to maintain it. The Tariff is a system of plunder, and oppression, and the manufacturing States know it to be so—and if this government be dissolved, let the curse of posterity rest on them, not on the heads of those who refused to submit to its withering influence.

The Wiscasset case.—We find, in a speech of the Hon. Jesse Speight, the following sketch of this celebrated case, which has of late occupied so much of the time and attention of the House of Representatives:

"When the present administration came into power, they found as Collector of the District of Wiscasset in the State of Maine, a certain gentleman who had held the office ever since the formation of the government, and who was superannuated and worn out. The gentleman who then presided over the Treasury Department, felt it his duty to remove this officer, and to give the office to one who was physically more competent to perform its arduous duties. Accordingly the present Collector was appointed, and he subsequently appointed or caused to be appointed one McClintock, as an inspector of the said District. By the act of Congress regulating affairs of this kind, it is made the duty of the Inspector of Customs to make oath quarterly of the amount he has received of fees or emoluments. This Inspector, as he alleges, was removed by the Collector on the ground that he refused to give him (the Collector) a certain portion of his income of office; while, on the other hand, it is stated by the Collector in his letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, that he removed him for habits of intemperance. Now, Sir, this is the issue made up between the two contending parties; and the great question to be decided is, whether this House shall clothe itself with all the solemn forms of a Court of Impeachment, sitting as a grand inquest, hear the charges and (if they shall be deemed true) prefer articles of impeachment, march in solemn procession to the bar of Senate, and there in the name of all the good people of these United States, impeach the Collector of high crimes and misdemeanors—or shall it be referred to the Secretary of the Treasury with instructions to investigate the matter, and if true, to remove the Collector. Now, Sir, this is the question to be decided, and concerning which this House has for several days been harrassed about proscription and "reform," &c. &c."

Unfortunate Affair.—We understand a rencontre took place last week between two very highly respectable gentlemen of Washington, in this State, in which one was so badly injured, by the discharge of a musket, that his life was despaired of when our informant left that place.—Windsor Her.

Fayetteville, May 9.—At Sampson Superior Court, last week, James Bryan, Jr. was put upon his trial for the murder of a negro, the property of Samuel Richardson, Jr. of Bladen county; the whole of Wednesday was consumed in the trial, and after the argument of counsel and the charge of his Honor Judge Norwood, the Jury retired but for a few minutes and returned with a verdict of not guilty.—Jour.

—We learn that Owen Holmes, Esq. of Wilmington, has been nominated as Elector on the Jackson Ticket for that District, by the District Convention which assembled for that purpose on the 23d ult.—ib.

Raleigh, May 11.—The Hon. John Branch passed thro' this city on Sunday last, on his return from Florida to Washington.

Gen. Beverly Daniel, Marshal of this State, which office he has filled for the last twenty-four years, and whose commission expired last month, has been re-appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Isaac Pipkin, Esq. whose commission as Surveyor and Inspector of the Revenue for the port of Murfreesborough, in this State, expired on the 22d of March last, has also been re-appointed.—Star.

Frontier War.—The Illinois Advocate contains a Proclamation by Gov. Reynolds to the militia of the north-western section of Illinois, calling upon them to aid in protecting the frontier from a threatened attack. The British band of Sacs, headed by Black Hawk and joined by some Kickapoos and Pottawatamies, amounting in all to about 500 men, crossed the Mississippi at the Yellow Banks, on the 5th of April, and marched up on the east side of the Rock river towards the Prophet's village.

African Colonization.—At a late meeting of the Colonization Society, in Washington City, the following resolution was moved by Walter Jones, Esq. and unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be presented to the Society of Friends in North Carolina, for the aid they have so repeatedly and so liberally rendered to the cause of African Colonization.

Rail Roads.—At the late session of the New York Legislature, 24 charters for rail road companies were granted, with an aggregate capital of $24,775,000.

C. S. PLEASANTS, DENTIST,

DEVOTES his whole attention to all the various branches of his profession. Being connected with and having studied under one of the most distinguished Dentists of the North, he has had an opportunity of acquiring correct principles of the science, and the most approved methods of operation—he flatters himself, that this will be a sufficient guarantee to the public, that his practice will always be guided by just principles. He considers diseases of the teeth as highly worthy the attention of the scientific Dentist, and embrace as great a variety of practice, as any one can do justice to. No service can be rendered, which gives greater or more lasting satisfaction to those who set a proper value on their teeth, than such operations as restore their soundness and preserve their vitality.

Teeth extracted when necessary with care—old fangs, stumps, or roots, remaining in the sockets, causing ulcers, gum bites, alveolar abscesses, and consequently, in many cases, reducing the health, taken out with safety.

As many persons having suffered with the tooth ache have had their teeth extracted when they have been only partially decayed, he deems it proper to state, that he has discovered a mode of treatment by which they are rendered artificially sound, and in an eminent degree fit for the use for which they were intended.

C. S. P. is amply prepared with testimony as to ability, &c. from many highly respectable citizens of North Carolina and Virginia, who have required his professional assistance—and as his materials are of the best kind and his charges moderate, he hopes to give general satisfaction. As his stay will be limited, he hopes, all those wishing his services will give him an early call.

It is his intention to visit this place annually.
