

Tarborough Guards, }
5th July, 1832.

At a meeting of the Company held on the 5th inst. the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, that the thanks of this meeting be tendered to Benj. R. Hines, Esq. for the able, eloquent and patriotic address delivered by him on the 4th of July.

Resolved, that a copy of said address be requested for publication.

[REPLY.]

Tarboro', 6th July, 1832.

Members of the Tarborough Guards: the flattering resolutions adopted by you on the 5th inst. thanking me for what you are pleased to call the "able, eloquent and patriotic address" delivered by me on the 4th inst. and requesting a copy for publication, was handed me this morning.

It is to me a source of regret that any situation of circumstances should exist, which could induce me to deny any favor, asked by a corps of which I am proud to call myself a member. But in the present instance, objections to complying with your request, present themselves which I cannot well overcome.

The address to which you have alluded in such flattering terms, was prepared by me, when in an ill state of health, and I am aware of many defects which it contains—besides, it has become so common to publish orations delivered on such occasions, that in my opinion, the public have long since ceased to read them with any degree of interest.

Under these circumstances and situated as I am, I hope the members of your patriotic corps, will pardon me for declining your request.

With sentiments of the highest regard, I am, gentlemen, your obt' serv't,
B. R. HINES.

From the Globe.

In the House of Representatives, Thursday, June 23, the bill to alter and amend the several laws imposing duties on imports, having passed—on a motion to amend the title of the bill—

Mr. HALL, of N. Carolina, said, he was opposed to the amendment; but was glad that it afforded him an opportunity to place himself rectus in curia in regard to the vote he had given on the bill. He had never in his life given a Tariff vote; he never should. In the present case, he had voted solely upon the principle of a reduction of the taxes. This was consistent with the whole course he had pursued on the subject. Whenever the opportunity was presented of voting for a reduction of taxes, however great or small, if he thought the tax unnecessary, he had gone for the reduction. He had never in his life voted for laying on one cent; and, in the present case, when, what he conceived to be a direct reduction of some millions was presented, he voted for it. This he felt bound to do, in all cases where he could, without an infraction of principle, whatever the amount, great or small. This was the course he had always pursued, which he should continue to pursue, until the taxes were reduced to the necessary wants of the Government. He repudiated all idea of compromise. No such idea entered into the composition of his vote. He had always, under all circumstances, voted against laying on: this was a direct vote to take off a portion of the burthen. He felt in no way bound to alter his course from what it had always been; but felt himself at perfect liberty to use every fair exertion, here or elsewhere, still further to reduce the burthens of the people to the mere wants of the Government. He regretted that the reduction was not greater. One great objection to the bill, was, that the reduction was not so great as, while it might somewhat reduce the taxes, it would probably not produce a correspondent reduction of the revenue—both of which he desired.

Mr. Clayton said recently in a speech against the tariff, that he was the owner of the only Cotton Manufactory in Georgia, and that he had doubled a capital of $30,000 in two years. He had acted as a sponge on his neighbors and thus sucked up their hard earnings. So, he said, it was with all the manufacturers.

The Hon. George E. Mitchell, a Representative in Congress from the State of Maryland, died on the 23rd ult. at his lodgings on Capitol Hill, Washington. He had a paralytic stroke last fall, and about a week ago a repetition of it—Mr. McCoy, of Virginia, is suffering under a similar visitation—it is feared he will never reach his home. The members, generally, are in good health.

Gen. Houston has been fined by the Federal Court, for his assault on Stanberry, $500 and costs of suit. Maj. Heard's trial has not taken place, in consequence of alleged insanity.

The last Washington papers are silent upon the subject of the Indian War. It is probable that we shall hear but little more of it, as, by the last accounts, the force assembled to oppose the Indians was sufficient to overwhelm them.

Raleigh, July 6.—The Supreme Court adjourned last week, in consequence of the indisposition of Judge Hall. Star.

The annual commencement of our University, which was Thursday, the 21st ult. was more numerously attended than usual, great numbers having been attracted by the Oration of Mr. Gaston. About 110 students now attend the University.

The annual meeting of the "North Carolina Institute of Education" was held at Chapel Hill on the 20th—the first annual address was delivered by Alfred Moore, Esq. of Orange.

The New York Anti-Masonic Convention met in Utica on the 21st ult. Francis Granger was nominated for Governor, and Samuel Stevens for Lieut. Governor. An Electoral ticket was also formed, headed by the names of Chancellor Kent and J. C. Spencer.

Latest from Europe.—By the packet ship Silas Richards, at New York from Liverpool, London dates to the 22d, and Liverpool to the 24th of May, have been received.

It does not appear that the King has absolutely consented to a creation of Peers sufficient to carry the Reform bill, though it may perhaps be inferred—this much, however, is certain that either such creation will take place or the anti-reform Lords will withdraw their opposition.

The Cholera is subsiding in France and England—but it is said to be making some progress in Italy.

RESPECTFULLY inform the Printers of the United States, to whom they have long been individually known as established Letter Founders, that they have now formed a copartnership in said business, and hope from their united skill and extensive appearance, to be able to give full satisfaction to all who may favor them with orders.

The introduction of machinery, in place of the tedious and unhealthy process of casting type by hand, long a desideratum by the European and American Founders, was, by American ingenuity, and a heavy expenditure of time and money on the part of our senior partner, first successfully accomplished. Extensive use of the machine cast letter, has fully tested and established its superiority in every particular, over that cast by the old process.

The Letter Foundry business will hereafter be carried on by the parties before named, under the firm of

A Great Discovery.

IN Orleans, State of Massachusetts, Mr. Jonathan Linnel, jr. has invented a composition for the saving of Paint Oil, and received a patent at the City of Washington, in 1831, signed by Andrew Jackson, President of the United States of America, the Secretary of State, and the Attorney General of the United States, with the seal of the United States affixed; which patent I have seen, and having accepted the agency of Jonathan Linnel, jr. to vend and sell receipts to individuals to prepare the composition to use themselves, for their own buildings, or sell to individuals, towns, or counties, any where in the State of North Carolina. I have recommendations to show that the composition is an important article, and well worthy the notice of all painters. They will find a great saving in paint oil, and their paint will wear well and sustain a brilliant color.

In the town of Tarborough, of the following dimensions: the House to be 40 by 56 feet square, two stories high, the lower story to be 12 and the upper story 13 feet from the floor to the ceiling. The lower story will contain four rooms, with a passage 40 by 20 feet; and the upper story three rooms, two of which will be for Jury rooms, and the other for a Court room. The House to be covered with zinc, and all the work to be done neat, in a workman like manner, and finished complete. The materials to be of the best quality.

The Commissioners being authorized to contract for the building, "either publicly or privately as they may think best, and to make such alterations or improvements as may be approved by a majority of them," deem it unnecessary to enter into further particulars in regard to the finish and plan of the building.

The Commissioners are "further empowered to advance, from time to time, such sums of money as they may deem necessary to carry on the work"—and the present condition of the finances of the County will enable the Commissioners to make prompt payment according to contract.
