Look Out.

THAT I may pay my own debts, and also lay in a new Stock of Goods early the ensuing spring, I offer this as my last notice to all those indebted to me—and all such as will not avail themselves of it directly, may expect to be visited by one of those plugues incident to this country, known as a Sheriff or Constable, whose labors are generally rewarded with cost col-lected out of the defendant. As such, I hope a true regard for their own interest, together with a sense of justice and a spirit of accommodation, will actuate one and all to make immediate settlement, without paying an officer for tugging at the elbows of their coats, merely to re-mind them of doing that which honor and propriety should naturally induce them to do. All persons having claims against me will please present them for settlement.
