

Martin Van Buren,

OF NEW YORK. Richard M. Johnson. OF KENTUCKY.

IT has fallen to the humble lot of the un dersigned to have presented to the A merican People, a third edition of the Biographies of the two above named highly distinguished patriotic citizens, whose con stant devotion to the best interests of our Government has led to their designation, as a testimony of the estimation in which their services are regarded by the Proper whom they have served, as candidates for the two first offices within the gift of a PREE, HAPPY, and FLOURISHING NATION. This token of respect gives to the world additional PROOF that faithful service shall not go unrewarded.

The object of this appeal to the republiin portion of our fellow citizens, is to obtain their co operation in the circulation of on edition of 100,000 copies of the joint Siography of MARTIN VAN BUREN & RICHARD M. JOHNSON, enlarged, revised and corrected, so as to be valuable to every lover of his country, and slike honorable to the distinguished citizens whom WE, THE PEOPLE, intend still further to honor, by their elevation to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, in the election of 1836. Thus we shall perpetuate the principles of Jefferson, which have been so signally revived, no bly acted upon, and TRIUMPHANTLY carried out by Andrew Jackson, who, spuruing all flattery, knew nothing but the PEOPLE, the WHOLE PEOPLE, and their respective rights, regardless of their fortunes, whether rich or poor; thus rendering his NAME and RESOWS as durable as the EVER-RASTING BILLS.

The arrangement of the volume will be ns foilows: -1st. Portrait of Andrew Jackson

To whom the volume will be inscribed, with an address by the Publisher.

2d. Portrait of M. Van Buren. To be followed by his Biography, entarged, including several valuable documents. illustrative of his public character, and exhibiting the magical powers of his gigantic mind, which has ever been devoted to sustain the rights of his country, and the glory and prosperity of his fellow citizens.

3d. Portrait of R. M. Johnson. To be followed by his Biography, enlars ged, including various Speeches, SCNDAY MAIL REPORTS, and other documents; illustrative of his long continued public life, which has ever been devoted to the good of his country; including an authentic account of the fall of the renowned Indian warrior, TECUMSEH, on the ever memorable 5th of October, 1813-with an engra-ved view of the battle field.

The work will be complete in one volume, of about 400 pages. The price to be fixed at the moderate sum of One Dollar," neatly bound with cloth backs; or calf and gilt, with the additional expense of bind-The work, which is now in a state of reparation, shall be such as to give entire tion; as it is in the bends of gentlehave for nearly forty years, been personally and intimately acquainted with the private and public life of the above nausushed citizens.

colebrated address of the Hon-The mas to Benton, of Missouri, bearing tester ony to the high character of Martin n Buren; and the eloquent speech of the Hon. James Barbour, of Virginia, in the U S. Senate, portraying the chivalry of Col. Johnson on the field and in the councils of the nation, will be appended to the work.

As there is among our republican citizens, an extensive population of German origin, the work will appear simultaneous ly in both the English and the German languages. It will, therefore, be necessary for subscribers who wish to have the work in the German, to signify the same on the subscription book.

It will, in order to give prompt and ex-tensive circulation to the work, be indispensable for all subscribers to pay at the time of subscribing—all money to be at a proper time forwarded with the lists of signatures to the publishing committee— which will be doly made known by a notice in the Washington Globe.

Democratic editors disposed to encourage the work, will confer a favor, will be gratefully acknowledged by the Subscriber, in giving publicity to the above and receiving subscriptions at their respective offices, to whom a reasonable catago will be allowed.

The Prople's obedient servant.

> PROSPECTUS OF THE

Congressional Globe.

THE success of the experiment we have made to furnish a succinct history of the proceedings of Congress, from day to day, with sketches of the Debates, induces the undersigned to persevere in their plan to extend and perfect it. They have resol ved that the Congressional Globe shall not only embody the parliamentary annals of the country, but shall also furnish an Appendix, which will contain the finished speeches of the prominent speakers, on the most important subjects, written out by the members themselves, from the notes and printed sketches of the Reporters.

The Congressional Globe, with an Index, will be published weekly upon double royal paper, in octavo form as heretofore, at one lollar for the session. It may be subscribed for separately. The Appendix of finished speeches will, also, be published

It is probable that the next session of Congress will continue nearly seven months -if so, the work will contain between four and five hundred pages, and will be the Cheapest publication perhaps in the world.

The next session of Congress will probably be the most eventful one which has occurred for many years, and will certainly be replete with interest, as its course will great influence in fixing the destiny of the Republic for years to come. Immediately preceding, as it does, the next Presidential election, and containing the leading minds of all the contending parties in the country, deep and abiding interest will attend the debates. The whole drama will be faithfully exhibited in the Congressional Globe and Appendix.

We have already provided for our reporting corps, eminent skill and ability in one branch of Congress, and we expect to obtain an ad-quate reinforcement of capable persons in the other, by the time it meets, to fulfil our own wishes and the expectations of the Members. No pains or cost on our part will be spared to accomplish it. As the work will be contiauthentic, and therefore highly useful, all who take an interest in the political affairs of the country will do well to begin their subscription with the next session.

TERMS. Congressional Globe-1 copy during the session, $1 00 do. 11 copies during the session, $10 00 Appendix. - Same price. The Congressional Globe will be sent to those papers that copy this Prospectus, if our attention shall be directed to it by a mark with a pen. Our Exchange List is so large that we would not observe it, probably, unless this be done. Payment may be made by mail, fostage faid, at our risk. The notes of any specie-paying Bank will be re-

17-No attention will be paid to any order, unless the money accompany it, or unless some responsible person, known to us to be so, shall agree to pay it before the session expires.

COMPREHENSIVE Commentary on the Lible.

THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly inter-esting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office where subscriptions will be received The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechan ical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Doddridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others: the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries. On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be-a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprize, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no pubtisher would fell warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and, however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public, and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warne, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following check, plaid, and flowered do. remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Woolen do. --plain and figured do. Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Podobaptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the maturest views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Bap-tist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can he scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of conti-nance of public patronage. which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for troth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accu-tomed to meet in reading the arthors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Terms.-The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than S(a) pages per volume, royal 8 vo. handsomely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered, with double titles, at 3 dellers per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces, viguette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts, &c. Copies bound in extra gift spring backs, $4,50; plain calf, $3,75.
