Haywood Academy, CHATHAM COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA. THE HAYWOOD ACADEMY will be opened for the reception of Pupils, on Monday, the 25th of January, 1836, under the superintendence of Mr. ZACHARIAH DAVIS. Mr. Davis is highly qualified as a Teacher, and is well known in this State, having taught School several years in conjunction with Mr. Bingham, of Orange. The scholastic year will be divided into two sessions of five months each. Instruction will be given in all the branches usually taught in Academies, preparatory to entering College. Tuition, per session, from $6 50 to $15. Board can be had in the most respectable families at from $6 to $8 per month, including washing and candles. No village in the State can present a more happy location for a School than Haywood. The society is refined and agreeable, the climate healthy, the water pure, and the soil high, dry and clean. By order of the Board of Trustees. S. McCLENNAN, Sec'y. Haywood, Jan. 13, 1836.

Notice. HAVING resolved to remove to the west, I will sell a bargain in my Houses and Lots, In the town of Warrenton, NORTH CAROLINA.

One other Lot. Well enclosed and highly improved, containing a beautiful office, with two well finished rooms and a well of most excellent water, the Lot beautifully shaded with large oaks and set with blue grass and clover.

One other Lot, Adjoining the public square, on which is a good dwelling house, containing four rooms with all out houses—a beautiful falling garden—some excellent fruit, and in a good state of cultivation. This is a desirable residence for a merchant or mechanic, being in the center of business.

Also, 75 Acres Of wood land, one mile from town, containing wood sufficient for family use—which would be a handsome appendage to the town property. For a summer residence, Warrenton is not surpassed by any village in the State—the society very good. In the absence of the Subscriber, Mr. Michael Ratican will show the property and state the price. N. B. I will give a bargain, and take Cash, Negroes, or good Bonds. THOMAS BRAGG. Jan. 9, 1836.

New Goods! New Goods!! October, 1835 FRESH FALL AND WINTER DRY GOODS. S. Pender & Son. HAVING just returned from the North, and respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they are now receiving and opening at the Storehouse one door below S. Pender's Hotel in Tarborough, their Fall Goods, Direct from New York.

The pressure of business at this moment will not allow us to say more, therefore we leave it to the inspection of those who will favor us with a call, as we do not charge for looking, and as we feel no hesitation in pronouncing that we will give satisfaction if selling Goods low will do it—which we are determined to sell as low as the lowest, if not a little lower, being anxious to sell out our present Stock to make room for a Spring supply. We assure the public that we consider ourselves permanently located in Tarborough.

We will give the highest market prices in Cash or Barter, for all kinds of produce that a farmer has to dispose of, poultry not excepted. Solomon Pender. Jos. Jno. B. Pender. Oct. 29, 1835.

Peach Brandy. I WISH to purchase 10 barrels best Peach BRANDY, for which the highest price will be paid for cash. J. W. COTTEN. Tarboro, Nov. 23d, 1835.

Look Out. THAT I may pay my own debts, and also lay in a new Stock of Goods early the ensuing spring, I offer this as my last notice to all those indebted to me—and all such as will not avail themselves of it directly, may expect to be visited by one of those plagues incident to this country, known as a Sheriff or Constable, whose labors are generally rewarded with cost collected out of the defendant. As such, I hope a true regard for their own interest, together with a sense of justice and a spirit of accommodation, will actuate one and all to make immediate settlement, without paying an officer for tugging at the elbows of their coats, merely to remind them of doing that which honor and propriety should naturally induce them to do. All persons having claims against me will please present them for settlement. N. H. ROUNTREE. Tarboro, 7th Jan'y, 1836.

Miss Frances Campbell, RETURNS her most grateful acknowledgments to her friends and numerous customers for the very liberal patronage hitherto received from them, and begs leave to inform them she has just received from one of the most fashionable Millinery establishments in the city of New York, her Winter Supply of Articles, in her line, consisting in part of the following, viz:— Latest style of pattern Silk bonnets, " Florence, Swiss and Tuscan straw do. " Pattern Silk Dresses, Silks & Satins, " Plain and figured Mostras, " Fashionable bonnet and cap Ribbons, " White, blue, black & gray Feathers, " Plain and feather'd Flowers, " Ladies worked Caps, " Ladies and gentlemen's silk Gloves, " " silk and cotton Hosiery, " " Black worsted do. " Ladies black and white Veils, " " Silk and cotton Velvets, " Plush Capes, excellent article for winter, " Thread and bobbinet Laces, " Blond Edgings and Flutings, &c. She also expects to receive in a few days India rubber Aprons, mobair Caps, worked lace Caps, French worked Capes and Collars, fancy Handkerchiefs and Shawls—and has made such arrangements that she will continue to receive regularly every two or three months, additional supplies of any and every article in her line; so that her assortment will generally be found good and complete. She also continues to make and trim dresses and cloaks in the most neat and fashionable manner, as well as all other articles entrusted to her—and hopes by unremitted attention to her business, with a constant desire to please, that she will receive a liberal share of the public patronage. All orders from a distance will be thankfully received, and executed with the utmost dispatch and punctuality. Tarborough, 12th Dec'r, 1835.

Notice: New Firm. MR. JAMES J. GARRETT having withdrawn himself from the Copartnership heretofore existing under the firm of Knight, Garrett & Co. The same is therefore dissolved by mutual consent. The business will hereafter be conducted under the firm of D. Knight & Co. At the old Stand. We take the liberty to remark to our friends and the public generally, that we are thankful for their past favors, hoping that their future ones if not increased will not be diminished, as we shall endeavor to give general satisfaction to all who may favor us with their custom. We are now receiving our Fall & Winter Supply of GOODS, Which we are determined to sell as low as the lowest, being anxious to sell out our present Stock in order to make room for a more general assortment in future. We assure the public that we consider ourselves permanently located in Tarboro' for life, unless sunk by an earthquake or blown up by bankruptcy, and we are happy to say that we have as little apprehensions of the latter as of the former of these horrible catastrophes, provided we are so fortunate as to continue to share the "honors and fishes" of public patronage with our neighbors, which we shall endeavor to merit with all our might. D. KNIGHT & CO. Oct. 15th, 1835.

Just Published, And for sale at this Office, a pamphlet entitled, No other than Baptist Churches Have a right to be called CHRISTIAN CHURCHES. By JOSHUA LAWRENCE. Price 10 cents single, or $1 per dozen. January, 1836.

Mrs. A. C. Howard, now opening her Fall supply of Goods, comprising a more extensive and Fashionable Assortment of Millinery Than she has ever before exhibited in this place. Having selected and purchased the articles herself, and had an excellent opportunity of becoming acquainted with the latest Northern fashions in the Millinery and Mantua making line, she feels herself competent to give entire satisfaction to her numerous customers, and the public in general. In her assortment will be found—Pattern Velvet, satin & silk Bonnets, do. Turbans, Caps, Capes, &c. Plain, watered, figured, and plaid Silks and Satins, for dresses, Silk Velvets, Gauze Veils, &c. Mrs. H. invites a general inspection of her Goods, as she is confident they cannot fail to meet general approbation, both as regards quality and price. Tarboro' Oct. 22, 1835.

East Notice. THE Subscriber requests all persons indebted to him, by Note or account, to call and settle the same forthwith, or they will probably find them in the hands of another person, who may not be quite so accommodating as I have been. R. A. BELL. Tarboro, Sept. 24, 1835.

New Millinery. Miss Mitchell, BEGS leave to inform her Customers and the public generally, that she has just returned from New York with An extensive Assortment Of almost every article in her line of business. She deems it unnecessary to enumerate the various articles comprising her Stock, but flatters herself that on examination it will be found extensive and complete, having spared no pains in its selection. Miss M. returns her thanks to the public generally for the liberal patronage hitherto bestowed, and hopes by unremitted attention to continue to give satisfaction to all those who may favor her with a call. She would further add, that having purchased her Goods under advantageous circumstances, she is enabled to dispose of them at unusually low prices, and it is her determination to UNDERSELL all those who may come in competition. Halifax, Oct. 12, 1835.

Notice. THE Subscribers will in a few days be in receipt of their Fall purchases in New York and in Petersburg, of a general Assortment of Groceries, And the important articles to the Planter at this season of the year. We also intend to keep three wagons employed in the transportation of Cotton from this to Halifax, and will at all times give the highest prices for baled Cotton delivered in this place. D. RICHARDS & CO. Tarboro, Oct. 14, 1835.

Notice. WILL STAND the present season the most of his time at home. The season will commence the 1st of March and remain at home until the 10th of March—on the 11th, he will be at J. C. Knight's store—on the 12th, he will be at Wm. J. Armstrong's store, near Upper Town Creek meeting house—then home and there stay eight days, and then round as before, which will make it every tenth day; so on till the 1st of July, at which time the season will end. He will be let to mares at his former low prices, Three Dollars the leap, Five Dollars the season, and Nine Dollars to insure a mare to be in foal—with 25 cents to the Groom in every instance. The season and leap money will be due from the end of the season with interest; the insurance from the 1st of January. Mares put if not mentioned otherwise at the time they are first put, will be charged by the season, and when charged no alteration will be made. Any person putting a mare and neglects to attend the stand, will be held bound for the insurance money. Great care will be taken to prevent accidents, but no liability for any. A transfer of property forfeits the insurance money. Young Jack's colts are a sufficient recommendation. D. G. BAKER. Oct. 16, 1836. N. B. All persons that put mares in the season of 1834, will do well to call and settle their accounts shortly. D. G. B.
