

OF KENTUCKY.

T has fallen to the humble lot of the un dersigned to have presented to the American People, a third edition of the Biographies of the two above named highly distinguished patriotic citizens, whose constant devotion to the best interests of our Government has led to their designation, as a testimony of the estimation in which their services are regarded by the PEOPLE whom they have served, as candidates for the two first offices within the gift of a FREE, HAPPY, and FLOURISHING NATION. This token of respect gives to the world additional PROOF that faithful service shall not go unrewarded.

The object of this appeal to the republican portion of our fellow citizens, is to obtheir co operation in the circulation of an edition of 100,000 copies of the joint Biography of MARTIN VAN BUREN & RICHARD M. JOHNSON, enlarged, revised and corrected, so as to be valuable to every lover of his country, and alike hon-orable to the distinguished citizens whom WE, THE PEOPLE, intend still further to nor, by their elevation to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, in the election of 1836. Thus we sh Il perpetuate the principles of Jefferson. which have been so signally revived, no bly acted upon, and TRIUMPHANTLY CAr-ried out by ANDREW JACKSON, who, spur-ning all flattery, knew nothing but the PROPLE, the WHOLE PEOPLE, and their repective rights, regardless of their fortunes, heiner rich or poor; thus rendering his BAME and RENOWS as durable as the EVER-LASTING HILLS."

The arrangement of the volume will be ans tollows:

1st. Portrait of Andrew Jackson. To whom the volume will be inscribed with an address by the Publisher.

-2d. Portrail of M. Van Buren. To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including several valuable documents, illustrative of his public character, and exhibiting the magical powers of his gigantic mind, which has ever been devoted to sustain the rights of his country, and the glory and prosperity of his fellow citizens.

3d. Portrait of R. M. Johnson.

To be followed by his Biography, enlars including various Speeches, SUNDAY red, including various operations illus-Mait, REPORTS, and other documents; illustrative of his long continued public life. which has ever been devoted to the good his country; including an authentic acount of the fall of the renowned Indian warrior, TECCMSEH, on the ever memorable 5th of October, 1813-with an engra-ved view of the battle field.

The work will be complete in one volune, of about 400 pages. The price to he fixed at the moderate sum of One Dollar." neatly bound with cloth backs; or calf and gilt, with the additional expense of bind-The work, which is now in a state of preparation, shall be such as to give entire satisfaction; as it is in the, hands of gentlemen who have for nearly forty years, been personally and intimately acquainted with

PROSPECTUS OF THE

Congressional Globe. RHE success of the experiment we have made to fornish a succinct history of the proceedings of Congress, from day to day, with sketches of the Debates, induces the undersigned to persevere in their plan to extend and perfect it. They have resolved that the Congressional Globe shall not only embody the parliamentary annals of the country, but shall also furnish an Ap-pendix, which will contain the finished speeches of the prominent speakers, on the most important subjects, written out by the members themselves, from the notes and printed sketches of the Reporters.

The Congressional Globe, with an Index,

COMPREHENSIVE Commentary on the Bible.

THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office, where subscriptions will be received. The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Dod-dridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries. On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be-a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and wor-thy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprize, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no publisher would fell warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and, however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesital tion is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public, and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warne, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: ... I that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Pædobapti-ts generally, which did not cor-respond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the maturest views of ALSO, in addition to the above, a handtheir own best writers substituted. It is nected with what is peculiar to the Bap-tist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Terms .- The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8 vo handsomely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double ons fevers, colic, &c. &c tides, at 3 dollars per volume. There on hand and for sale by will be several engravings, frontispieces, rignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts, ac Copies bound in extra gilt spring backs, $4,50; plain calf, $3,75.

will be published weekly upon double royal paper, in octavo form as heretofore, at one dollar for the session. It may be subscribed for separately. The Appendix of finished speeches will, also, be published for one dollar.

It is probable that the next session of Congress will continue nearly seven months -if so, the work will contain between four and five hundred pages, and will be the cheapest publication perhaps in the world.

The next session of Congress will probably be the most eventful one which has occurred for many years, and will certainly be replete with interest, as its course will have great influence in fixing the destiny of the Republic for years to come. Imme diately preceding, as it does, the next Presidential election, and containing the leading minds of all the contending parties in the country, deep and abiding interest will attend the debates. The whole drama will be faithfully exhibited in the Congressional Globe and Appendix.

We have already provided for our reporting corps, eminent skill and ability in one branch of Congress, and we expect to obtain an adequate reinforcement of capable persons in the other, by the time it meets, to fulfil our own wishes and the expectations of the Members. No pains or cost on our part will be spared to accomplish it. Some of the children of God, surrounded with, and interspersed amongst, the advicates of Missionary and other societies, are denied the happiness of conversing with those of the same judgment. Others, while grieved with beholding corruptions of the Gospel, are not able to speak for themselves. This is designed, under God, for their relief. We shall aim not so much to -more to afford matter for solid and lasting comfort, than to give a momentary glow to the feelings. We consider that belief that the blessing even of truth itself is of the Head of the Church, we cast outselves upon Him, and send our little paper abroal, praying the Lord to carry with it some joy to those who are in tribu'a int, and a little rest to those who are troubled.
