PUFFING ASIDE.

CONSCIOUS as we are that Puffing has become a sickening theme to an intelligent people, and believing as we do in the better judgment, which tells them that "all that glitters is not gold"—we therefore through courtesy to our friends and the public generally, shall henceforth and forever avoid exaggeration, swelling words into mountains, or operating under false pretences, with a view of deceiving those who have long since learnt how not to be deceived, by taking this thing and that for granted which has little foundation in fact as the "baseless fabric of a vision." We deem such a course a flagrant outrage upon their good sense, and as such, we shall confine this notice to a simple statement of facts, that is to say: We have just received our supply of

Young Jack,

Will stand the present season the most of his time at home. The season will commence the 1st of March and remain at home until the 10th of March—on the 11th he will be at J. C. Knight's store—on the 12th, he will be at Wm. J.
Armstrong's store, near Upper Town Creek meeting house—then home and there stay eight days, and then round as before, which will make it every tenth day; so on until the 1st of July, at which time the season will end. He will be let to mares at his former low prices, Three Dollars for his former low prices, and Nine Dollars to insure a mare to be in foal—with 25 cents to the Groom in every instance.
The season and leap money will be due from the end of the season with interest; the insurance from the 1st of January, Mares put if not mentioned otherwise at the time they are first put, will be charged by the season, and when charged no alteration will be made. Any person putting a mare and neglects to attend the stand, will be held bound for the insurance money.
Great care will be taken to prevent accidents, but no liability for any. A transfer of property forfeits the insurance money.
Young Jack's colts are a sufficient recommendation.

NEW FIRM.

The Subscribers,

HAVING entered into Co partnership beg leave to announce to the Public, that they are now receiving and opening At the late Stand of H. King,
IN THIS PLACE,
And at that of Turner Rutland,
IN SCOTLAND NECK,
Halifax County,

One of the most Extensive, SPLENDID AND VALUABLE STOCK OF Spring Goods,

That ever was offered to the inhabitants of this section of the State. As much as they despise empty profession, they would be doing injustice to themselves, did they not declare to the world, that, if they know their own intentions, they are determined to be no instance whatever, shall any customer, be he who he may, rich or poor, high or low, ever cross the thresholds of their establishments, without having the full assurance that whatever he may want in the way of merchandise, from the most inconsiderable article up to the most important, can be there procured on living terms—living, did we say! indeed, we can safely promise, (although we know such a promise will not be required at our hands) that we should be willing, if necessary, to deprive ourselves of the comforts of life if we could thereby add to those of others.
If any one, who may give a hasty glance at this Manifesto, should be disposed to doubt the truth of any thing herein contained, we beg him to suspend his judgment until he shall have given us a call. For to however much trouble his examination of our Goods may put us, if he should go away without buying, we shall not indulge for a moment one unkind feeling towards him, as we shall know to what cause to ascribe his conduct—to his not wanting any thing and not to our inability to suit him. Besides, we shall have the consoling reflection, that such examination could not fail to point him, with the unerring precision of the magnetic needle, to the places where he would be able to procure, with the least inconvenience to his pocket, any thing and every thing he might thereafter want in our line of business.

Notice. NEW GOODS.

THE Subscriber after returning her most cordial thanks for the very liberal encouragement she has hitherto received at the hands of her patrons, begs leave to announce through the medium of the Press, that she has just returned from New York, and is hourly expecting the arrival of her purchases. With due deference to the public, truth and justice to herself and Goods compels her to say that,
A MORE NEAT AND Valuable Assortment,

Was never offered in this section, and that they surpass any of her former purchases as much as the effulgence of the sun does the pallid light of the moon—and she would simply suggest to those persons who are desirous of procuring articles in her line of business, of the most fashionable style and at the cheapest rates, to favor her with a call ere they purchase elsewhere, or they may sincerely regret their non-compliance with this intimation. She thinks it highly probable that among her assortment may be found articles vastly superior both in style and texture to any in this place. Believing they will be in great demand, and relying in the truth of the old saying that, they who live for others live the more for themselves, she assures her friends that her prices for those Goods will not be more exorbitant on that account, than if every store in town was filled to overflowing with similar ones.
The following list of articles comprise her Stock:—
Oriental gros Bonnets, Florence do.
Oriental cut do. fancy Tuscan gros do.
Folio do. French gimp do. plain straw do.

punctually attended to, and she hopes from her paying strict attention to business, to merit and receive a share of the public patronage.
