

Martin Van Buren,
OF NEW YORK.
Richard M Johnson,
OF KENTUCKY.

It has fallen to the humble lot of the undersigned to have presented to the American People, a third edition of the Biographies of the two above named highly distinguished patriotic citizens, whose constant devotion to the best interests of our Government has led to their designation, as a testimony of the estimation in which their services are regarded by the PEOPLE whom they have served, as candidates for the two first offices within the gift of a FREE, HAPPY and FLOURISHING NATION.

The object of our fellow citizens, is to obtain their co-operation in the circulation of an edition of 100,000 copies of the joint Biography of MARTIN VAN BUREN & RICHARD M. JOHNSON, enlarged, revised and corrected, so as to be valuable to every lover of his country, and alike honorable to the distinguished citizens whom we THE PEOPLE, intend still further to honor, by their elevation to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, in the election of 1836. Thus we shall perpetuate the principles of Jefferson, which have been so signally revived, nobly acted upon, and triumphantly carried out by ANDREW JACKSON, who, spurning all flattery, knew nothing but the PEOPLE, the WHOLE PEOPLE, and their respective rights, regardless of their fortunes, whether rich or poor; thus rendering his NAME and REPUTATION as durable as the EVERLASTING HILLS.

The arrangement of the volume will be as follows:—
1st. Portrait of Andrew Jackson.
To whom the volume will be inscribed, with an address by the Publisher.
2d. Portrait of M. Van Buren.
To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including several valuable documents, illustrative of his public character, and exhibiting the magical powers of his gigantic mind, which has ever been devoted to sustain the rights of his country, and the glory and prosperity of his fellow citizens.

3d. Portrait of R. M. Johnson.
To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including various Speeches, SUNDAY MAIL REPORTS, and other documents; illustrative of his long continued public life, which has ever been devoted to the good of his country; including an authentic account of the fall of the renowned Indian warrior, TECUMSEH, on the ever memorable 5th of October, 1813—with an engraved view of the battle field.

The work will be complete in one volume of about 400 pages. The price to be fixed at the moderate sum of One Dollar, neatly bound with cloth backs; or calf and gilt, with the additional expense of binding. The work, which is now in a state of preparation, shall be such as to give entire satisfaction; as it is in the hands of gentlemen who have for nearly forty years, been personally and intimately acquainted with the private and public life of the above named distinguished citizens.

The celebrated address of the Hon. Thomas H. Benton, of Missouri, bearing testimony to the high character of Martin Van Buren; and the eloquent speech of the Hon. James Barbour, of Virginia, in the U. S. Senate, portraying the civility of Col. Johnson on the field, and in the councils of the nation, will be appended to the work.
As there is among our republican citizens, an extensive population of German origin, the work will appear simultaneously in both the English and the German languages. It will, therefore, be necessary for subscribers who wish to have the work in the German, to signify the same on the subscription book.

It will, in order to give prompt and extensive circulation to the work, be indispensable for all subscribers to pay at the time of subscribing—all money to be at a proper time forwarded with the lists of signatures to the publishing committee—which will be duly made known by a notice in the Washington Globe.
Democratic editors disposed to encourage the work, will confer a favor, which will be gratefully acknowledged by the Subscriber, in giving publicity to the above and receiving subscriptions at their respective offices, to whom a reasonable per centage will be allowed.
The People's obedient servant,
WM. EMMONS.

Notice.
O YES! O yes! you are requested to call, and examine the Groceries I've purchased this Fall; My assortment, I assure you, is entirely complete. My Store likewise is nearly replete with all those good things which will hunger destroy. And make an epicure leap for joy. Then fear nothing, friends, and be of good cheer. Scotch herrings and crackers are "call'd severe." I have apples, oranges, butter and cheese. Such things I am sure will your hunger appease. My drinkables too you may be sure, are unadulterated "real Simon Pure." Then call on me all ye that are thirsty, for here you can allay it with none of the worst. I have several baskets of the best champagne. Who can from drinking such liquor refrain? Besides I've brandy, rum, whiskey and gin, And bottles and jugs to put the "truck" in. Tobacco I have too, I think half a ton, Manufactur'd in Richmond, call'd Brown's No. 1; Best Spanish cigars, Lorillard's Scotch snuff, And packs of those papers with which you play bluff. My Candies rely on it are of the best kind, That I could in the metropolis find; For instance, my peppermint, rock and lemon, Are sweet enough to make a saint of a demon; Also jubbe paste—this I am told, Is an excellent remedy in case of a cold. All of these things, and a great many more, May be bought at my Confectionary Store.

Muckle John,
WILL STAND this spring and season at Wm G Bulluck's—at Col. David Daniel's, Rocky Mount—and at Nashville, Nash county. He will stand at the following very low prices, to wit: SIX DOLLARS the single leap, TWELVE DOLLARS the season, and TWENTY DOLLARS to insure a mare to be in foal—with 25 cents to the Groom in every instance. The insurance money to be paid as soon as the mare is ascertained to be in foal. A transfer of property forfeits the insurance. A fair and liberal deduction will be made, if any responsible person will make up a club of five mares. The season is now commenced, and will terminate by 1st July next.

Muckle John,
Was got by old Harrod, he by old Sir Archie. Harrod's dam by old Diomed, his grandam by old Bellair, his g. grandam by the imported Sir Harry. MUCKLE JOHN's dam by old Collector, his grandam by the old imported Citizen, his g. grandam by the imported Union, his g. g. grandam by the imported Buckskin. It is unnecessary to trace him further, as the above is sufficient to give him a pedigree not surpassed by any horse in the country. His pedigree has heretofore been incorrectly though inadvertently represented in his former advertisements.

COMPREHENSIVE Commentary on the Bible.
THE subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office, where subscriptions will be received. The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Doddridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warner, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Pædobaptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the maturest views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors, arising out of their different views of a christian ordinance.

Terms.—The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8vo handsomely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces, vignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts, &c. Copies bound in extra gilt spring backs, $4.50; plain calf, $3.75.

Conetoe Jack,
WILL STAND the ensuing season at my Stable in Pitt county, one mile from Greenville—and will be let to insure at Three Dollars the single leap, Five Dollars the season, and Eight Dollars to insure a mare to be in foal—with 25 cents to the Groom in every instance. A transfer of property forfeits the insurance. The season will commence the 1st day of March next, and will end the 1st of July. All possible care will be taken, but no liability for accidents.
Conetoe Jack is six years old this spring—of large size and good form, and has proved himself to be a sure foal getter.
Muck M. Staton.
Feb. 24th, 1836. 8

LEANDER,
WILL STAND the ensuing season at Robert Belcher's Store, two miles west of Sparta—at Gray Williams's, and at home. He will be let to mares at Three Dollars the leap, and Seven Dollars to insure a mare to be in foal—with 25 cents to the Groom in every instance. I insert the time so that there will be no mistake in finding him, if people will take notice of the days of the month. He will remain at home until the 25th of March—the 25th and 26th he will be at Belcher's—the 27th and 28th at Williams's—then home to remain until the 10th of April—the 10th, 11th, 25th and 26th of each month at Belcher's—the 12th, 13th, 27th and 28th at Williams's, until the 1st of July, which will end the season. Any person can first put by the leap, and then go on by the insurance, mares failing to take the second time during the season. The leap money will be due the 1st of July, whether in foal or not. The insurance money will be due the 1st of January, or as soon as the property is transferred before the fact is ascertained. Any person putting by the insurance and fail to attend his stand, forfeits the insurance money. All care will be taken to prevent accidents, but not liable for any that may happen.
LEANDER is now 8 years old, in good order. He is not inferior to any Jack in the county as a foal getter—this is well known as far as he is known to be a fact, which should be sufficient to bring custom from a distance at the price.

Cotton Gins.
THE Subscriber, who for several years past has been engaged in
The Gin Making business,
In Kinston, has established himself
IN GREENVILLE,
Where he carries on the above business in all its various branches. All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited to apply to the Subscriber personally or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. From the Subscriber's long experience in his business, and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction to all who may see fit to extend to him their patronage. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired.

The Subscriber takes the liberty of calling the attention of those who wish to procure new Gins, or to have old Gins repaired, to the expediency of applying to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.
ALLEN TISON,
In connexion with this establishment, carries on the Lock & Gunsmith business.
He also makes Saw Mill Boxes, and Mill Ticks, and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh—Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, (turned.) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.
All letters and orders must be directed to the Subscriber at Greenville.

$50 Reward.
RANAWAY from the Subscriber, on the night of 20th September last, my negro man named
DANIEL,
20 or 21 years of age, 6 feet high, black complexion, has a pleasing countenance, inclined to be knock-kneed, his feet somewhat turned out, particularly his left foot, his clothing not recollected. He was formerly the property of Asahel Farmer, his mother, brothers and sisters belonging to said Farmer—his father is in the same neighborhood working about as a blacksmith, nearly as a free man. It is believed he is lurking about in the neighborhood of said Farmer, also in Nash county. The above reward will be paid to any person that will apprehend said negro, and deliver him to me or secure him in any jail so that I get him again. I forewarn any person from harboring said negro, or carrying him off, under the strict penalty of the law. Any information respecting him will be thankfully received by the Subscriber, at Oak Grove, Edgecombe county.

PROPOSALS,
For publishing in the town of Tarborough, N. C. a semi-monthly paper, entitled
The Primitive Baptist,
EDITED BY MARK BENNETT,
Printed and Published by Geo. Howard.
THIS publication is principally intended to defend the orthodox United Baptist faith from the many aspersions cast upon them by deluded persons professing their own faith, because they cannot conscientiously engage in the various money-making schemes of the day, ostensibly intended to promote Christianity, but evidently tending to destroy the great and fundamental principles upon which it is based, by making a gain of goldliness. We wish to have it distinctly understood, that we are not inimical to Masonry, Temperance, the distribution of the Bible, or the spread of the Gospel—but we do condemn the mingling of professors and non-professors of religion in societies, and the making a "crucial" of religious matters, in every shape and form whatsoever.
Believing that Theological Schools, Bible, Missionary, Tract, and Sunday School Union Societies, are the same in principle—unsuspicious—savor more of "independence" than of "good will towards men," we are opposed to them.
Some of the children of God, surrounded with, and interspersed amongst, the advocates of Missionary and other societies, are denied the happiness of conversing with those of the same judgment. Others, while grieved with beholding corruptions of the Gospel, are not able to speak for themselves. This is designed, under God, for their relief. We shall aim so to move, to please the fancy, as to inform the judgment—more to afford matter for solid and lasting comfort, than to give a momentary glow to the feelings. We consider that the cause of truth and of Christian souls, is our cause. Deeply impressed with the belief that the blessing even of truth itself is of the Head of the Church, we cast ourselves upon Him, and send our little paper abroad, praying the Lord to carry with it some joy to those who are in tribulation, and a little rest to those who are troubled.
TERMS.
The Primitive Baptist is published in super-royal octavo form of 16 pages, on the second and fourth Saturdays in every month—at One Dollar per year, payable on receipt of the first number. Six copies will be sent to one Post Office or neighborhood for Five Dollars.
Communication must be paid paid and directed to the Publisher.
