

Martin Van Buren,
OF NEW YORK.
Richard M. Johnson, OF KENTUCKY.

It has fallen to the humble lot of the undersigned to have presented to the American People, a third edition of the Biographies of the two above named highly distinguished patriotic citizens, whose constant devotion to the best interests of our Government has led to their designation, as a testimony of the estimation in which their services are regarded by the PEOPLE whom they have served, as candidates for the two first offices within the gift of a FREE, HAPPY, and FLOURISHING NATION. This token of respect gives to the world additional proof that faithful service shall not go unrewarded.

The object of this appeal to the republican portion of our fellow citizens, is to obtain their co-operation in the circulation of an edition of 100,000 copies of the joint Biography of MARTIN VAN BUREN & RICHARD M. JOHNSON, enlarged, revised and corrected, so as to be valuable to every lover of his country, and alike honorable to the distinguished citizens whom WE THE PEOPLE, intend still further to honor, by their elevation to the offices of President and Vice President of the United States, in the election of 1836. Thus we shall perpetuate the principles of Jefferson, which have been so signally revived, nobly acted upon, and triumphantly carried out by ANDREW JACKSON, who, surmounting all flattery, knew nothing but the PEOPLE, the WHOLE PEOPLE, and their respective rights, regardless of their fortunes, whether rich or poor; thus rendering his NAME AND REPUTATION as durable as the EVERLASTING HILLS.

The arrangement of the volume will be as follows:—

1st. Portrait of Andrew Jackson.

To whom the volume will be inscribed, with an address by the Publisher.

2d. Portrait of M. Van Buren.

To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including several valuable documents, illustrative of his public character, and exhibiting the magical powers of his gigantic mind, which has ever been devoted to sustain the rights of his country, and the glory and prosperity of his fellow citizens.

3d. Portrait of R. M. Johnson.

To be followed by his Biography, enlarged, including various Speeches, SENATE AND HOUSE REPORTS, and other documents; illustrative of his long continued public life, which has ever been devoted to the good of his country; including an authentic account of the fall of the renowned Indian warrior, TECUMSEH, on the ever memorable 5th of October, 1813—with an engraved view of the battle field.

The work will be complete in one volume of about 400 pages. The price to be fixed at the moderate sum of One Dollar, neatly bound with cloth backs; or calf and gilt, with the additional expense of binding. The work, which is now in a state of preparation, shall be such as to give entire satisfaction; as it is in the hands of gentlemen who have for nearly forty years been personally and intimately acquainted with the private and public life of the above named distinguished citizens.

The celebrated address of the Hon. Thomas H. Benton, of Missouri, bearing testimony to the high character of Martin Van Buren; and the eloquent speech of the Hon. James Barbour, of Virginia, in the U. S. Senate, portraying the civility of Col. Johnson on the field, and in the councils of the nation, will be appended to the work.

As there is among our republican citizens, an extensive population of German origin, the work will appear simultaneously in both the English and the German languages. It will, therefore, be necessary for subscribers who wish to have the work in the German, to signify the same on the subscription book.

It will, in order to give prompt and extensive circulation to the work, be indispensable for all subscribers to pay at the time of subscribing—all money to be at a proper time forwarded with the lists of signatures to the publishing committee, which will be duly made known by a notice in the Washington Globe.

Democratic editors disposed to encourage the work, will confer a favor, which will be gratefully acknowledged by the Subscriber, in giving publicity to the above and receiving subscriptions at their respective offices, to whom a reasonable per centage will be allowed.

The People's obedient servant,
WM. EMMONS.

The above valuable medicines may be had wholesale or retail on application to J. W. COTTON, Agent for Tarborough, 1836.

Notice.

O YES! O yes! you are requested to call and examine the Groceries I've purchased this Fall;

My assortment, I assure you, is entirely complete.

My Store likewise is nearly replete with all those good things which will hunger destroy.

And make an epicure leap for joy. Then fear nothing, friends, and be of good cheer.

Scotch herrings and crackers are "call'd severe."

I have apples, oranges, butter and cheese, Such things I am sure will your hunger appease.

My drinkables too you may be sure, Are unadulterated "real Simon Pure." Then call on me all ye that are thirsty.

For here you can allay it with none of the worst.

I have several baskets of the best champagne.

Who can from drinking such liquor refrain? Besides I've brandy, rum, whiskey and gin, And bottles and jugs to put the "truck" in.

Tobacco I have too, I think half a ton, Manufactur'd in Richmond, call'd Brown's No. 1;

Best Spanish cigars, Lorillard's Scotch snuff, And packs of those papers with which you play bluff.

My Candies rely on it are of the best kind, That I could in the metropolis find; For instance, my peppermint, rock and lemon,

Are sweet enough to make a saint of a demon;

Also jubate paste—this I am told, Is an excellent remedy in case of a cold.

All of these things, and a great many more, May be bought at my Confectionary Store.

GREAT Northern & Southern Daily Mail Route.

THE Petersburg Rail Road Company inform the Public that their Road, extending from Petersburg, Va., to Blakely, North Carolina, on the Roanoke, a distance of 60 miles, and constituting a part of the GREAT DAILY MAIL ROUTE North and South, is now amply provided with superior Locomotives and Cars, to accommodate all the travel that may offer. The Cars leave each end of the Road daily, on the arrival of the respective Mails. Travellers with their own equipages, can have their horses and carriages transported on this Road, with perfect safety and convenience; and thus, perform in 5 or 6 hours—while resting their horses, a journey which would otherwise require two days to accomplish.

THE BLAKELY HOTEL

at the southern termination of the Rail Road, has been rebuilt of brick on an enlarged scale, and no pains will be spared to render its accommodations such as will give satisfaction to passengers and travellers generally. Besides the daily line of Mail Coaches from Blakely for the South, via Raleigh, Fayetteville, &c. there is a LINE VIA FARBOROUGH three times a week, connected with the Mail Line at Fayetteville, and also a Line from the Rail Road at BELFIELD TO CLARKSVILLE, MILTON AND DANVILLE.

Another tri-weekly Line from Blakely, passes through WARENTON, OXFORD, &c. and connects with a Line to SALISBURY, N. C.

In the course of the present season, a branch will be opened from the Petersburg Rail Road at Belfield, to Wilkins' Ferry at GASTON, ON THE ROANOKE, from whence a Rail Road to cross the river by a Bridge, is now about to be constructed to Raleigh.

The Rail Road from Baltimore to Washington is now in operation, thence to Potomac landing, the Line is continued by Steamboats; thence via FREDERICKSBURG TO RICHMOND, a considerable portion of the Rail Road is finished—and the remainder is in a rapid course to completion. The Line continues from Richmond to Petersburg, by a Parapet Road—and thence by the Petersburg Rail Road to Blakely, as before mentioned, is the main and only DAILY MAIL ROUTE BETWEEN BOSTON AND NEW ORLEANS.

Cotton Gins.

THE Subscriber, who for several years past has been engaged in

The Gin Making business,

In Kinston, has established himself IN GREENVILLE,

Where he carries on the above business in all its various branches. All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited to apply to the Subscriber personally or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. From the Subscriber's long experience in his business, and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction to all who may see fit to extend to him their patronage. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired.

The Subscriber takes the liberty of calling the attention of those who wish to procure new Gins, or to have old Gins repaired, to the expediency of applying to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.

ALLEN TISON,

In connexion with this establishment, carries on the

Lock & Gunsmith business

He also makes Saw Mill Boxes, and Mill Lugs, and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh—Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, (turned.) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.
