THE UNDERSIGNED,

Having received His Summer Supply of GROCERIES,

Adopts this means of apprising his "constituents" of this important and splendid accession to his old stock. It seems unnecessary to descant, and but for one article only, I would forbear. The one alluded to is CHAMPAIGNE—rare stuff, indeed quite exhilarating—a sovereign remedy for despondency; or, to he as brief as pos-sible, it has never entered the hearts of those who have not tried it, to conceive the excellencies of my Fox brand Champaigne." As much might be said in behalf of many other things among my stock, which consists of the following articles:-

A great variety of Candies, Muscatel and bunch Ra sins, Apples, Oranges and Lemons, English walnuts, Palm nuls, Butter and water Crackers, Sugar Crackers, Pine apple Cheese, Scotch Herrings, best lump Sugar, Principe and Spanish Segars. CHAMPAIGNE, very superior quality,

Champaigne brandy, French brandy, Hol'and Gm, Jamaica Kum Port wine, Irish whiskey, New England Rum, Spanish smoking Tobacco, Lemon Syrup, London Porter, Cider in bottles, Scotch Snuff, tallow Candles, sea bread, Confish, Poughkeepsie Ale, Brown's hest Soap, common Soap, Children's books, Jews harps, Loco foco Matches, Playing cards, Marbles, &c. &c. All which may be had for the consider - tion of twenty-five per cent. on their origi-Joseph B. Braddy. July 12th, 1836.
