FLAG MARSH
FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale his Plantation called FLAG MARSH, lying on the south side of the River, opposite to James S. Battle's Cool Spring Farm, and adjoining the lands of Redman Bunn, James M. Battle, Etheldred Gray, and others, containing

836 Acres,
More or less. This land is equal in point of fertility of soil to any tract of land on the river of the same size, and superior to many in being exempt from damage by freshets—being above high water mark. There are between 300 and 400 acres cleared—a good frame house for the Overseer, smoke house, lumber house, barns, stables, and negro huts. There is an inexhaustible bed of Marle in the bank of the river—more than sufficient to manure the whole plantation—the best manure ever yet discovered.
The present line of the Wilmington and Halifax Rail Road passes through the upper part of the farm, (woodland) but it is believed that when the road is located, it will cross the river a mile or two above. The rail road will doubtless enhance the value of the land twenty-five per cent. or more. Persons desirous of purchasing are requested to call and examine the premises, as such land as this is seldom offered for sale in this State—it will certainly not be long in market. 100 acres more of river land adjoining the above, belonging to another person, will be added if desired by the purchaser. Terms accommodating.

Jno. W. Lewis.

THE Subscriber after returning her most cordial thanks for the very liberal encouragement she has hitherto received at the hands of her patrons, begs leave to announce through the medium of the Press, that she has just returned from New York, and is hourly expecting the arrival of her purchases. With due deference to the public, truth and justice to herself and Goods compels her to say that,
A MORE NEAT AND Valuable Assortment, Was never offered in this section, and that they surpass any of her former purchases as much as the effulgence of the sun does the pallid light of the moon—and she would simply suggest to those persons who are desirous of procuring articles in her line of business, of the most fashionable style and at the cheapest rates, to favor her with a call ere they purchase elsewhere, or they may sincerely regret their inconsiderance with this intimation. She thinks it highly probable that among her assortment may be found articles vastly superior both in style and texture to any in this place. Believing they will be in great demand, and relying in the truth of the old saying that, they who live for others live the more for themselves, she assures her friends that her prices for those Goods will not be more exorbitant on that account, than if every store in town was filled to overflowing with similar ones. The following list of articles comprise her Stock:—
