WASHINGTON MONUMENT.

THE Board of Managers of the Washington National Monument Society invite DESIGNS for this structure, intended as a memorial of a NATION'S GRATITUDE.

It would be to fetter genius, to prescribe any limits to the exercise of its powers, which should, however, in this case, harmoniously blend durability, simplicity and grandeur.

The Board of Managers will not offend American genius so much as to offer, in this instance, a pecuniary reward. The artist, whose Design shall be adopted, will feel amply remunerated...

Miscellaneous.

From the Raleigh Standard.

We have annexed the following statement to the forcible Address of the Democratic Committee, and leave the people to judge for themselves...

Maine.—Entitled to 10 votes: This State is decidedly for Van Buren; Harrison is the opposition candidate.

New-Hampshire.—Entitled to 7 votes: Here also the strength of Van Buren is so overwhelming, that even his enemies "give it up"; there is no ticket for White.

Massachusetts.—Entitled to 14 votes: The opposition ticket in this State is for Webster, (who resides in Massachusetts); the plan is to enlist the State pride of the people of Massachusetts in favor of Mr. Webster...

Rhode-Island.—Entitled to 4 votes:—The Republican party in this State succeeded in electing their Ticket to Congress at the last election, and the election this year exhibits an increase of republican strength.

Connecticut.—Entitled to 8 votes: Mr. Jefferson predicted that the Democrats of Connecticut would one day triumph; and the last elections have verified this prediction.

Vermont.—Entitled to 7 votes: In this State the late elections show a reduced majority against the Republicans, and opposed to Van Buren.

New York.—Entitled to 42 votes: This is Van Buren's own State, her delegation in Congress and in the Legislature, her Governor, (elected by the people,) and her Lieut. Governor, &c. all Van Buren Republicans.

New Jersey.—Entitled to 8 votes: Van Buren and Harrison are the candidates. The people of New Jersey instructed Frelinghuysen and Southard, turned out the former, and elected through Republicans to Congress; and a friend writes from that State, "there is no doubt of New Jersey going for Van Buren."

Pennsylvania.—Entitled to 30 votes: Van Buren and Harrison are the candidates. The opposition pretend that Harrison is a favorite in Pennsylvania, they have been saying so for months, but it looks very unlike it...

Tennessee.—Entitled to 15 votes: Van Buren and White the candidates. Probably for Harrison it is so, and every intelligent observer of political events knows it. [The recent election for members of the Legislature resulted as follows: Van Buren 72, Harrison 28.

Delaware.—Entitled to 3 votes: Van Buren and Harrison are the candidates. At present the prospect is somewhat doubtful in little Delaware.

Maryland.—Entitled to 10 votes: Van Buren and Harrison are the candidates. In the late election of Electors to vote for a State Senate, the Van Buren candidates obtained an aggregate majority of 3000!

Virginia.—Entitled to 23 votes: In this State Van Buren is the republican candidate. At the spring elections, his ticket prevailed against the whole opposition combined.

Rhode-Island.—Entitled to 4 votes:—The Republican party in this State succeeded in electing their Ticket to Congress at the last election, and the election this year exhibits an increase of republican strength.

North Carolina.—Entitled to 15 votes: Every day brings the most cheering accounts that the Governor's election was not a test of Van Buren's strength.

South Carolina.—Entitled to 11 votes: The electors are appointed in this State by the Legislature, and not by the people; the nullifiers have control of the State and of course Van Buren stands no chance.

Georgia.—Entitled to 11 votes: Van Buren and White the candidates; the former is run by the Union party, the latter by the nullifiers. Van Buren's election is certain.

Kentucky.—Entitled to 15 votes: Van Buren and Harrison the candidates. Probably for Harrison

Ohio.—Entitled to 21 votes: Van Buren and Harrison the candidates. No State elections have taken place in Ohio this year; but it is undeniable that Gen. Harrison is not very popular in his own State.

Indiana.—Entitled to 9 votes: Van Buren and Harrison the candidates. The election for Legislature is just over; a majority of members elected in favor of Van Buren.

Mississippi.—Entitled to 4 votes: Van Buren is the Republican candidate. White was until lately, the sole candidate of the nullifiers.

Illinois.—Entitled to 5 votes: In this State, Van Buren is the republican candidate, White was the opposition candidate, until the close of their State elections for members of Congress, &c. in August, when the whole Van Buren ticket was carried by a tremendous majority.

Alabama.—Entitled to 7 votes: Van Buren and White the candidates: The election of members to the Legislature has resulted in the choice of a majority of Van Buren men, and the aggregate democratic vote of the State places Alabama firmly on the side of Van Buren and republicanism, against White and false panics.

Missouri.—Entitled to 4 votes: Van Buren and White the candidates: In this State the nullifiers have been routed, "horse, foot and dragoons."

Louisiana.—Entitled to 5 votes: Van Buren and White the Candidates. In this State, a majority of the Legislature (just elected) are for Van Buren; the State is claimed by both parties.

Arkansas.—Entitled to 3 votes: Van Buren and Harrison are the candidates. This new State is decidedly for Van Buren. For this cause alone, the opposition endeavored to prevent her admission into the Union last winter.

Lower Canada.—The Crisis.—We are in possession of the Quebec papers of the 3d inst. The House of Assembly, after an extended and exciting debate, had adopted an answer to the King's reply to the address of last session, which brings the difficulties between the popular and conservative branches of the Government to a crisis.—The address does not allow the Minister's assumption that their proceedings, in the last session, arose from misapprehension, but persists in all former demands, and in the resolution to withhold all supplies, and to cease the exercise of all legislative functions, until those demands are granted.

Russia and the Caucasus.—The people of Caucasus to the number of 60,000 are moving against the Russians. The population number 600,000 and 80,000 for an adverse force to a power so much detested can hardly be overrated.

Suicide.—A letter from the Clarmont (N. H.) Eagle, states that the Honorable William C. Jarvis, late speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, committed suicide at Wethersfield, Vt. while in a state of mental derangement, by shooting himself through the heart with a pistol.—Adv.

Lake Erie is higher than it has been known to be for seven years.
