Miscellaneous.

Legislative Post Masters.—It will be seen on reference to the proceedings of the Legislature, that resolutions have been adopted in both Houses...

It was certainly amusing, to say the least, to witness the agitation produced among the whig and nullifying members...

In the Senate, Dr. Banting's resolution was most pugnaously resisted by the nullifying whig spouters; they railed against it, as no less discourteous to the Senate...

But Mr. Edwards, always a fearless and able champion of the Republican party, on this occasion handled these "new born whig" apologists of the legislative office-holders...

Another Triumph!—David H. Kenyon, Esq. the member elect from Pasquotank, in place of Mr. Muse...

The Electoral College of North Carolina.—Assembled in this City on Wednesday last, and cast the 15 Electoral votes of the State for Martin Van Buren as President...

The triumph of the Democracy of our State, has thus been consummated. The beacon fires which the coalition whigs and nullifiers raised upon the mountains in token of momentary success...

On the announcement of the vote of the College, a salute of fifteen guns, was fired from a piece of ordnance previously arranged for the purpose in the State House yard...

The presence of the venerated Patriot, and Father of the Republican party, the Hon. Nathaniel Macon, President of the College, and of the venerable Messrs. Wilfong and Parker, added three fold interest to the thrilling scenes of the day.

express his patriotic emotions, at the success of those pure principles of Democracy, of which he had been the devoted champion during the whole period of his political life.

On Motion of Col. George Bowers, Col. Philo White, of Raleigh, was elected Messenger to convey the votes of this Electoral College to Washington City...

Both were triumphs of principle; but Mr. Jefferson's uativity and residence, were calculated to concentrate the whole South in his favor; whole State pride, southern feeling, and every local consideration, were arrayed against Mr. Van Buren in North Carolina...

Raleigh, Dec. 7, 1836. The Electoral College.—This being the day, appointed by law, for the assembling of the Electors of President and Vice President of the United States...

Hon. Nat. Macon, Jno. Wilfong, Esq. Col. Geo. Bowers, A. Henderson, Esq. John Hill, Esq. Jolu Parker, Esq. Col. Wm. A. Morris, Abm. W. Venable, Esq. Dr. J. O. Watson, Col. Wm. B. Lockhart, Dr. G. C. Marchant, Gen. Louis D. Wilson, Wm. P. Ferrand, Esq. Owen Holmes, Esq.

On motion of John Wilfong, Esq. the Hon. Nat. Macon was elected President of the College; who returned thanks for the honor conferred on him in brief but appropriate terms.

On motion of Wm. P. Ferrand, Esq. Thomas G. Stone, Esq. of Franklin county, was elected Secretary of the Convention.

On motion of Col. Wm. B. Lockhart, Thos. B. Wheeler and Isaac Fruit, were appointed door keepers.

On motion of Abram W. Venable, Esq. James R. Love, Haywood county, was elected a member of this Electoral College, to fill the vacancy caused by the inability of Col. Robert Love...

Owen Holmes, Esq. then nominated Martin Van Muren, of the State of New York, for President of the United States of America; and Gen. Louis D. Wilson, nominated Richard M. Johnson, of the State of Kentucky, for Vice President of the United States of America.

On motion of Arch'd Henderson, Esq. Dr. Josiah O. Watson, Dr. Gideon C. Marchant, were appointed a committee to receive and count out the votes of the Electors.

On collecting and counting the ballots, the committee reported that Martin Van Buren had fifteen votes, the whole number given in, for President; and that Richard M. Johnson had also received fifteen votes, the whole number given in, for Vice President.

The President of the College then announced the result; that Martin Van Buren, of the State of New York, had received the unanimous vote of this Electoral College, for President of these United States. And, in like manner, that Richard M. Johnson, of the State of Kentucky, had received the unanimous vote of this Electoral College, for Vice President of these United States.

On motion of Abram W. Venable, Esq. the thanks of the Electoral College were presented to their President, the Hon. Nat. Macon, for the dignified and impartial manner in which he had presided over their deliberations...

On motion of Abram W. Venable, Esq. the thanks of the College were tendered to the Pastor and Members of the Methodist Church, for the use of their House of Worship, in which the College is now assembled.

On motion of Gen. Louis D. Wilson, the thanks of the College were presented to the Secretary and Door-keepers, for their services.

On motion of Abram W. Venable, Esq. the College then adjourned sine die. Attest, THOMAS G. STONE, Sec'y. Standard.

Standard.

The Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church for the District of N. C. met at Bradford's Meeting House, Halifax county, on Friday the 9th instant. Considerable number, both of Ministers and Laymen, were in attendance. They consulted together with good order, unanimity and brotherly love for the welfare of the Redeemer's kingdom and the salvation of their race, until Monday evening, when after having passed through the business presented for their consideration they adjourned sine die, to meet the 1st Friday in December next, at Shiloh Randolph county.
