

Sept. The following items contain the only news of interest we discover.

Spain.—Don Carlos, by accounts to Sept 21, has retreated from before Madrid and the capital is again quiet. It is thought Espartaco, who was in pursuit of him, will again allow him to escape.

Liverpool Cotton Market, Sept. 27.—The demand has very materially fallen off, our market has been dull, and prices generally have declined 1-8d to 4d per lb.

Sept 29.—There has been a great falling off in the demand since our last, and consequently, a very inactive market, which has enabled the few buyers, who have attended, to make selection of quality and at easier prices, those of last week being barely supported.

Washington Market, Oct. 31.—Turpentine, new dip, $2 40;—Old $2 00.—Whig.

Petersburg Market, Oct. 31.—Cotton—Coming in more freely, and in demand from 7 to 104 cents.—Int.

Notice.
WE have of late had a new elementary work introduced among us and into our schools, entitled the Beacon Spelling Book, Which we find from experience, to be far superior to any thing of the kind ever offered to the public. It is generally believed with us, that children will learn twice as fast, from the study of that work, as they will from any other spelling book whatever; for which reason parents and teachers are advised, to use the Beacon Spelling Book, for the early advancement of the rising generation.

Notice.
HAVING positively decided on removing from Tarboro' on the 1st June, we respectfully invite all our friends who have unsettled accounts of any description with us, to call and settle the same at the earliest possible day their convenience will admit. Our business has been of long standing, and our uniform disposition to be accommodating to our customers, we hope will be a sufficient stimulus to insure a punctual acquiescence to our request, that we may be enabled to close our business by May Court, (the longest time we think of residing in Tarborough.) This appeal is made with a confident expectation that all concerned will call at our store as desired.

Any claims on us will be promptly paid when presented. We also offer Any Goods in our Store AT COST. The stock is large, variety very general, quality superior, and bought 10 to 15 per cent under prices generally paid for Goods the last year.

Real Estate, Store house, ware houses, and Lot, Large and extensive, the most pleasantly located and arranged for business of any in the place—indeed it is not inferior to any in the State, for comfort and extended mercantile operations.

A large Dwelling, And out houses of all descriptions, pleasantly located in good condition for a large family or boarding house, dining room 40 feet long with two Lots of Land attached.

Two Lots of Land, With a gin and screw house, a first rate iron screw, and 60 saw gin, with room to hold 100,000 lbs seed cotton, and 50 bales when packed—a large stable, granary, fodder lot, and carriage horses, work shop, &c. not inferior to any in the State.

About 200 acres of Land, One and a half miles from town—a convenient privilege for any resident in Tarboro.

Also, a plantation on Fishing Creek, 750 acrs. s, 15 miles above Tarboro', with a large and comfortable dwelling house, all necessary out houses, large garden well enclosed, grape vines, selected fruit trees, &c. surrounded by a large and handsome grove, and as good water as any below the mountains—comprising one of the healthiest and best locations in this part of the county. The dwelling is in the pine woods, 1 1/2 miles from the Creek, or main plantation; on which is a good overseer's house, cotton house, negro houses, &c. with a large barn and stables, and the best farm yard in the county for raising manure, all well enclosed—cleared land sufficient to make 600 barrels corn, 40 to 50,000 lbs seed cotton, small grain, potatoes, &c. &c. well divided, with good gates, fences, &c. and will insure to the purchaser as profitable an investment as any farm in the county of the same extent. Any person residing down the country would find this one of the most healthy and delightful residences in the State.

All or any of the above property will be sold at a great sacrifice.

NEW Chinese Mulberry.
THE subscriber has for disposal several hundred rooted trees and cuttings of the noted Morus Multicaulis, or New Chinese Mulberry; Found doubly advantageous for silk culture, and one of the most beautiful ornamental trees, of moderate size, the eye can rest upon. Of the ease of propagating this tree and its rapid growth the public may judge when informed that from a small rooted plant, for which a dollar was paid at Baltimore about four years since, the subscriber has disposed of a large number, and has yet as above stated, and that his first propagated trees are near twenty feet high and beautifully proportioned. The leaf is a dark green color and often 16 inches long and 11 broad.
The price, (now reduced) is 50 cents each for plants upwards of 5 feet high, and proportionate for those of a smaller size, and when a number are taken at a time.
