Raleigh. September 1, 1836. For five or ax years previous to the spring of 1834, a negro man of mine had been much afflicted with an ulcerated arm and band, who is rendered him almost use best manner, or taken in exchange for less. The alcer embraced that part of his arm from the ellow down, including his entire hand, which was literally a mass of folk, verivers or caual, are informed purrefaction. A joint of one finzer, and a part of the thumb, perished and dropt off, A more distressing and hopeless case I have never beheld. It was abandoned by his physician as incurable, except by amputation of the hand. The hest medical treatment having failed to relieve the mae, I placed him under the care of Mr. William W. Grey, in this place, who, with his Qintment, has effectually cured the case, although the negro was frequently absent, for weeks and mo the together. He has been entirely well for the last eight months, and I have good reason to believe will continue so. WILLIAM BOYLAN.

ESTABLISHMENT OF The Journal Office FOR SALE.

OWING to the intended removal of one of the Editors, and the wish of the other to devote himself more exclusively to the duties of his profession, the undersigned offer for sale the establishment of the North Carolina

Journal Office.

The Office is well found in Job, Newspaper and Ornomental Type, the list of subscribers is tolerably large, and they doubt not might be greatly augmented by a little exertion. To any person desirous of embarking in the business, it offers inducements not inferior to any in this State, but to a practical printer they know of no in-vestment he could make of his money, that would yield him a more profitable return.
