

TARBOROUGH

SAURDAY, SEPT 29, 1838.

Small Pox in Warrenton.—We learn from a private source, that a case of this dreadful disease has recently made its appearance in Warrenton, in the person of a negro woman attending one of the Taverns.

Governor Troup.—We are gratified to perceive that this gentleman has declared himself in favor of the Constitutional Treasury.

"We have seen a letter from Governor Troup, very recently written, in which the views of this distinguished citizen are strongly and explicitly given in regard to a Sub-Treasury and a National Bank.

New Party Name.—The enemies of Democracy, it is now frequently remarked, are getting uneasy under the appellation of "Whig," which they have already borne till it has become odious to the people.

Things by their right names.—Mr. Editor.—The true name of the party now styling themselves "Wings, is Hoco Poco. I have traced them through all their aliases, as "Adams men," "National Republicans," "Constitutional Republicans," and "Whigs"—and have discovered this to be the true name of this party of disguises.

Another Name!—Mr. Wm. C. Preston, of South Carolina, in declining to attend a Democratic Republican Festival at Richland in that State, gives his own party the name of "State Right Whig Party."

The Democratic party have insisted that the exchanges would be equalized without any other regulator than the laws of trade, while the Federalists have claimed that they could only be equalized by a National Bank. Here we see the result.

Fatal Encounter.—A fracas took place in Greenville, S. C. a few days since, which terminated in the death of Dr. Earl, of that place.

A Splendid Bridge.—The bridge over the James river at Richmond, for the use of the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad, is one thousand yards long, rests upon nineteen stone piers, the arches having a space of one hundred and sixty feet, and the floor is sixty feet above the water—it cost $110,000. It was first passed by the cars on Saturday last.

Died, on Saturday last, in the agonies of Hydrophobia, Master Pleasant Butterworth of this place, in the 19th year of his age. About 6 or 7 weeks ago, this youth was bitten by a Dog belonging to the family, having some of the evidences of being rabid.

say that the principles of the paper will remain entirely unchanged. It will continue to support democratic men and democratic measures, as it has done for ten years past. Success attend them.—ib.

Charleston.—We regret to learn that the fever has not abated in Charleston. The bill of mortality for the week ending the 25th was greater than in any week of former years; 68 died of the fever alone, in that time.

New Orleans.—The cases of the yellow fever are said by the Bulletin to be on the increase in New Orleans.—ib.

The report which reached us a few days since of the extent of the damage at the Bar by the late Gale, we are pleased to state is incorrect. Considerable injury however was done to the shipping, as will be seen from the following list of disasters, which we believe to be correct, as the intelligence has been furnished us by gentlemen direct from the Bar.

Schr. Valiant, Credle, of this port, bound to Philadelphia, with naval stores, sunk—most of the cargo saved—vessel will be got up.

Schr. American Coaster, Dixon, of this port, bound to Boston, with naval stores, sunk—cargo saved—vessel will be got up.

Schr. Philadelphia, bound to St. Baris, received a slight damage in rudder and outwater.

Schr. John Hughes, of Newbern, for Demarara, tore upwindlass.

Schr. Sidney, from Alligator, laden with shingles, ashore—bilged—cargo saved.

Schr. Guide, lighter, for the Greenville of this port, sunk—part of the cargo lost.

Schr. Mariner, lighter, for the John Myers of this port, ashore and bilged—cargo mostly lost.

Schr. Mary and Little Joe ashore—total wreck.

Schr. Fancy, of Elizabeth City, ashore.

Schr. Mary Caroline, of Plymouth, got off and went ashore on the 16th inst.

Sloop Henry Bateman, went ashore on the 17th—sunk got off.

Sloop —, bound to Florida, with provisions, ashore.

Schr. Two Sisters, of Edenton, both masts gone.

Schr. Fulford, ashore.

Schr. New York, of Newbern, went on shore about 25 miles south west of the Bar; bilged, and masts cut away—total loss—crew saved.—Washington Whig.

Regulating the Exchanges.—The New Haven Register exhibits the rates of exchanges in December 1836, with a National Bank, and September 1838, without a National Bank; the former being a period when the National Bank was in successful operation, and had been for ten years.

Table with columns for Dec. 1836 and Sept. 1838, listing exchange rates for various locations like N England, Baltimore, Richmond, Charleston, Cincinnati, Augusta, Savannah, Mobile, New Orleans, Nashville, Natchez, and Kentucky.

The Democratic party have insisted that the exchanges would be equalized without any other regulator than the laws of trade, while the Federalists have claimed that they could only be equalized by a National Bank. Here we see the result.

trust in its virtues to deliver him from the distressing malady of which he died.—After, however, the lapse of more than a week, he was induced by his friends to submit himself to a mercurial course until he was salivated. Indulging the hope that all was well, and the possibility that the animal that had bitten him was not mad, he continued in the enjoyment of his usual health, until Friday last, when he was taken with a slight pain between the shoulders and a chill. He went to bed, and about 2 o'clock of Saturday morning, arose to get some water, and was seized with those spasmodic symptoms which were but the precursors of his approaching doom.

A Mr. Campbell was killed in Henderson county on the 31st ult. by a Mr. Harrison. It appears that there was an affray between the parties some months ago, and that Harrison subsequently left home and returned on the 31st in a trading boat.

Gross deception.—A fellow who called himself Elder Joseph Grover, whose real name was subsequently ascertained to be William F. Miss-blue, by the use of forged credentials gained admission as a regular Baptist preacher to the sympathies and patronage of a large and influential religious community in Fayette county, Pa.

Important Fact.—A mixture of lime water and sweet oil is a sure and rapid remedy for scalds and burns. The lime water and sweet oil in proper proportions, form a substance rather thicker than cream, and should be stirred until they become of that subsistence.

A raw Onion, applied to the wound of a sting of a wasp or a bee, is said to be an instantaneous cure. Remember, and try it.

We learn from the Milledgeville paper, that Gov. Gilmer of Georgia, has issued his orders for raising a regiment of eight companies of militia in the Southern counties, for the purpose of expelling the Indians from the Ok-finokee swamp.

Texas.—General Lamar is elected President of this gallant little Republic. The best order was preserved during the elections, as the consequence of very little excitement.

On the borders, considerable skirmishing has taken place between the citizens and the Comanche Indians. The Indians are so cowardly, that they are held in perfect contempt by the frontier inhabitants.

Foreign.—Later from England.—By the arrival of the Packet ship England, from Liverpool, we have London papers to the 18th and Liverpool to the 20th ultimo.

The accounts of the grain crops in England, are more favorable, and prices of wheat had undergone a considerable decline. The receipts of both foreign and domestic wheat had been very large.

Parliament had been prorogued by the Queen in person on the 16th ult. till the 11th of October.

The King of France has issued an ordinance prohibiting the export of Bread Stuffs from the ports of his kingdom.

The fears which had been created respecting the crops in France, have been dispelled by the continuance of fine weather, and there is now every expectation that the harvest will be good and abundant.

A correspondence had taken place, which will be found between Mr. O'Connell and Mr. Stevenson in reference to certain offensive expressions alleged to have been used by the former gentleman touching the slave-holding relations of the American minister.

THE AMERICAN MINISTER AND MR. O'CONNELL

23 Portland Place, Aug. 9.

Sir—My attention has been called to the publication in the last Spectator of a speech which purports to have been delivered by you at a public meeting in Birmingham, in which you are reported to have used the following language in relation to myself:

"I believe their very Ambassador here is a slave breeder, one of those beings who rear up slaves for the purpose of traffic. Is it possible that America would send here a man who traffics in blood, and who is a disgrace to human nature?"

I am, sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, A. STEVENSON.

To Daniel O'Connell, Esq. &c.

16 Pall Mall, Aug. 10.

Sir—In consequence of your letter of yesterday's date I examined the report of my speech at Birmingham in the Spectator of the 4th inst., and have no hesitation in saying that the paragraph you have selected is not a correct report of what I said on that occasion.

I have the honor to be sir, Your very obedient servant, DANIEL O'CONNELL.

33 Portland Place, Aug. 11, 1838.

Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of last evening in answer to the one from myself of the preceding day.

Presuming that you intended your reply as a disavowal of the offensive expressions contained in that part of your reported speech which had allusion to myself, and to which your attention was called, I am satisfied with the answer you have given.

I am, sir, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, A. STEVENSON.

To D. O'Connell, Esq. &c.

Liverpool Market, Aug. 14.—Since the last packet sailed, 9th inst. we have had but a very moderate demand for cotton; the holders, as noticed in our last, having shown more disposition to press their supplies upon the market.

The sales on the 11th inst. (Saturday) were about 2500, and yesterday 3000 bales were sold, holders showing less disposition to sell.

Aug. 18.—The Cotton Market has continued dull since the above, and middling and lower qualities have been sold at 18 per lb. lower.

New York Market, Sept. 22.—The news from England has not induced holders of flour to lower prices materially, but there have been no buyers this morning.

Petersburg Market, Sept. 25.—Further accounts from England by the Packet of the 16th, represent the Wheat Crop to be better than was anticipated—the weather was fine and prices have declined.

Norfolk Market, Sept. 22.—Cotton, 9 to 11 cents; Corn, 65 to 88 cents; Bacon, 14 to 14 1/2 cents.—Her.

Washington Market, Sept. 25.—Tanned hams, new dip, $2.90; Old $1.65; Sides $1.00. Tar, $1.75.—Whig.

A CAMP MEETING will be held at Batts' meeting house, in Edgercombe county, on the Raleigh road, near upper Tarboro Creek meeting house, about twenty miles West of Tarboro', to commence on Wednesday the 3d day of October next.

DIED,

In Edgercombe county, on the 27th inst. in the 28th year of her age, Mrs. Margaret S. Spruill, wife of Benjamin J. Spruill, Esq. Mrs. Spruill was a most excellent wife, kind and affectionate mother, and a sincere friend.

It is the way to add strength to our small, feeble, in and in sort of white-bellied race of people.

JAS. J. HARRISON, 19th Sept. 1838.
