

Doctor W. EVANS'
SOOTHING SYRUP
For children Teething,
PREPARED BY HIMSELF.

To Mothers and Nurses.
THE passage of the Teeth through the gums produces troublesome and dangerous symptoms. It is known by mothers that there is great irritation in the mouth and gums during this process. The gums swell, the secretion of saliva is increased, the child is seized with frequent and sudden fits of crying, watchings, starting in the sleep, and spasms of peculiar parts; the child shrieks with extreme violence, and thrusts its fingers into its mouth. If these precursory symptoms are not speedily alleviated, spasmodic convulsions universally supervene, and soon cause the dissolution of the infant. If mothers who have their little babes afflicted with these distressing symptoms, would apply Dr. William Evans's Celebrated Soothing Syrup, which has preserved hundreds of infants when thought past recovery, from being suddenly attacked with that fatal malady, convulsions.

A real blessing to Mothers.
Dr. W. Evans' celebrated Soothing Syrup for children cutting their teeth.
This infallible remedy has preserved hundreds of Children, when thought past recovery, from convulsions. As soon as the Syrup is rubbed on the gums, the child will recover. This preparation is so innocent, so efficacious, and so pleasant, that no child will refuse to let its gums be rubbed with it. When infants are at the age of four months, though there is no appearance of teeth, one bottle of the Syrup should be used on the gums, to open the pores. Parents should never be without the Syrup in the nursery where there are young children; for if a child wakes in the night with pain in the gums, the Syrup immediately gives ease by opening the pores and healing the gums; thereby preventing Convulsions, Fevers, &c.

Proof positive of the efficacy of Dr. Evans' Soothing Syrup.
To the Agent of Dr. Evans' Soothing Syrup: Dear Sir—The great benefit afforded to my suffering infant by your Soothing Syrup, in a case of protracted and painful dentition, must convince every feeling parent how essential an early application of such an invaluable medicine is to relieve infant misery and torture. My infant, while teething, experienced such acute sufferings, that it was attacked with convulsions, and my wife and family supposed that death would soon release the babe from anguish till we procured a bottle of your Syrup; which as soon as applied to the gums a wonderful change was produced, and after a few applications the child displayed obvious relief, and by continuing in its use. I am glad to inform you, the child has completely recovered, and no recurrence of that awful complaint has since occurred; the teeth are emanating daily and the child enjoys perfect health. I give you my cheerful permission to make this acknowledgment public, and will gladly give any information on this circumstance.

Dr. W. EVANS'S
CELEBRATED

Fever and Ague Pills.
THIS widely extended and most admirable Remedy for Fever and Ague, and other Fevers, which has already rendered such benefit, and proved a sure and speedy cure for the above named disorders, is particularly recommended to public notice.
On first feeling the premonitory symptoms occur, it is advisable at once to clear thoroughly the stomach and bowels. In no way can this be better and less inconveniently effected, than by taking a few doses of

Dr. Evans's purifying Pills, the value and well authenticated virtues of which medicine have been, and still are, too apparent to call for further comment. They tend to promote a healthy secretion of the Bile, and render the system capable of receiving with benefit the invigorating
And strengthening Pills

PETERS' PILLS.

THE following was forwarded to Dr. Peters, by a highly respectable Planter of Wake Co. No. Ca., March 3d, 1838:
Dr. PETERS.—Dear Sir: By request of your agent, Mr. Harrison, I send you a few lines respecting the almost miraculous effects of your pills; and I would add, that you may make use of them, in connection with my name, in any manner you deem proper. I speak of their merits from experience, as I and my family have taken upwards of thirty boxes in three years; and so great are the benefits I would rather purchase them at ten dollars a box than have my house without them. I will not enumerate the afflictions they have relieved us of; but I can assure you they were many, and of very opposite natures, which has fully proved to me that your medicine is a simple purifier of the system, and therefore equally the enemy of every disease. I will mention one case. I have a sister who had been for a long period severely afflicted with dropsy in the chest and was brought by it to the very verge of the grave. She was attended by the most eminent physicians that money could procure; but all their efforts to restore her to health, or even to mitigate her sufferings, were fruitless; and accordingly, we all considered her immediate death as inevitable. By good fortune, however, as she was in this situation, expecting every day to be her last, your pills were introduced into my family, and so speedy and palpable were their effects that three doses visibly relieved her, and in less than three months she was perfectly restored to health. This case I and all who were witness of it, (but more especially the suffering party,) considered to be the next thing to miraculous; and yet I should mention many more of an equally desperate nature, in which your pills were equally successful in rescuing the patients from the jaws of death. Need I add that the popularity of your medicine amounts to enthusiasm in this section of the country? but this I presume you know from the immense quantity you dispose of. I may mention, however, that notwithstanding its general use, I never heard an individual complain of its effects. My residence is 12 miles from Raleigh, on the road to Fayetteville. I am, with sentiments of regard, your ob'dt servant,
A. G. BANKS.
Suffolk, Va. Feb. 7, 1838.

To Dr. PETERS.—Dear Sir: It will no doubt be gratifying to you to hear of one among the many of the wonderful cures which have been effected by your medicine in this place. For three years or upwards I had been awfully afflicted with the liver complaint, dyspepsia and enlargement of the spleen. My abdominal muscles were greatly contracted, and it was really frightful to contemplate the size of my spleen. Added to these, I had costiveness and piles for my constant companions, and in short, the multitude of my afflictions had brought me to the brink of eternity. During the entire period of my sufferings I was attended by various physicians, but their prescriptions at best, only afforded a temporary relief, so that I was in a state almost amounting to despair, when it so happened (and I bless God for the circumstance) that I was advised by a friend (who had himself been greatly benefited by their use,) to make trial of your pills. I did so, and the result was that from the first week of their application I began to improve a pace, and am at the present writing in the enjoyment of perfect health. I suppose that in all I have used about fifteen dollars worth of your medicine. You may make whatever use you wish of this letter, and believe me to be
Yours, very truly,
WM. HOLMES.
Suffolk, Va. Feb. 7, 1838.

This is to certify that I am intimately acquainted with Mr. Wm. Holmes, and am fully aware that the above document, through all its circumstances, is perfectly correct. My means for being so positive of this, is that Wm. Holmes is one of my nearest neighbors, and the medicine of which he speaks was purchased at my office. I would add that this is only one of a number of cases equally desperate, which have come within my knowledge as being cured by "Dr. Peters' Vegetable Pills." I need scarcely say that they are more popular here than any other medicine, and such I have no doubt will be the case wherever they are known.
ARTHUR SMITH, P. M.
Charlotte, N. C. Nov. 11, 1837.

DEAR SIR—Your Pills are so extremely popular here, that the people are but few, and far between who think of using any other. Calomel, blue pills, and the whole catalogue of patent medicines which were in vogue in these parts, have vanished before them, like mists before the sun. I have recently purchased two thousand boxes from your general agent, Mr. Harrison, and there has been such a demand for them, that I believe I will shortly have to trouble you with another order.
H. B. WILLIAMS, P. M.
Petersburg, Va. Jan. 9, 1837.

This will certify that I was afflicted for several years with Chronic Hepatitis, (Liver Complaint,) and after using various preparations of mercury, &c. as prescribed by physicians, without any effect, that Peters' Vegetable Pills have produced a complete cure.
My complaints were pain in the head and side, dizziness, sourness of stomach, capricious appetite, furred tongue, costiveness, &c., which have all been removed. I am fully convinced that my life has been preserved by the use of Peters' Pills, and in many other cases I have known them to be used with equally beneficial results.
JAS. W. SCARBOROUGH.
Union Hotel, Raleigh, N. C. April 9, 1837.

DEAR SIR—Having been for several years afflicted with Liver Complaint and general debility, I had recourse to your inestimable Vegetable Pills, and the result is that I am now in the enjoyment of excellent health. I am never without them in my own family, and I descend upon their virtues to all my friends; but the latter is nearly labor in vain, as they are already extremely popular here.
J. C. BLATCHFORD.
Greensborough, N. C. Jan. 1837.

This will certify that my wife was severely afflicted with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for ten years, and had nearly lost the use of her right arm—that she had been under the care of several eminent physicians, and made use of a variety of popular medicines, all of which failed in the desired effect—until she had recourse to your Vegetable Pills, ten boxes of which have completely restored her to health.
I myself am troubled with Head-ache and Colic, and have never known an instance in which your Pills did not afford me speedy relief.
W. W. WOODBURN.
Mechlenburg county, Va. Feb. 4, 1837.

DEAR SIR—I have been using your Pills for the last eight months, and have this day purchased twelve dozen boxes of Mr. Harrison, who wished me to transmit to my opinions touching their merits. For myself, I never found any medicine that has done me so much good; but I have yet higher authority in their favor, for I have sold a great number of boxes to the physicians around here, all of whom have expressed themselves highly gratified with their effects. This of course has made them very popular here; indeed, so much so, that they are to be found in almost every dwelling. Make what use you please of this; and I wish it could be made yet more flattering as I feel that nothing too favorable can be said of your Pills.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN FINCH.
New Glasgow, Agherist co. Va. Nov. 8, 1837.

This is to certify that I have seen Peters' Vegetable Pills used in a case of dropsy, and am prepared to substantiate, that a most perfect cure was the issue.
About 8 months ago, my boy, a slave, was taken down by the above complaint, and accordingly I called in a physician, but he afforded him no relief. I then had recourse, by the recommendation of a former sufferer, to the pills alluded to; and the effect was, that in less than three months, the patient was as well as ever.
EDWARD A. CABELL.
Edenton, N. C. April 10, 1838.

DEAR SIR—I have been using your pills in my family, for the last twelve months, with the greatest satisfaction. In Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Sick Head ache, Costiveness, and Debility, they are indeed invaluable. I have to add in their favor, that I have recommended them to many of my neighbors, not a few of whom, have since informed me that they believed their lives were saved by their use. Yours, &c.

Moffat's Life Pills
And Phoenix Bitters.

THE high and envied celebrity which this preeminent medicine has acquired for its invariable efficacy in all the diseases which it professes to cure, has rendered the usual practice of ostentatious puffing, not only unnecessary, but unworthy of them. They are known by their fruits; their good works testify for them, and they thrive not by the faith of the credulous. In all cases of Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Bilious and Liver Affections, Asthma, Piles, Settled Pains, Rheumatism, whether chronic or inflammatory, Fevers and Agues, obstinate Headaches, Impure state of the Fluids, unhealthy appearance of the skin, Nervous Debility, the sickness incident to females in delicate health, every kind of weakness, of the digestive organs, and in all general derangements of health, these medicines have invariably proved a certain and speedy remedy. They restore vigorous health to the most exhausted constitutions. A single trial will place the LIFE PILLS and PHOENIX BITTERS beyond the reach of competition, in the estimation of every patient.

Happy and grateful in the possession of a medicine which effects so much real and permanent good for his fellow creatures, MR. MOFFAT begs to say, that he cannot abuse the gift of Providence and assail the health of the community by adopting the mercenary practice of recommending them to be taken in inordinate quantities. From two to five pills is an adequate and proper dose of any good medicine in this form; and the excessive quantities which the public are advised to take by other practitioners, only engender the humors and corruptions which they profess to remove. Remove them they may, but they create them first, and the debilitated patient is doomed to be a pill swallower to the end of his days. Mr. Moffat wishes to benefit the public health, and not to destroy it for money.
Office 267 Broadway.
From the N. Y. Sun, Oct. 25, 1836.

DR. MOFFAT'S PHOENIX BITTERS.—In addition to the numerous and strong testimonials of the admirable efficacy of Dr. Moffat's Phoenix Bitters, which almost daily appear in the public prints, we take pleasure in adding our own humble commendations of its merits, it having been used in the family of one of the editors of this paper, with a beneficial result wholly unlooked for, and which many other popular medicines, perseveringly and faithfully applied, had wholly failed to produce. We therefore heartily recommend it, particularly to females, afflicted with pains in the breast or side, general debility, &c.
Sun Office, July 25, 1838.

MR. MOFFAT—Dear Sir—Permit the writer of the above paragraph, after a lapse of nearly two years; during which he had almost weekly opportunities of further testing the merits of your incomparable medicines as well in his own family, as in a large circle of intimate friends, to reiterate in as public a manner as to you may seem proper, the high opinion of them which, upon a former occasion, he expressed thro' the columns of the Sun. When I say that such is my faith in their efficacy that in the incipient stage of every kind of sickness, I would allow no medicine whatever to take precedence of yours; and that when disease through negligence or mal-treatment, should become confirmed, my first resort would be to the matchless antidotes which you have happily furnished world much abused by empiricism and quackery. I say no more than a very extensive observation and experience make it my duty to say, and no more than scorn within the range of my acquaintance, will have at my solicitation, tested and realized their virtues, will heartily join me in asserting. Since the commencement of the present year, I have witnessed a greater amount of benefit derived from the use of your Bitters alone, than from the whole of Pharmacology beside; and most sincerely do I rejoice that the general knowledge and experience of the incomparable merits of your medicines are increasing, and extending as rapidly and universally, as I am happy to learn from various parts of the Union, that they are.

Letter from B. J. Redderhyerta.
St. Bartholomew, Oct. 10th, 1838.
The undersigned had been for the last twenty years laboring under very frequent attacks of indigestion with all its concomitant dangers and unpleasantness, together with frequent attacks of the hypochondria, rendering him very often unfit for business, remedies of almost every description from various Physicians, were of no avail until the importation here of Moffat's celebrated Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters, when he was induced to try them, and is happy to declare to a speedy result of restoring him to health and spirits, he therefore conscientiously testifies to the efficacy of that valuable medicine.
B. A. REDDERHYERTA.

Letter from Elizabeth Thomas.
Prospect Hill, Newark, Jan. 24, 1837.
To Mr. Moffat—Dear Sir: I take this opportunity of addressing these few lines to you, which you are at liberty to use in any way you think proper. For a long time past I have been afflicted with a nervous affection, and was so reduced as to have no hopes that I should ever recover. I had been under the care of an eminent physician many months—but still getting worse, I applied to a certain doctor of great notoriety in New York, who stated that he was the only man in the United States who could cure me, but his charges being enormous, and my son constantly urging me to try your "Life Pills," I determined to do so. I commenced taking them, but did not place any confidence in their efficacy; judge of my surprise at finding myself, when I had taken only half a box of Pills, able to turn myself in bed, which I had not been able to do for several months previous without assistance. When I had taken two boxes, I was, as I now am, in perfect health, and not in the least troubled with my late complaint. To the public I would earnestly recommend your Life Pills as superior to any other medicine I know of. Accept, dear sir, the best wishes of a grateful patient for your health and prosperity. Yours respectfully,
ELIZABETH THOMAS.

Letter from Benjamin P. Grumbs.
St. Bartholomew, Sept 27, 1838.
I, the undersigned Benjamin P. Grumbs, do hereby certify and declare that I labored under a most horrid species of Scrophula, which, were I minutely to describe, would be as disgusting as it would be incredible to the reader; and was from general debility reduced to the brink of the grave. Through the humanity of some gentleman, I was enabled to procure a supply of Moffat's celebrated Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters, that on taking them I began to feel immediate relief, and in the course of one month under divine Providence, I am raised from a bed of lingering misery, and of course, ultimate death, to health and strength to attend to my vocation. I most freely offer this certificate as much for the benefit of others who may suffer as much as I have from diseases of that nature; as a humble meed of praise to the efficacy of that valuable medicine.
E. B. GRUMBS.

For further particulars of the above medicine see Moffat's Good Samaritan, a copy of which accompanies the medicine—one copy may also be had at the Printing Office in Tarboro', where the medicine is for sale.

To all whom it may concern.
