

PAREDECUSE:

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1842.

We invite attention to the "National Sermon," on our first page, from the pen of Elder Joshua Lawrence, of the Baptist denomination, written on the eve of the anticipated rupture between South Carolina and the General Government. The remodelling of the Tariff, in a shape more odions and oppressive than any that have to the public. Each succeeding Congress that handle this subject, seem to say in effect to the South, in the language of the text selected, our pre lecessors "chastised took place in this City, on Friday night you with whips, but we will chastise you last, which his excited a great deal of feelwith scorpions." The South will try once more the proper, the constitutional remedy, the ballot box-should that fail, a law loving and law abiding community. boil: what next?

sulted in favor of the Democracy. Vermont and New Jersey are the only States his recovery .- Ral. Reg in which the Federal Whigs have retained their ascendancy in the elections this year. We copy the following from the Globe.

Election Returns .- We have heard. ever since our boyhood, that coon skins were good in every month having the let ned in the several States during the last month, and, thus far, in this, that there is some truth in it. We ground our belief upon the number of coon skins the Democrats have nailed up to dry since the first of the last month, which we will here record in the order in which the several skinnings took place.

The first was in Vermont, on the first Monday of last month. There the Democrats skinned awhile; but finding the fur not good, they suffered the coons to run until next fall. On the Monday following they commenced in Maine-which is a little farther north, where the for becomes good earlier in fall-and there they skinned between

The device on statement. the slip of the Cincinnati Enquirer is -one coon skinned, and his skin noted up against a house; a hunter skinning another, beginning at the tail; and a third is at his feet, rubbing his tail against the skinner's legs, circumstances and motives operating on ing absent, his wife, taking a loaded pistol like a cat wanting to be perted. From the appearance of the last mentioned coon, we does not. infer that they have now become so used to skinning that they like it.

The Whigs will adver se no more coon hunts or hard eider carousals after this fail. We should not be surprised if they were to come out next fall ultra temperance men. and "ron the thing into the ground."
