

TARBOROUGH:

SATURDAY, JANUARY 13, 1844.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Col. Michael Hoke, of Lincoln.

Mussipular Abortion.

From all accounts the Whig Coon-ven. The Whigs generally and the Edgecombe Whigs in particular, do every thing on a magnificent scale. Last summer the "Cor tion" at Sparta, to take into consideration ral Tariff resolutions were introducedthe fate of the Republic! This fall they meet and Mr. Duncas of Ohio, a resolution inin Convention in Tarboro'.

We understand there were but ten pres in which they hold the mass. After some venue only, was lost, 84 to 102. "pert-inent" remarks from the chair-a committee, of course, was appointed to draft resolutions &c. &c. who retired and thereupon Mr. Jno. F. Hughes, ex magis trate and ass-istant-Marshal, drew from the deep profundity of his "breeches pocket" the grandiloquent resolutions which apridiculus mus.

Congressional Committees.

In the arrangement of the Congressional committees Mr. McKay has been appointed chairman of the committee of Ways and Means. The experience and ability of Mr. McKay and his proverbial watchfulness over the ways and means of Congress particularly recommend him for this responsible and honorable station, and instant, to announce to you your nomina we are gratified that the Democratic party of N. C. has furnished to the Nation al councils so able a champion of the people's interest.

In the Senate, our Democratic Senator, Mr. Haywood, has been placed on the body (committee of Claims-Navy-and tial compliment to his ability and untiring ensuing campaign. energy in the performance of public duties. Mr. Mangum knew too well the talents, industry, and zeal which Mr. Haywood always brought to the discharge of his duties, that the solicitations of the Democratic parnot to employ those talents for the public ty, as declared through the Convention, good; more particularly as these stations are by no means conspicuous, and the greatest labor and efficiency in their dis charge may frequently pass by unobser

In reading over the various committees, we were struck with the very different manner and spirit in which they were organized in the Senate and in the House of Representatives The Senate under the any committee. No committee has a majority of Democrats on it, and some with one and two only; while the Senate is parties, and the elections through the coun try have proclaimed the voice of the people for Democratic measures.

On the other hand the House of Representatives under the management of Mr. Jones, a Democratic Speaker, has placed campaign, I should address the people of some of the most important committees under Whig chairmen, and given the Whigs a much larger influence than the small proportion of members in the House authorized. A fair specimen of the impartiality and proscriptive feelings of the two parties.
