Where breathes the foe but falls before us!"

With freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And freedom's banner streaming o'er us."

TARBOROUGH:

SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1845. 13

1221 Majority

Thursday last was a great, a glorious, and a proud day for the Democracy of Edgecombe. They had been beset by numerous dangers, unnecessary now to specify—but the result has proved that no "danger lies in Edgecombe" sufficient to daunt or discourage her Democracy, or deter them from a faithful discharge of their duty. The following is the vote in the different districts.

FOR THE TARBORO' PRESS.

Nashville, August 10th, 1845.

Mr. Editor: The following is an Official statement of the vote of Nash county at the different precincts:

	Congress.		County Court Clerk.		S. C. Clerk.

	77		217		260

P. S. The vote for Clark is an average vote; but he did not receive quite so many as we expected to give him. His vote is thirty-eight less than Hoke's, twelve months ago. I do not think our friends below should grumble with us now.

Yours, &c., A SUBSCRIBER.

The Election.

To-morrow the Sheriffs of the counties composing this Congressional district, will meet at Washington to compare the Polls. The following will be about the majorities:

	Clark.	Donnell.
Nash,	681
Edgecombe,	1221
Pitt,		176
Beaufort,		302
Washington,		214
Tyrrell,		223
Hyde,		225
Greene,		4
Craven,		50
Carteret,	28
	1930	1224
	1224

Clark's probable maj. 706

Arrington's majority at the last Congressional election was 548.

"The danger lies in Edgecombe."

The election returns from this Congressional district, though not complete, indicate a majority of about 700 for Clark, dem. Edgecombe did not on this occasion bring forth her heavy thunder, that she used to demolish "conquerors" and Kentucky giants with. But still she gave her democratic brethren a vote which balances the combined majorities of every whig county in the district—and left it to Carteret on the ocean and Nash among the hills, to say how far our triumph should reach on this occasion. Is not that a satisfactory account of herself to both democrats and whigs? If more is required, you must show an opponent worthy of more ammunition; and she will convince him, at least, that "the danger lies in Edgecombe."

Mr. Clark at Home.

We have been favored with the following statement of the result of the elections, at the precincts nearest Mr. Clark's residence.

At Broad Creek (his own district) he received 51 votes, Donnell 90. There was only one democratic vote given against him. There were two democrats on the ground who refused to vote, and thirteen Whig votes were cast for Mr. Clark. But three democrats remained at home, and they were detained by sickness. At the last Presidential election, Clay received a majority of 8 votes at that precinct. The next district nearest Mr. Clark is Leachville. Here he received 22 votes, Donnell 11. Every democrat voted for him but 4, and he received 3 Whig votes. The third district is "Head of Pungo."

Here Mr. Clark received 10 votes, Donnell 11. At the Presidential election not a solitary democratic vote was given, or but one. But two democrats lived there at that time. These are the districts in Mr. Clark's own neighborhood. It was predicted that Donnell would beat him in his own box. So much for Whig slanders, predictions and calculations.

In the Ninth district, we learn that Col. Biggs is elected by about 150 majority.

TO THE PUBLIC.

There appeared in the last "North State Whig", a publication, bearing the signature of that contemptible puppy Henry F. Harris, alias Ferd Harris of Pitt county, with which, he attempts to enlighten the public mind, as regards, certain "false and villanous reports," which he alleges are in circulation touching the conduct and bearing of himself and principal, in the recent duel fought at Bladensburg, and which, he charges, as having emanated from me.

The object of this Card is to respectfully request the Public to suspend their judgment, until I reply to the production of this empty headed braggart. And I pledge myself to expose to merited contempt, the ridiculous conduct of this Pea town Bully. Respectfully, WM. T. BRYAN. Aug 7th, 1845.

Cotton Beds.—Much has been written on the utility of feather beds and hair mattresses.—Dr. Smith, of the Boston Medical Journal, recommends cotton beds, now extensively manufactured at Lowell; and Mr. Ellsworth, the late Commissioner of Patents, in his last report, speaks very favorably of cotton beds, as free from the offensive smell that is often enveloped by feathers, and as in many respects equal to hair, the comparative scarcity of which will always prevent its universal use for beds.—The cost of a cotton bed, including ticking, is estimated at less than eight dollars.

Worth Knowing.—On Friday last, a little son of Mr. Saxton, in New York, drank an ounce and a half of spirits turpentine, carelessly left within his reach. He immediately fell, his extremities became cold, his face livid, and he was apparently dead. Mrs. Saxton instantly got a bottle of salad oil from another room, broke off the top by smashing it on the table and poured the contents down the child's throat. In ten minutes the contents of the stomach were thrown up and the child saved, although he suffered dreadfully all night. The presence of mind of the mother well deserved the precious reward of the life of her babe, which would in a quarter of an hour have been gone forever. In all cases of poisoning let every body remember that a liberal dose of oil (any kind) is the very best immediate remedy that can possibly be procured.

The "National Intelligencer" says that the victims who were killed by lightning near that city were Mr. Boose, his wife, and their infant. They were found dead in their house, near the Piney Branch, north of the Race course. It would seem that Mr. and Mrs. Boose were seated around a table, opposite to each other, the latter with her infant in her arms. The child and its father were discovered lying dead upon the floor, the mother sitting in a chair. Except a small hole, like that from a duck shot, in the head of Mr. Boose, no wound of any kind was perceptible. Their other children, some three or four, of various ages, up to ten or twelve years, were in the room, not far distant, when their parents were struck, and escaped without injury.—When the rain ceased they gave the alarm to the nearest neighbor, their grandmother Mrs. Osborne.

Foreign.

Arrival of the Cambria.—The steamer Cambria arrived in Boston making the passage from Liverpool to Halifax in about nine days, and to Boston in eleven days and 9 hours—the shortest passage on record.

The demand for Cotton had been large, the spinners keeping themselves well supplied—partly on account of the low price of the staple, and partly induced by the promising state of business in the manufacturing districts.

For export, too, there had been great demand, and under the influence of these combined causes, large as the stock on hand was, American Cottons had advanced 1/2 per pound. The total sales of week preceding the 18th were 72,690 bags, of which speculators took a large amount. In the Havre market, too, there had been an advance in the price.

The price of American stocks was looking up. The determination of the Pennsylvanians to redeem their credit has produced this improved feeling, which exists in Paris as well as in London.

Money in the British metropolis was plentiful, and the rate of discount low.

Parliament was drawing to a close, and will be prorogued probably on the 5th or 6th of August.—We see nothing of particular interest in their proceedings.

DIED.

In Fayette county, Tennessee, on Friday morning, 18 July, aged 9 years, 11 months and 9 days, William Henry, son of Fred. W. Mayo, formerly of Martin county, N. C.

The Title of the Work is as follows:—

The Pictorial History OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION,

WITH AN ACCOUNT OF THE EARLY History of the Country, The Constitution of the United States, and a Chronological Index; Illustrated with several hundred ENGRAVINGS!

It is the determination of the publisher to spare neither pains nor expense to make this work perfectly acceptable to every family throughout the entire country. It will be found the most attractive and cheap as ever presented to the patronage of the American people. The preparation of the work has been attended with great labor and expense. History requires a distant eminence, from which to take an impartial view of the character of the transactions which submit themselves to the recording pen: but more than half a century has now elapsed since the colonists first asserted their independence; and the generation, whose arduous struggles achieved so glorious a result has passed away to the silent tomb.

Through the whole work, the editor has aimed to do justice without asperity; to applaud patriotism, but not to justify its excesses; to condemn tyranny, but not to overlook the virtues of many of its instruments; and to exhibit the kindly prospect of the future more strongly than the irritating aspect of the past. The great interest that the bare mention of such a work is calculated to excite, has encouraged the editor to make it every way worthy of a liberal patronage. An extensive sale can only enable the publisher to offer it at the low price proposed. Postmasters and others wishing to act as Agents, will receive all necessary information by addressing, post paid, ROBERT SEARS, 128 Nassau street, New York.

An Edition will also be bound up in Muslin, Gilt.

PRICE TWO DOLLARS.

Two Valuable Publications for Three Dollars.—Sears' beautiful Pictorial Family Magazine for one year, and the above work complete, will be furnished for Three Dollars, remitted in New York or Eastern funds, free of postage, through the postmasters.
