- Ninth District—Thomas Bragg, Jr.

On motion of Mr. McRae, of Wake, the Convention adjourned until half past 9 o'clock.

Half Past Three o'clock, P. M.

The Convention was called to order by the Chairman, Mr. Venable, from the Committee appointed to nominate officers for the Convention and to report rules for its government, made the following Report, which was unanimously adopted:

The Committee appointed to nominate officers for this Convention, and for other purposes, beg leave to report that they recommend to this Convention, Louis D. Henry, Esq. as President; William J. Alexander, Francis L. Simpson, Abraham W. Venable, and Wyatt Moyer, Esquires as Vice Presidents; Joseph W. Hampton and William W. Holden, Esquires, as Secretaries; and Patrick McGowan as Door-keeper. They recommend the adoption of the rules of the House of Commons as the rules of this Convention, so far as they are applicable to its business; and they further recommend that in the nomination for Governor each County shall cast as many votes as they are entitled to Representatives in the House of Commons, and that the concurrence of two-thirds of the votes shall be necessary to confer the nomination on any individual as the Democratic candidate for Governor. All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. W. VENABLE, Chairman.

Mr. Henry, the President elect of the Convention, was then conducted to the Chair by Mr. Venable; whereupon he addressed the Convention upon the political topics of the day in the most appropriate and eloquent manner.

On motion of Gen. Saunders, of Wake, the following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That a Select Committee of five be appointed by the President, to prepare Resolutions for the consideration of this Convention.

And under this Resolution the following gentlemen were appointed as the Committee: Messrs. Saunders, Venable, Bower, Baskerville, and Bragg.

On motion, the Convention adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.

Friday, January 9, 1846.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the President.

Mr. Speight, of Greene, rose and nominated for Governor the Hon. Green W. Caldwell, of Mecklenburg County; whereupon on motion, the Convention proceeded to vote viva voce as follows:

- For Green W. Caldwell.
- Ashe county, 1; Buncombe, 2; Burke, 2; McDowell, 2; Bladen, 1; Caswell, 2; Catawba and Lincoln, 1; Cleveland, 1; Columbus, 1; Cumberland, 2; Duplin, 2; Davidson, 2; Edgecombe, 2; Franklin, 2; Granville, 3; Greene, 1; Guilford, 3; Haywood, 1; Johnston, 2; Mecklenburg and Union, 3; Moore, 1; Nash, 1; New-Hanover, 2; Northampton, 2; Orange, 4; Person, 1; Pitt, 2; Rowan, 2; Sampson, 2; Stokes, 3; Surry, 3; Wake, 3; Warren, 2; Wayne, 2—67.

Mr. Caldwell, of Mecklenburg, having received all the votes cast, was thereupon declared unanimously chosen as the Democratic candidate for Governor of North Carolina.

Gen. Saunders, from the Select Committee of five reported the following Resolutions:

We, the Delegates of the Democracy of North Carolina in Convention assembled, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for the office of Governor, deem it proper to make a partial expression of our views and feelings in relation to public men and public measures. Therefore

Resolved, That we have chosen the 8th day of January for the meeting of this Convention as one heretofore singularly auspicious to democracy—being that on which our compatriots, led by the gallant heart, the intuitive intellect, and mighty arm of Andrew Jackson, overcame the enemies of the Republic, and rescued the "booty and beauty of New Orleans" from the grasp of ferocious cupidity, thereby contributing to place that extraordinary man at the head of the democratic legions of the land. He led them on to triumphant victory, and unfurled the broad banner of the constitution upon the ramparts of the country. We mourn his death as an irreparable loss. But his fame has outstripped all praise, and while the 8th of January has a place in the annals of time, the memory of Andrew Jackson will be proudly and affectionately cherished by every democrat as among the first of heroes, the wisest of statesmen, and the best of men.

Resolved, That the powers conferred by the people of the States upon the Federal Government are limited by the express grant of the Constitution, and do not authorize the National Legislature by implication to adopt any system of measures beyond the powers thus expressly delegated, and in derogation of rights withheld and reserved to the States or to the people.

Resolved, That the power to coin money and regulate the value thereof, imposes upon Congress the duty of establishing a fiscal standard of value, but confers no power of creating moneyed institutions or of chartering Banks of issue.

Resolved, That admitting the constitutional power of Congress to charter a Bank, the past history of the country proves beyond all question the impropriety of such an institution, either for the custody or disbursement of the public money, the regulation of the exchanges, or the controlling the over-issues of the Banks of the States.

Resolved, That we concur in the sentiment as expressed in the Message of the President, "that the separation of the moneys of the Government from Banking Institutions is indispensable for the safety of the funds of the government, and the rights of the people," and to this end a "Constitutional Treasury" is necessary, as well for safe-keeping of the public moneys as to protect the honest industry of the country from those revolutions, suspensions, and depreciations which invariably follow the over-issue of Bank paper.

Resolved, That the act of Congress, passed in the year 1835, for the establishment of Branch Mints in the South & Southwest, was a measure founded in wisdom and sound policy; that the establishment of the Branch Mint at Charlotte was of infinitely more importance to the merchant, farmer, and common laborer of our State than that of any Branch Bank; and we most cordially thank the democracy of the Union for such a Sub-Treasury.

Resolved, That we concur in the views as expressed by Mr. Secretary Walker, "that no more money shall be collected from the people than shall be necessary for the wants of the government," and in the adjustment of the tariff "no duty should be imposed on any article above the lowest rate which will yield the largest amount of revenue," nor should any article be imported free of duty which is the proper subject of taxation; that to levy and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises, confers on Congress the power to raise and collect revenue, but not the power to protect manufactures; and we thank the Secretary for his just exposure of those legislative tricks and contrivances—the minimum and specific duties—invented to cheat and defraud the honest consumer for the benefit of the rich and grasping manufacturer.

Resolved, That the liberal spirit which has marked our past negotiations in regard to the territory of Oregon, and the renewal of the proposition by President Polk to compromise the matter in dispute, commends itself to the approbation of every patriot; and should the rejection of the overture by the British negotiator be persisted in by his government, no alternative will be left us but part, but an abandonment of
