POLITICAL.

From the Union.

The panic in New York, in consequence of the false alarms excited by politicians, brokers, &c., from a misrepresentation of the money effects of the constitutional treasury bill, is now subsiding. The "New York Evening Post" of yesterday, says: "The Election is over, and the political panic-makers have no longer any occasion for pretending to be frightened." The "New York Journal of Commerce" comments very freely on the panic movements and curtailments of some of the banks, and contends that "there is nothing in the sub-treasury, absurd as the measure is, (the New York Journal is pleased so to say,) which can cause any serious pressure on the money-market. No man can show how the collection and disbursement of the public revenue in specie, can produce any great commotion, not even if the present balances are removed to the sub-treasury. There is nothing in the worst shape of the measure which will necessarily raise the interest of money one per cent. for three months, &c., &c., &c. It contains no provision requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to draw out the balances now in the banks. On the contrary, he is expressly authorised to let them remain, and pay out from the new collections of the sub-treasury; and there is no reason to doubt that he will do so. What foundation is there, then, for this panic, about a measure which may never be adopted, and which, if it should, would not render the removal of the deposits necessary—nor probable, except as gradually required for the wants of the government? If the banks, either from timorousness and ignorance, or from political motives, or for the purpose of keeping the public money, set about making a panic, as they did on the removal of the deposits from the United States Bank, the proceeding will now be understood, and return upon them in a trumpet of indignation. It is monstrous that the interests of this great community should be trifled with. In the deposit panic it was proclaimed that the merchants would break, and the banks would probably break. The merchants did break by hundreds, for no reason on earth but a mere alarm got up between the politicians and banks. Some bank directors, we know, are taking the same course at present, and proclaiming that if the sub-treasury passes, half the merchants will break. What can be more cruel, what more wicked, than such declarations! Bank directors will not find this the way to prevent the passage of the sub-treasury."

The banks can gain nothing by a new attempt to bring back the panic, (of the United States Bank.) Let them try it, and the indignation they will produce will only determine the republican members of Congress to act with more vigor. It should never be permitted to banks to control the money market so much as that they can produce a pressure and a panic as they please, to affect the commercial interests of the whole community, in order that they may promote their own interests, or compel the renewal of their charters. The government has a right to regulate its own finances as it pleases. Nor should it ever permit its funds to become the means of discount and speculation for the benefit of the banks. This money power of privileged corporations is becoming too strong in its acts, and too impertinent in its interference, to be suffered in a free country. The single feature in the constitutional treasury bill, which permits the deposits of the government to remain in the banks, until they are withdrawn by the necessities of the government is liberal and wise in itself. It deprives the banks of all excuse for creating any panic, or of opposing the introduction of the constitutional treasury.

From the Raleigh Standard.

Hyde County.—The North State Whig has worked itself into a perfect fury, because we thought proper, not long since, to rebuke its open and insolent interference with the affairs of the people of Hyde County. The Junto in Washington, composed of Mr. Stanly, the Editor of the Whig, and a few others, (when we speak of a Junto we call names) have been engaged for some time in attempting to carry out in Hyde the same tactics and organization which prevail in Beaufort county; and the game now is, to sacrifice the present Sheriff of Hyde, because he happens to be a Democrat! No one, we understand, alleges that he has not been a faithful officer. On the contrary, we learn that he has not only been faithful but accommodating; that he has, time after time, advanced for his fellow citizens the amount of taxes due from them; and that he has spared no pains, while at the same time he was exact and correct in the performance of his duties, to prevent the property of his fellow citizens from being exposed to ruinous sacrifices. In a word, he has been a faithful, kind, and accommodating officer; and his only fault, in the eyes of federalism is, that he is a democrat! The people of Hyde, we feel sure, will not submit to the dictation of the Washington Junto. They are competent to manage their own affairs, and they will do it, the rage of Master Henry Dinock to the contrary notwithstanding.

Deplorable Event.—The Richmond Enquirer states that whilst the Menagerie of Raymond & Co. was at Charlotteville, Va. a difficulty occurred between the students of the University and some of the keepers, which resulted in the death of a young man named Glover, from Alabama. It seemed that the students advanced near the cage just as one of the managers entered it with the lion, tiger, cougar, and leopard, and were warned to stand back, but refused to do so. Some words ensued, when one of the students struck one of the keepers with a cane, who returned the blow, killing young Glover and wounding quite seriously Messrs. Johnson, Williamson, and Waring. The keeper has been arrested and committed to prison.—ib.

From the Raleigh Register.

Cool Impudence.—A negro slave was arrested in this City a few days ago, who absconded from his master's service in Warren County, five years ago, and who has passed the whole intermediate time in this place—just fifty miles from his home—as a free negro. He has during that period, been recognised as a free man in this community, and has entered into all sorts of contracts on his own account. When his master appeared, however, he very quickly "fessed the corn."

Marine Railway.—The Old North State, notices an improvement in Elizabeth City, as follows:—

"It gives us pleasure to state that the new rail way lately finished by our enterprising townsman, Capt. Timothy Hunter, to use his own words, works like a charm." By this new arrangement two or three vessels can be brought up one at a time and placed upon the ways. They are brought up side ways, instead of head on. The John C. Calhoun, being the first, was taken up in fine style on Thursday morning."

Small Pox.—We discover that this loathsome disease has again made its appearance in several places in this State. At Wilmington several cases of varioloid have occurred a short time since, also at Hillsboro', and on the farm of T. P. Devereaux, Esq. on the Roanoke. So far we have been entirely exempt, but it is nevertheless important that our citizens should commence a general vaccination.—Newbernian.

Potomac Fisheries.—We learn that the cool weather for the last week has been unfavorable for the fisheries. The supply from the Potomac, we learn, has not been equal to the demand. Shad have sold at from $10 to $10.50 per hundred, and Herrings from $4.75 to $5 per thousand. The arrivals in this city, so far, have been quite limited.—Baltimore Argus.

Suicide of a Boy.—Edgar Wade, aged about 14 years, a son of Mr. Thomas Wade, of this county, hung himself to a tree, in the neighborhood of his father's house, on Sunday evening last. The act appeared to have been deliberately done.—No cause assigned for it.

Morganstown (Va.) Stan.

From the Raleigh Star.

Yucatan declared Independent.—Information has been received at New Orleans, from Campeachy, that Signor Barbacano, Governor of the State of Yucatan, and the members of both Houses of Congress, arrived at Campeachy from Merida on the 31st ult. to proclaim their independence of the Government of Mexico.

Asheville, April 3.—We understand that a difficulty occurred at the Sulphur Springs, in this county, on Saturday evening last, between Major Robert Murray and William Webb, during which the latter received two or three severe stabs with a knife. It is thought, however, that he will recover. Maj. Murray was bound over to answer at the next term of our Superior Court.—Messenger.

Mexico.—By late arrivals from Havana, both at Philadelphia and Baltimore, we have reports that Santa Anna had been sent for to return to Mexico, and was immediately to take his departure for Vera Cruz.

Though the foregoing reports do not correspond with the tenor of a letter transferred to our columns from the "Union" on Saturday, yet their probability is sustained by verbal intelligence brought by passengers who left Vera Cruz at noon of the 3rd instant, and reached New Orleans on the 11th. They state that a revolution against Paredes and the monarchical party, sustained by the republicans and the friends of Santa Anna, was on the point of breaking out at Vera Cruz, with every prospect of success—indeed, it was expected that the explosion would take place on the afternoon of the day on which they left. It is further stated, on the same authority, that the government troops at Vera Cruz had been seduced by the revolutionists, so that they would not act against them, and that Santa Anna was daily expected from Havana.—Nat. Int.

From Hayti.—A letter dated at Aux Cayes on the 28th of March says: "Within a few days the state of this city has been entirely changed. Great and unexpected events have taken place. Pierrrot's bad policy, ignorance, and bestial conduct have been the cause of his ruin. His great expedition against the Dominicans has ended in nothing. Gen. Riche was proclaimed President at Port-au-Prince on the 1st instant, but it was only on the 15th that he was acknowledged in this city. Should the present administration succeed, (which is to be desired,) order and tranquility will be established, and this beautiful island, once so prosperous, be restored to its former splendor. Should, unfortunately, the present administration fail, nothing but total ruin is to be expected. A few days will decide this important question."

Mail Robbery.—The Montgomery (Alabama) Journal of the 1st inst. says: On Tuesday of last week, a person fishing near the landing in this place hooked up a handkerchief containing several bundles of open letters of late date. In the handkerchief were also weights, for the purpose of sinking it. This excited suspicion, and the letters were examined at the Post Office, and it was discovered that they were from the Tuscaloosa mail of the 12th ult. which had been opened on its passage by some one having in possession a key of the "Brass Lock" mail.

The rascal must, (as appears from the letters,) have secured at least $1200. The discovery of the sunken documents was the first intimation of the robbery to the Department. We understand that several of the "Brass Locks" are missing on the route to Mobile, supposed to be taken for the purpose of discovering their mechanism and fitting keys.

Lock Jaw.—A child, ten years of age, died at Portsmouth, Va. a few days since of lock jaw, produced from a slight rupture of the skin in the palm of the hand. The Editor of the New Era says—"If a warm poultice of Indian meal, with a little laudanum or spirits of turpentine, had been applied early, it would in all probability have saved the child." Parents remember this.
